ORGANIZATION OF COUNCIL

COMMITTEES AND APPOINTMENTS LAST NIGHT.

THE NEW POLICE FORCE

Marshal Baber Nominates His Deputies—Strictly Business Session—J. Gus Patton Resigns.

Business was the watchword at the adjourned session of the city council last night. Marshal Baber and Assessor Essley took the oath of office, and the bonds of Baber and City Recorder Abbott were received and approved. The marshal nominated his deputies. All four are Democrats, and only one, Felix Honck, holds over from the last administration. They are: R. R. Reynolds, J. W. Michael, Felix Honck, W. E. Strickland. S. L. Patton was elected street commissioner by a vote of 4 to 2 for Jim Smith and 1 for Mr. Wiley.

J. Gus Patton Resigns.

The only feature of the evening was the resignation of J. Gus Patton as city engineer. When the resignation was tendered, Dr. Hawley demurred to its acceptance, paying a high tribute to Mr. Patton for the excellent services he has rendered the city. Mr. Patton explained, however, that other business demanded closer attention, and that he did not care for the office any further. The resignation was then accepted. Mr. Randolph moved that a vote of thanks be tendered to Mr. Patton for his efficiency during his administration, which was given unanimously. Two applicants for the office, E. W. Kline and W. R. Richie, were then voted on, Richie being elected by 6 to 1.

Recorder Abbott presented the cashier's check for $500 from the Luman F. Parker Street Railway company as a forfeit in the event the company failed to accept its franchise in 90 days. It was referred to the finance committee on account of a discrepancy on the face of the check.

Mayor Mitchell submitted his appointment of committees, which, after perusal, were accepted unanimously by the council.

They are as follows: Finance—Randolph, Rumley, Belt, Street and Alley—Hatch, Cupp, Randolph. Ordinance—Randolph, Hawley, Yeager. Police—Hatch, Rumley, Yeager. Fire Department—Belt, Hawley, Hatch. Cemetery—Cupp, Mathewson, Belt. Public buildings and market houses—Yeager, Randolph, Rumley. Sanitary—Hawley, Mathewson, Belt. Light and Water—Mathewson, Randolph, Yeager. Education—Rumley, Randolph, Belt. C. B. Crites was elected city seavenger by acclamation.

The Board of Health nominations were deferred until next meeting, as was also the election of city physician. Police bills aggregating $8.31 were allowed. Bill by Big Four restaurant for care of a corpse was referred to the finance committee.

The city attorney was instructed to write the officials of the Katy railroad relative to establishing a crossing over the Katy tracks on Boston street. The council then adjourned to meet at eight o'clock the third Monday in this month.

BANQUET AT NEW STATE.

The Rose Croix chapter, A. F. & A. M., will banquet tomorrow night at the New State hotel. A most elaborate menu will be served and plates laid for sixty-five guests, including only the members of the chapter and their wives.

J. L. Bruce, a delegate to the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., is in the city. Mr. Bruce is editor of the Pioneer, a paper published in Paden, I. T., and is also mayor of that city.

ADDRESSES BY LADY ORATORS

MRS. STEVENS AND MISS GORDON TALK ON TEMPERANCE.

THE PROHIBITORY LAW

Discussed in an Argumentative Manner—Peruna Handled Without Gloves—Jamaica Ginger Also.

Two ladies, prominent workers in the W. C. T. U., and of international reputation, spoke last night in the Presbyterian church, and altho the very antithesis of each other both were charming and convincing to an extraordinary degree.

Mrs. Lillian M. N. Stevens is National president of the W. C. T. U., and Miss Anna Gordon, her associate in the work, was formerly secretary for Miss Francis Willard. Mrs. Stevens is argumentative in her style and her address was logical.

Miss Gordon is as womanly a woman as ever stood upon a platform, but one of the strongest and most charming and fluent speakers it has ever been the writer's fortune to listen to.

Both ladies spoke with remarkable clearness and distinction, and the audience could not help but feel that their hearts are solely in the work to which their lives are devoted.

The ministers of the different churches in the city were present at the meeting. The Reverend Kerr made the opening prayer, the Rev. Ball made the address of welcome, Rev. Cook took up the collection and the Rev. Martin offered the closing prayer.

The choir opened the meeting by singing "Revive Thy Work, O Lord." The quartet sang "Speed Away," and between the addresses Mrs. Marr sang the solo, "Will There Be Any Stars In My Crown?" Mrs. Lilah D. Lindsey acted as chairman and introduced the speakers. There was a very good audience, but not such a one as the talents and standing of the speakers warranted.

Mrs. Stevens made the first address. The speaker referred to Miss Frances Willard as that "Pure, white life Divine, translated into everlasting day," and went on to pay a beautiful tribute to that noble woman whose name is a household word in all Christian homes. She said she felt more at home in the Indian Territory than anywhere since she left Maine, her home, because there was no licensed sale of liquor here.

"There are people here who do not appreciate prohibition and because of this, I am going to speak on the prohibitory law."

"Thou shalt not" in the prohibitory law is just as binding as "Thou shalt not" in the Ten Commandments, and the law is found in the "Golden Rule" of Christ. The Maine law came as a measure of protection and helpfulness. Mrs. Stevens told the story of how the prohibitory law came to be enacted in Maine and said that on January 2, 1851, the law went into effect, "and for 50 years no smoke from brewery or distillery had blackened the pine clad hills of Maine."

