HOPE

We are having fine weather at this writing.

Sunday-school was fairly well attended Sunday. There were 163 present. The collection was $3.78. Adam Eichenauer's class of young men had the banner collection. There were still more new faces seen in the Sunday School. All persons not going to Sunday school are especially invited to come and worship with us.

At the close of Sunday school a very profitable prayer meeting was held under the leadership of class leader Edward Smith. There will be preaching service next Sunday evening. On Monday evening Rev. B. R. Wiener of Naperville, Ill., gave a splendid sermon on missionary work and at the close of the sermon he explained the duplex envelope system of paying the finances of the church.

The revival meeting closed Thursday night. The meeting was a grand success from the beginning to the end.

The Hopewell Y. P. B. met at the home of Miss Frona Smith on Tuesday evening. A large crowd was present. 12 more persons signed the pledge against liquor as a beverage. They will meet at the home of Harold Eichenauer March 2, at 8 p. m.

A great deal of nerve force is used by the eyes in their function to see plainly when vision is normal. Much more energy is necessary when vision is not normal, because of the effect to see as well as possible. Result, headache and eye strain. McKEE, optometrist, 112 East Market st.

OLD BLACK JOE COUGH SYRUP

Is SAFE for Every Member of the FAMILY

Most cough and cold remedies contain dangerous drugs, such as Opium, Morphine, Chloroform, Heroin and Codeine. They paralyze the nerves. They are dangerous.

Not so with Old Black Joe Cough Syrup. It cures coughs and colds by loosening the phlem, soothing the irritation, opening the air passages of the throat and head and killing the cold germs.

There is not a drop of dangerous drugs in it. Just as good and safe for childreu as for grown folks.

One price only—25 cents for a big bottle at any store in city or country. Everybody buys it and takes it. The biggest seller because it gives the most satisfaction and is absolutely safe.
