

WOMAN SOLICITS AID FOR SERBIANS

Thousands of Farmers Are Driven From Home By Armies.

Those Who Are Creeping Back Find Their Places Are In Ruins.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—Madame Slavko Groutch, wife of the permanent under secretary for foreign affairs of Serbia, arrived from England on board the steamship Lusitania today to seek American aid for 700,000 Serbians who, she said, were driven from their homes by the war and most of whom are now in concentration camps in southern and central Serbia.

The Serbian government, Madame Groutch said, cannot reestablish these refugees on their farms until after the war. Consequently, the Serbian agricultural department, she said, had sent her to America to obtain funds to provide the peasants with live stock, farming implements and seed and grain to be planted in March and April.

Madame Groutch was formerly Miss Mabel Dunlop of West Virginia. She said she had visited the Shtatza region, one of the districts devastated by the war and that it was a scene of desolation. She had served as a nurse in Serbian hospitals for five months.

"Serbia was utterly unprepared for the war," she added. "Its army was unequipped, its supplies exhausted."

"The first and second Austrian invasions drove nearly one million people from their devastated homes. Refugees who are now creeping back to find their homes. They are camping near the military posts so as to obtain a little bread from the authorities, are digging caves and making huts of boughs to live in. They need food to live until they can again till the soil. There is nothing left in the devastated sections."

"I hope the United States government or the Rockefeller foundation will help us. They might send a shipment of seed for planting. I have left committees in London to organize this movement and hope committees for that purpose will be formed in America. I would not divert one dollar intended for the relief of the Belgians."

Conditions in the Serbian hospitals crowded with the wounded after the battles were described by Madame Groutch as appalling owing to the great lack of anesthetics, all kinds of medical supplies and of trained nurses.

RUSSIANS CHECK GERMAN ATTACK

On Right Bank of Lower Vistula Armies Engage in Slight Skirmishes.

PETROGRAD, Jan. 25.—The following statement was given out today at army headquarters: "On the right bank of the lower Vistula our troops, which are in touch with the enemy, had small skirmishes at certain points. In other sections the day of January 22, with the exception of the usual rifle shooting and cannonading at certain places, was relatively quiet."

"The German attempts to assume a partial offensive were easily stopped by our fire."

"In Bukovina the concentration of considerable Austrian forces toward the passages has become stronger. On the 21st a hostile force, including an infantry division with artillery, attacked our front in the region of Kirilbaba, but was repulsed. Up to the morning of January 21, our troops were holding their positions. We captured during this fighting 200 prisoners."

"In the passages of the Carpathians a violent snowstorm is raging."

MINISTER UNABLE TO MARRY GIRL

Principal in Matrimonial Tangle Refused a License by Clerk Court.

ST. PAUL, Jan. 25.—Rev. James Morrison Darnell, principal in a matrimonial tangle that came to light when he resigned recently from a Kenosha, Wis., pulpit, returned to St. Paul tonight after a vain attempt at Minneapolis today to obtain a license to wed Ruth Foper, with whom he is said to have lived at Kenosha.

He refused to disclose his plans nor would other members of his party, which included Miss Soper, her mother, her five-month-old baby and the senior Darnell, discuss the matter.

The clerk of court at Minneapolis refused to issue the license on the ground that the time required by law has not elapsed since Mrs. Doris Vaughn got a divorce at Chicago. To this Mr. Darnell protested he never was married legally to the woman who divorced me in Chicago; she got a divorce just to satisfy herself."

His friend marries. BALTIMORE, Jan. 25.—Josiah Millard, 59 years old, a personal friend of Abraham Lincoln and foreman of the jury that convicted Jefferson Davis of treason, was married today to Miss Martha E. Streeke, 62 years old.

The marriage was in accordance with a desire the bridegroom's first wife expressed just before her death five years ago. Mr. Millard and his first wife lived together 63 years.

AMERICA SUPPLY POINT OF WORLD

Secretary Redfield Makes Optimistic Address in Memphis; Governor Speaks.

MEMPHIS, Jan. 25.—Sounding the keynote at a "dinner of optimism" here tonight, Secretary of Commerce Redfield predicted that if the opportunities presented by the European war for the commercial expansion of the United States are seized the current of international trade will be turned in our favor.

