VILLAGE COUNCIL

Council Preparing for Its Demise Will Leave Wauseon Well Lighted Three New Light Agreements Acted On. Financial Status of the Village.

There remains but one more regular meeting for the present council and at that meeting last Monday evening there was evident in the actions and conversation of the members the fact that they were looking forward to their final dissolution and their departure to the indefinable "somewhere" where the spirits of departed councils may be supposed to rest—or roam.

The general subject of the meeting Monday night might well have been "light" and the action taken by the Council might well be summed up in the mandate "Let there be light—in Wauseon!" After the usual routine business Mr. John Hart presented an agreement signed by property owners on North Fulton street, to pay the difference in cost for boulevard lights, the same as those already installed, on North Fulton from Jefferson street north to Hickory street. The Council accepted the agreement and ordered the amount now paid for lighting that section of Fulton street applied on the new system. This practically completes the lighting of our main street entirely with the modern Boulevard system and it will be at night a "White Way" from South Park, north to the Washabaw railway crossing.

No sooner was the Fulton street lighting question disposed of, than another agreement signed by the property owners around South Park was presented and accepted by the Council. This action means that South Park will be surrounded by a system of the boulevard posts and that part of the town which has been anything but a "blaze of glory" at night, will be brought from darkness into light, but the end of the lighting question was not yet. Mr. Harry Gingrich presented a proposition to place the iron posts on Beech street from Fulton street to Shop avenue; he said that the T. & I. Railway company, through the general manager had indicated their desire to turn the electric current into a row of boulevard lights on Beech street and do away with the present overhead lights. According to the terms of the franchise, the T. & I. Ry. must furnish light for Beech and Depot streets, so that the only cost of the change to Wauseon will be the first 200 feet of the posts. Mr. Gingrich stated that it would take about 13 posts and that citizens and business firms had already guaranteed a number of these, he also stated that there was some 500 feet of the frontage on that street that was public property and stated that he would like to know what the Council would do toward furnishing posts. The Council after consideration passed a motion to furnish four posts and the light committee were instructed to superintend the installation of the posts. The School Board will be asked to furnish three posts. This will doubtless end the progress in town lighting for this season and it is certainly a good record.

Permission was granted Messrs. Fields and Nofsinger to change the route of moving the Trondle blacksmith shop from the street on Fulton street; the building is to be moved from its present location on Jefferson street to the extreme north end of Fulton street.

It may be interesting to note that during its life of two years the present council has increased the bonded indebtedness of the village, just $7,200 and this covers the cost of intersections on the various street improvements that have been put in; this entire amount might have been raised by next year's taxes without having exceeded the maximum rate.

The Mayor of Wauseon was a member of the "Budget Committee" who determined the monies to be raised by taxation for public use in the year 1914 and from him we glean the information that the amount for Wauseon village is $1,347 more than last year and at the same time the rate is less than it has been for many years, 12 8/10 mills; added to this is 5-10 mills levy for state roads which is added by the state to all levies and does not come within the first maximum rates. The total rate for 1914 will be 13 3-10 mills or 2-10 mills lower than it has been for many years. The outlook for the new year and the new council is, to say the least, encouraging.

Public Economy

A Citizen's Suggestion as to the Care of Public Investments—Town Streets and Country Roads—Can Highest Efficiency Exist Without Economy?

A citizen of Wauseon made a remark the other day that brought with it a suggestion which we believe should be carefully considered by those who have the interests of our town at heart. He said: "It is a shame to turn over the fifty or sixty thousand dollars of the peoples money invested in streets during this past season to someone who has no knowledge of how these streets should be cared for; the village should employ some competent person preferably an engineer to devote his entire time to the care of the streets."

We believe that there is much of good hard common sense in the above remark. As a matter of fact it is mighty poor economy to invest good money in town streets or country roads and then let them practically alone and uncared for until they are worn out, which will not be very long, and then repeat the process of investing more money to build them new. When a comparatively small amount of money, expended in intelligent and competent care of such streets or roads would keep them in good condition indefinitely.

