SAYS SEX WAR IS PURE MYTH

PROFESSOR SAYS MEN SHOULD BE IMPRESSED WITH WOMAN'S RIGHTS

New York, March 11.—George W. Kirchwey, dean of the Columbia Law school, told the women lawyers' association here last night that "there is no such thing as a 'sex war'."

His statement was made in a debate in reply to the assertion by the Rev. Percy S. Grant of a male and female class consciousness and that essentially the two sexes are at war. "So far as differences exist between men and women, replied Dean Kirchwey, 'they are explained through differences of individual temperament. I do not believe that the male judge is willfully unfair to the woman offender. I do not believe a woman judge would be more disposed to be fair in her judgment, but I do know she would have a sympathetic knowledge which for psychological reasons the man could never hope to attain."

"I believe women have their rightful place upon the bench of the juvenile court, because my knowledge of child psychology compels the belief that a boy or girl will confide his or her secrets to the mother rather than to an equally loving father. "I am in favor of any means short of felony," said Professor Kirchwey, "which will impress on the dominant sex the justice of the demands of women."

The Court of Last Resort. Around the stove of the cross roads grocery is the real court of last resort. For it finally over-ruled all others. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has been brought before this court in almost every cross roads grocery in this country, and has always received a favorable verdict. It is in the country where man expects to receive full value for his money that this remedy is most appreciated. Obtainable everywhere.

BELGIANS WILL NAME STREETS FOR AMERICA

London, March 11.—The decision of the municipal authorities of Louvain, Belgium, to give American names to certain streets of the city is set forth in a formal resolution of thanks which was adopted on Washington's birthday by the burgomasters and aldermen of Louvain and sent to the American commission for relief in Belgium. The resolution states that in "the new parts of the city, as they rise from ruins, three streets or squares shall receive the illustrious names of President Wilson, Washington and American Nation."

CAN YOU SPELL? At Kokomo, Indiana, a few days ago the superintendent of the schools held a spelling contest. Every person of the city was eligible and six hundred took the test. Of that number only fifty-two made a perfect score.

Newspaper men, doctors, lawyers, merchants, teachers and scholars submitted lists of twenty words each and from that total, twenty words were selected. The complete list with the number of times each word was misspelled, follows:

Miscellaneous, 304; calendar, 324; parallel, 273; privilege, 270; superintendent, 248; principle, 242; niece, 223; lose, 201; separate, 196; disappoint, 177; disease, 164; principal, 142; necessary, 137; business, 130; relieve, 125; receive, 109; truly, 85; government, 84; grammar, 79; believe, 73. One woman, who made a perfect score, had been a servant for sixty-three years and had had only eight weeks' schooling. A county official, who had been in business all his life, missed every word. Another man only got one right. One woman missed all but three. Here are the words, arranged in the form of two sentences. Hand this to a friend, ask him to dictate the sentences to you, write down the words and see how many you misspell: "The privilege of separating ninety miscellaneous calendars, arranged in
