TRADERS UNCERTAIN ON RECONSTRUCTION

Reduction of Tax Estimates and War Board Assurances Offset by Possible Industrial Legislation.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—Conflicting opinions in high quarters respecting the forthcoming period of reconstruction left their further impact on the stock market today.

Secretary McAdoo plan for a downward revision of the government's program of taxation and the statement of the head of the war board that business need have no...

The course of several public leaders was traceable, however, to more definite and immediate causes.

Coopers denoted the uncertainty of the war board's action as to new price schedules but others strengthened in anticipation of the removal of the government's embargo.

This rose and fell in characteristic fashion, ending at mixed gains and losses.

Bonds were heavy on the 2 1/2 per cent reaction in marine 6s, foreign issues also easing with the liberty obligation.
