Farquharson-Durling Wedding. The Wichita Eagle says: A pleasant surprise was in store for the friends of A. O. Farquharson and Miss Maude Durling yesterday when it became known that they were married Monday evening.

Mr. Farquharson is engaged in the clothing business, his store being located at 124 East Douglas avenue. He is prominent in Masonry, and served two terms as mayor of Guthrie, Okla. The bride is a Guthrie girl and a graduate of the Ross Conservatory of Music.

Recently she was chosen from among eighteen young ladies as the most popular girl in Guthrie. The prize was a trip to the Panama-Pacific exposition. Several years ago Miss Durling was appointed as a member of the Betsey Ross association, the organization that fashioned the new flag with forty-nine stars, the symbol of Oklahoma's admission as a state.

For a number of years Miss Durling was employed as a secretary in the Guthrie city hall. The romance which culminated in Monday's wedding had its inception when Mr. Farquharson went to the city hall as mayor of Guthrie.
