Political Announcements: I hereby announce myself a candidate for re-election as County Clerk, subject to the decision of the Democratic primary, August 6, 1918. LEE DANIEL.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for County Commissioner No. 2, subject to the decision of the Democratic primary, August 6, 1918. ED DALTON.

Daily Food: JULY 23, 1918. I am strong and my muscles are in good shape. My mind is clear and my nerves are steady. I am full of life and my heart is glad. I am a man of action and my feet are on the ground. I am a man of faith and my soul is in heaven. I am a man of hope and my future is bright. I am a man of love and my heart is open. I am a man of courage and my spirit is free. I am a man of honor and my name is clean. I am a man of integrity and my word is my bond. I am a man of justice and my scales are true. I am a man of mercy and my heart is kind. I am a man of peace and my hands are clean. I am a man of wisdom and my mind is clear. I am a man of strength and my muscles are firm. I am a man of power and my voice is heard. I am a man of glory and my name is known. I am a man of honor and my name is clean. I am a man of integrity and my word is my bond. READERS AND BOOKS: The leisurely reader who wanders into the public library to spend an hour or so reading at random, picking up new books or idling at the fiction shelves, is quite overshadowed by readers of another type.

Today people know exactly what they want, and they usually want it in the shortest time possible. As a rule they are reading for information rather than for simple delight.

The history of other wars has a renewed interest for readers, and especially for those who are reading for information.

Gov. Tom H. Ferguson can't stand it any longer, and despite his 61 years he has made application to be sent to France as secretary of the Y. M. C. A. His two sons, Lieut. Tom Ferguson and Major Walter Ferguson, are in the service, the former at Post Field, and the latter in the Oklahoma national guard.

If Secretary of State Lyon is the kind of a man his fellow Democrats allege, and if his accusers are guilty of the things he charges, it becomes apparent that what Oklahoma needs most is the election of Republicans to office this fall.

Eight now, how many men can name the various candidates from among whom you must select your choice for the several offices on August 6, and what do you know about the qualifications of most of them?

The government has started a survey of the text books in use in the schools of the country. It is expected that the author of the history adopted in Oklahoma will take to the brush.

Kansas is getting no particular. A summer county man filed his nomination papers, but the board that was refused to let his name go on the ballot because he did not state what particular office he desired.

The trouble with so many candidates who are standing on their records is that the public has picked the platform from under and let them sit down with a dull thud.

That Texas congressman who pulled out of the race because the president disapproved of him, probably realized that he was doomed to defeat for other reasons anyhow.

The Germans seize point to the unavailability of news given out by the American government. Instead of only a few morsels that a million soldiers in France, the Germans desire there are at least ten million.

The complimentary things the German press is beginning to say about General Persh's probable means that he will hit another duck.

Speaking of the railroad steel and the food needed would not the country be in a great mess if it were not for the federal courts?

All reports seem to indicate that Gen. Hines' plan is looked that way.

Oklahoma Outbursts

The Muskogean Times-Journal contains with shame and indignation that it is with an angry snarl to get a "rip" in that vein.

This article is the first of the "snarl" campaign in Oklahoma being carried on by a paper which is a member of the National Association of Public Editors.

The Eagle Leave Their Aerie

Following the beginning of time the flight of an eagle has seized and impressed the imagination of man. We have seen that I did in the past and how I have seen in the present and how I have seen in the future.

We have seen that I did in the past and how I have seen in the present and how I have seen in the future. We have seen that I did in the past and how I have seen in the present and how I have seen in the future.

We have seen that I did in the past and how I have seen in the present and how I have seen in the future. We have seen that I did in the past and how I have seen in the present and how I have seen in the future.

We have seen that I did in the past and how I have seen in the present and how I have seen in the future. We have seen that I did in the past and how I have seen in the present and how I have seen in the future.