But its the peoples money—perhaps that makes a difference, and then it makes work for contractors and keeps up the "High Cost of Living." No absolutely indestructible never-wear-out, take-care-of-itself blue pencil mark on the mailing label on the paper. If these subscribers will kindly settle or notify us of some future time when they will settle we shall be very grateful.

There will be a meeting of the members of the civic league at the library building on Monday evening, December 15th, at 6:30. The object of this meeting is to learn if there are any families in Wauseon or vicinity in need of assistance.

WAUSEON BOYS' DAY, TOMORROW, DECEMBER 6th

Tomorrow, Saturday, Wauseon will be turned over to Wauseon's boys and their annual tag day. This is one of the great days of the year, when every one wears a smile and a white and blue tag and willingly drops in a coin for the helping of the boys work of the town and vicinity.

This is the third tag day under the management of the Boys Brotherhood and it is hoped that it may eclipse all former days. During the past two years the boys have divided the net proceeds, with the City Hospital, their offerings to the institution amounting to about $150; this year one half of the proceeds will be placed in a fund for the promoting of a public recreation park and swimming pool for all the children of Wauseon, something that is needed and would prove a source of enjoyment and pleasure and profit to the hundreds of children of our town and schools. It is hoped every one will get behind the boys in this proposition and make "Tag Day" a great "starter" for the recreation park proposition. Twenty-four boys will start out promptly at 9 o'clock and make a canvass of the residence district of the town, politely calling at the houses and receiving any offering ready for them.

Sixteen young ladies will begin early down town and solicit the down town sections, and will continue their efforts all day. You will help them by purchasing a tag early. Wear the tags where they may be seen, so the solicitors will not ask you to purchase the same. The tags will be sold from five cents up to any sum that may be willingly given for them.

All solicitors will wear identification badges so the public may know they are authorized to receive the offerings.

The boys who make the canvass will meet at the Brotherhood hall at 6:30 Friday evening to receive tags and instructions and the young ladies will meet at Brotherhood hall at 7 o'clock Friday evening to also secure their instructions for the day's work. Every one should boost for the day, even if you cannot give an offering, speak a kind word for our Wauseon boys.

TRIBUNE SUBSCRIBERS

Subscription Price Advances to $1.50 January First, 1914. Reasons For Increase Restated. Watch for Blue Pencil Mark on Your Mailing Label.

Only three more issues of the Tribune before January 1st, 1914, at which time we are under the necessity of raising the price of the Tribune from $1.00 to $1.50 per year. We have previously explained through the columns of the Tribune our reasons for making this advance but in order that all of our subscribers may understand our position we wish to restate these reasons as briefly as possible:

1. There has been a very considerable increase in the cost of all material used by us in the production of the Tribune.

2. There has been an increase in the price of labor in the past few years amounting to fully 33 1-3 per cent.

3. In order to maintain our office in efficient condition, keep up the quality and standard of the Tribune, support our homes and meet our responsibilities as citizens and taxpayers, it will be plain to our patrons, that in consideration of the fact that it costs us from 33 to 50 per cent more to produce the paper, the increase is necessary.

Many of our subscribers have paid in advance at the $1.00 rate and there is still opportunity to secure the Tribune at this price by paying the subscription before January 1st, 1914; after that date we shall be compelled to adhere strictly to the rate of $1.50 per year.

We are anxious to clear up our books by the first of the year and in order to remind those who are in arrears for subscription we shall place a blue pencil mark on the mailing label on the paper. If these subscribers will kindly settle or notify us of some future time when they will settle we shall be very grateful.

She was there for medical treatment they think for cancer of the liver, and all was done that kind loving hands could do. She was a great worker in the church and Sunday school. Her Sunday school class and friends kept flowers at her bedside, which was a great comfort to all, during the eleven weeks of prostration.
