

NEW FEDERAL JUDGE MAY MEAN SHAKEUP

Governor Williams Seems to Still Be in Line for Office—To Result in Changes.

Speculation as to the day the president will send in a nomination for federal judge of the eastern district of Oklahoma increases as the appointment is expected at almost any hour. It has been suggested that the president delayed the appointment because of the great detail incidental to the war's termination, and now that he has that job pretty well in hand and the election is over, the less important job of a judicial appointment may get to the top of his "unfinished business basket."

PROVISIONS FOR SOLDIERS EXPLAINED BY WALL CARDS
