A single word remembered and cherished than in arms and armor. "Let Fate do her worst; there are relics of joy, Bright dreams of the past, which she can not destroy."

From the Steubenville Gazette. HYPERBIA IN EXTREMIS.

February, 1880. BY MARY BYSON REESE. Mrs. Reese will be long remembered by the temperance people of Washington, for her able address on Sabbath evening, Nov. 30.

Oh, land of the shamrock! rare gem of the ocean! How lovely the azure that bends o'er thy sod; Thy rocks, hills and rivers are pictures as perfect As any e'er touched by the finger of God.

But thy grief is our grief; the world owns thy sorrow; Thy suffering is touching true hearts at the core; The kinship of nature, that melts into oneness All classes, all peoples, is melting once more.
