

NEWS OF THE WEEK.

Cleaned by Telegraph and Mail.

In the Senate on the 18th a number of bills were passed on the proposition to pay the National debt in gold...

CONGRESSIONAL. In the Senate on the 18th Mr. Ingalls introduced a resolution...

VEN HOFFERLID, the German agent at London, had an interview with the Marquis of Salisbury...

PERSONAL AND POLITICAL. The Ohio Senate and House met in joint session on the 18th...

MISS KATE BAYARD, eldest daughter of the Secretary of State, died very suddenly...

MISCELLANEOUS. H. H. HOBBS, the advertising agent of New Haven, Conn., has asked an extension...

THE DYNAMIC FACTOR. A most remarkable meeting of the Irish National League was held in New York...

ARIZONA CITY, ARIZ., January 18.—Matt Koy, colored, arrested at Los Angeles, Cal., charged with robbing and killing a barkeeper at Johnson City...

POPULAR BUZZ. Mr. January 18.—George Jackson, John Wilson, Jack Hard, and James Taylor...

RAILROAD LEGISLATION.

Select Committee of the Senate to Report a Bill on Inter-State Transportation—Vote of the Kansas Railroad Commissioners.

WASHINGTON, January 18.—Senator Colton's select committee on inter-state railroad transportation will probably report...

THE BOARD OF RAILROAD COMMISSIONERS OF KANSAS contributes to the volume a paper which expresses the opinion that a National commission should be established...

RECENT DISPATCH. From London reported the probability that the Salisbury cabinet would decide upon very repressive measures...

ADDITIONAL DISASTERS. LORD DALMEITH has concluded to accept China as nominal sovereign over Burmah...

MISS KATE BAYARD. A State Reception Interfered by Her Death.

AN EXCITING TIME. A Detailed Passenger Train Tears Its Way Across a Bridge—A Field Hospital.

ARIZONA CITY, ARIZ., January 18.—Matt Koy, colored, arrested at Los Angeles, Cal., charged with robbing and killing a barkeeper at Johnson City...

POPULAR BUZZ. Mr. January 18.—George Jackson, John Wilson, Jack Hard, and James Taylor...

HORRORS OF THE PLAINS.

Terrible Suffering of Shipwrecked Followers—The Terror of the Plains.

HUNTER'S POST, L. E. January 18.—The ten shipwrecked sailors from the steamer Hyton Castle arrived here yesterday...

KANSAS VIEW. The Board of Railroad Commissioners of Kansas contributes to the volume a paper which expresses the opinion that a National commission should be established...

RECENT DISPATCH. From London reported the probability that the Salisbury cabinet would decide upon very repressive measures...

ADDITIONAL DISASTERS. LORD DALMEITH has concluded to accept China as nominal sovereign over Burmah...

MISS KATE BAYARD. A State Reception Interfered by Her Death.

AN EXCITING TIME. A Detailed Passenger Train Tears Its Way Across a Bridge—A Field Hospital.

ARIZONA CITY, ARIZ., January 18.—Matt Koy, colored, arrested at Los Angeles, Cal., charged with robbing and killing a barkeeper at Johnson City...

POPULAR BUZZ. Mr. January 18.—George Jackson, John Wilson, Jack Hard, and James Taylor...

POPULAR BUZZ. Mr. January 18.—George Jackson, John Wilson, Jack Hard, and James Taylor...

WHAT THE STORM DID.

Disasters in Maine Caused on the Atlantic Coast—The Terrible Experience of the Crew of the Steamer Seabird—A Brave Rescue—Victims of the Storm—A Terrible Ordeal.

New York, January 18.—Reports continue to come in from up and down the coast of disasters to small sailing craft engaged in the coasting trade...

Another and two small children were frozen to death in their cabin staterooms on the steamer Seabird...

Two young ladies by the name of Becher and her sister, who were on board the steamer Seabird...

Two men named Miller and Porevsky had a terrible experience to a journey from Westport to Scott City...

NEW YORK, January 18.—The schooner Castle Wright, 225 tons, with grano from Philadelphia to Savannah...

NEW YORK, January 18.—The schooner Castle Wright, 225 tons, with grano from Philadelphia to Savannah...

NEW YORK, January 18.—The schooner Castle Wright, 225 tons, with grano from Philadelphia to Savannah...

NEW YORK, January 18.—The schooner Castle Wright, 225 tons, with grano from Philadelphia to Savannah...

NEW YORK, January 18.—The schooner Castle Wright, 225 tons, with grano from Philadelphia to Savannah...

THE PARSON'S NERVE.

An Exciting Time in a Mountainous Region—The Parson's Nerve—A Brave Rescue—Victims of the Storm—A Terrible Ordeal.

PARSON'S NERVE. Henry L. Williams, of Orange, Va., with his wife and two children...

Within a short time he had been very much interested in spiritualism during his stay here...

PARSON DOWNS had been reading last night for his coming trial in the court...

PARSON DOWNS had been reading last night for his coming trial in the court...

PARSON DOWNS had been reading last night for his coming trial in the court...

PARSON DOWNS had been reading last night for his coming trial in the court...

PARSON DOWNS had been reading last night for his coming trial in the court...

PARSON DOWNS had been reading last night for his coming trial in the court...

PARSON DOWNS had been reading last night for his coming trial in the court...

A HEARTLESS PARENT.

He Drive His Daughters and Her Sister from His Door to Perish by the Wayside.

NEW BRUNSWICK, Pa., January 18.—Yesterday morning Mrs. Mary Mason and her two daughters were found on the roadside two miles from New Brunswick...

NEW BRUNSWICK, Pa., January 18.—Yesterday morning Mrs. Mary Mason and her two daughters were found on the roadside two miles from New Brunswick...

NEW BRUNSWICK, Pa., January 18.—Yesterday morning Mrs. Mary Mason and her two daughters were found on the roadside two miles from New Brunswick...

NEW BRUNSWICK, Pa., January 18.—Yesterday morning Mrs. Mary Mason and her two daughters were found on the roadside two miles from New Brunswick...

NEW BRUNSWICK, Pa., January 18.—Yesterday morning Mrs. Mary Mason and her two daughters were found on the roadside two miles from New Brunswick...

NEW BRUNSWICK, Pa., January 18.—Yesterday morning Mrs. Mary Mason and her two daughters were found on the roadside two miles from New Brunswick...

NEW BRUNSWICK, Pa., January 18.—Yesterday morning Mrs. Mary Mason and her two daughters were found on the roadside two miles from New Brunswick...

NEW BRUNSWICK, Pa., January 18.—Yesterday morning Mrs. Mary Mason and her two daughters were found on the roadside two miles from New Brunswick...

NEW BRUNSWICK, Pa., January 18.—Yesterday morning Mrs. Mary Mason and her two daughters were found on the roadside two miles from New Brunswick...