The speaker disposed of the argument, started at that time, that "prohibition would ruin the state," by proving that Maine, once the poorest state in the Union, was now one of the richest and had more money in her savings banks than either Illinois or Ohio with six times her population. The per capita of money in Illinois was $10 per head, in Ohio $11, and in Maine $113. No state had a better school system and it received no money from the liquor traffic.

The statement that there was "more crime in Maine than in any other state of the Union," was also effectively disposed of by Mrs. Stevens. The cry had been raised and kept up by the brewers and distillers who have an envious eye on Maine and Oklahoma. She had been in Massachusetts, and compared the crime of both states. In Massachusetts, in one day, there were behind prison bars 7,541 charged with crimes, or 33 to every 10,000.

she will get, as a consequence, all over the Territory.

Later—Before the dinner hour today the Rebekah Assembly elected officers for 1906-1907, as follows:

President—Mrs. Ella Ross Chickasha.

Vice-President—Mrs. Alice Laurel-field, Durant.

Grand Warden—Mrs. Bezar, Okmulgee.

Grand Secretary—Mrs. Mary Mc-f, Marlowe.

Orphans' Home Trustees (2 year term)—Mrs. Susan Mason and Mrs. Carter, of Ardmore.

TULSA TAKES FIRST GAME OF SERIES

DEFEATED WEBB CITY YESTERDAY BY SCORE OF 5 TO 4.

OILERS ARE IN GOOD FORM

Play Snappy Ball—Immense Crowd Witnessed Opening Contest—Game Today.

The day is full of Panamas.

The diamond's full of sluggers, The breeze is cut by slangy saws, The grand stand groans with pluggers;

The erstwhile gallery god is seen, Along first base a-slopin,' The umpire writhes beneath his spleen, —The base ball season's open.

"Play Ball" is heard, the horse hide veers,

The Czar shouts sharp decision, And all at once high heaven hears

A cyclone of derision! O Lizzt, O Beethoven—usurped— Chopin—(pronounce it Show-pin)— The bleacher's music now is chirped, The base ball season's open!

Tulsa won the first game of base ball played here this season, yesterday defeating Webb City by a score of 5 to 4. The game was not as interesting as it might have been, being marked by numerous errors on both sides, and at no time containing critical features. Most of the time, however, some very good ball was played, and there were a number of commendable, if not sensational, instances.

The Oilers are showing up in fine form, and nothing but congratulations are heard for Manager Shafft. The aggregation is good, both in field work and with the stick, and looks like the pennant winner at this stage of the world's history. Smith for the locals stuck 'em over in great shape. The opposition tried two twirlers, substituting Crailes, for Gear in the seventh, but Crailes resembled the man

ERUPTION OF VESUVIUS IS INCREASING

VIOLENCE MORE PRONOUNCED—WORST YET TO COME.

A PANIC ON IN NAPLES

Two Thousand Dead—Entire Town Abandoned—Property Loss Over Eighty Million Dollars.

Naples, Italy, April 11.—A panic broke out here today when Professor Mooteeni, from the observatory above the town reported the internal explosions in Vesuvius increasing in number and intensity. Many new craters are appearing, and the most severe subterranean agitation is being shown by seismic instruments, and that the worst is yet to come. The streets are blocked by frenzied people and business is at a stand still. Hundreds of tourists are marooned here, the vessels being unable to accommodate all who would flee. All buildings are weakened by the earthquakes, and the ashes and sand is falling on the town. Molten lava is again on the move down all sides of the volcano.

DANCE AT THE ROBINSON.

Mine Host Robinson, of the Robinson hotel, always one of the most enterprising of Tulsa's citizens, is showing his appreciation of the patronage bestowed on his house by the ladies of the Rebekah Assembly and the delegates to the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F., by giving a dance in honor of the ladies tonight at the hotel. All Rebekah ladies and all Odd Fellows are welcome to this function, which will be on the same scale as everything else Mr. Robinson does. A fine floor and the best of music will give the dancers the most enjoyable time of their lives.

vegetables, they

The buildings will cover an area. These in addition to the present ice plant will make the company occupiers of a space 285x220 feet, and will be a wonderful addition to the manufacturing industries of Tulsa.

The packing plant is not included in the above estimates, but will come later, or just as soon as the others are out of the way. This department will be the most extensive of all and in all probability the most profitable by far to the city. When the company is ready the World will state its plans along this line.

The company retains entire supervision of the work of building, subcontracting the contracts to local firms. Mr. W. L. Dickey, who has recently accepted a manager's position with the company, will have oversight and charge of the construction work and as he has had much experience in this line will not allow the grass to grow under his feet, but is already enthused with the Tulsa spirit of progress and push, and delighted with the prospects before the city.

The company which is doing all this work has come to Tulsa without asking for a bonus. They recognize the value of its location and resources; they are money makers and town builders and will make their coming exceedingly advantageous to the city. Not a straw should be thrown in their way and all sorts of encouragement should be shown to them.

RECEPTION YESTERDAY.

Local W. C. T. U. Entertain Distinguished Visitors.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. gave a reception yesterday afternoon in honor of National President Mrs. Lillian M. N. Stevens; Miss Anna Gordon; Territorial President Mrs. Mabel Southerland and her corresponding secretary, Mrs. Ross; and the Territorial Vice President, Mrs. Ware, at the home of Mrs. Sam Davis, Fifth and Denver streets.

Over two hundred persons attended the reception, and enjoyed the pleasure of meeting these ladies, so prominent in temperance work. Introductions and pleasant conversation congratulations and good wishes, were exchanged for about three hours, and delicious refreshments were served, the whole combining to make one of the most agreeable and successful functions ever held in Tulsa.