"Never before has the opportunity been so great," Mr. Redfield declared. "We have to sell that which all nations want and to loan that which all nations need. America is the only place where they can get both and if the opportunity is seized we may in whole or in part occupy for the taking the position of influence and power which others have hitherto held."

Other speakers at the dinner, which was arranged by the Business Men's club of Memphis, included Governor Earl Brewer of Mississippi; W. B. Hiddle, receiver for the St. Louis & San Francisco railway; H. M. Adams, general traffic manager of the Missouri Pacific-Iron Mountain system; H. U. Mudra, president of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific railway, and Joseph Bertig of Paragould, Ark.

TWO ITALIANS ARE KILLED IN KAY SEE

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 25.—When assassins shot down his friend, Mario Ippolito, two weeks ago, Luciano Mussa wrote it in his memory in red letters and as the result he himself is dead—another victim of an assassin's bullet.

Both men wore Italians and reputed well-to-do.

Mussa began a search for the murderers of his friend, despite warnings that he was "kicking his head into the wasp's nest of a feud." Tonight he was ambushed and slain as his friend had been.

KILBANE WINS FIGHT

Both men were bleeding from the nose and mouth when the fight ended.

STOME UNSOLVED MYSTERIES

Even Master Minds Do Not Know What Electricity Is.

Alexander Graham Bell was once asked if he understood precisely how a telephone conveyed the sound of a human voice. His answer: "No; I only know what is done. I do not know how it is accomplished."

One is reminded of Lord Kelvin's remark to some of his professional colleagues near the close of his brilliant career. It will be recalled that Bell gave to Kelvin the instruments used in the first demonstration of telephony at the Philadelphia centennial in 1876. It was many years later that Kelvin said that he knew no more as to the nature of electricity than he knew when he first began to work with it.

From Franklin to Edison master minds among us have done wonderful things with cells and dynamos, generators and transformers, directing the interplay of dreadful elemental forces as inscrutable as they are majestic. And still we do not know what electricity is.

A woman finds that tons and tons of a certain ore produce a fraction of a gram of radium and she goes to work with it and behold the portentous results it achieves, but we do not know what it is.

A congregation of sapient alienists at a trial gives expert testimony, but no man among them knows what his own brain or how it gives instantaneous directions to the foot and the hand. Mystery is at the very root of life and rules it to the end. Whatever way we turn we find the abyss unplumbed, the unfathomed darkness. How ridiculous is our presumption of knowledge before so vast an ignorance!—Philadelphia Ledger.

HEADACHES

Thousands of men and women suffer from headaches every day, other thousands have headaches every week or every month, and still others have headaches occasionally, but not at regular intervals. The best doctor is often unable to find the cause of many of these headaches, and in most other cases, knowing the cause, he does not know what will remove it, so as to give a permanent cure. All he can do is to prescribe the usual pain reliever which give temporary relief, but the headache returns as usual, and treatment is again necessary. If you suffer from headaches, no matter what their nature, take Anti-Kemnia Tablets, and the results will be satisfactory in the highest degree. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS

A VALUABLE SUGGESTION IMPORTANT TO EVERYONE

It is now conceded by physicians that the kidneys should have more attention as they control the other organs to a remarkable degree and do a tremendous amount of work in removing the poisons and waste matter from the system by filtering the blood.

During the winter months especially, when we live an indoor life, the kidneys should receive some assistance when needed, as we take less exercise, drink less water and often eat more rich heavy food, thereby forcing the kidneys to do more work than Nature intended. Evidence of kidney trouble, such as lame back, annoying bladder troubles, smarting or burning, brick-dust or sediment, sallow complexion, rheumatism, may be weak or irregular heart action, warns you that your kidneys require help immediately to avoid more serious trouble.

Many physicians claim that an herbal medicine containing no mineral or opiates has the most healing influence. An ideal herbal compound that has had the most remarkable success on a kidney and bladder remedy is Dr. Kilmer's Swamp Root.

You may receive a sample bottle of Swamp-Root by Parcel Post. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., and enclose ten cents; also mention the Tulsa Daily World.—Adv.
