

JOIN MARINES OR LEAVE HOME, WIFE TELLS HUBBY

Lancaster, Pa., June 1.—"Either join the marines or leave home." This was the ultimatum issued to Frank A. Janderberger, a silk weaver of Marietta, Pa., by his patriotic wife.

When Janderberger appeared before a recruiting station recently he was told that he would have to obtain his wife's consent before he could be accepted.

"Consent?" he asked, laughingly. "Why, she told me that any man who called himself a man would be fighting for his country and that I would have to enlist in the marines or leave home. Guess that's the only consent I got."

Janderberger was accepted immediately and his patriotic wife went on hand at the depot to see that he safely got on his way to help make the world "safe for democracy."

DIOPHIS OF INJURIES

Miami, Fla., June 1.—Lieut. G. P. Evans, a student pilot at the Naval Air Station here, died today of injuries received yesterday when his hydro-airplane fell into the bay from a height of 400 feet.

The old adage "You can't keep a good man down" is aptly synonymous with the story of Tulsa. She will continue to grow and her people continually purchase real estate.

The market has been active and while everyone predicted a cessation of the usual briskness and demand this circumstance has not yet arisen.

Hussell & Abbott, the leading auctioneers in the city, have opened an up Ohio place addition and report several sales, although the introduction of this property was only made yesterday.

In the district court of the Eastern State for the Eastern District of Oklahoma, in the matter of Lee Wesley Gladson, Tulsa, Okla., bankrupt, in Re Bankruptcy, No. 1928.

Notice of Hearing of Bankrupt's Petition for Discharge. To the Creditors of the Above Named Bankrupt.

TAKS NOTICE that a petition has been filed in said court by Lee Wesley Gladson, in said district, who has been adjudged a bankrupt under the Act of Congress of July 1, 1906, for a discharge from all his debts, and that the 1st day of July, 1918, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, before the District Court of the United States, in and for the Eastern District of Oklahoma, where you may show cause, if any you have, why the prayer of said petition should not be granted.

A creditor desiring to oppose the application of the bankrupt for discharge shall enter his objection in opposition thereto with the clerk on the day when the creditors are required to show cause, and shall file a copy of his objection of his opposition within ten days thereafter, unless the time shall be enlarged by the court.
