

The Tank Car and the Nation's Business

The strength of America is the strength of its industries, and many of the most essential of these could not exist without tank cars.

They are indispensable to the great petroleum industries. Abattoirs, packing houses and soap manufacturers use them for the shipment of fats and cotton seed oil. They carry linseed oil, naphthas and turpentine for the paint industry. Roofing manufacturers require tank cars for transporting coal tar and asphalt. Manufacturers of sugar products use them for shipping molasses, etc. Foundries and rolling mills need them to obtain pickling acid. The list could be extended to include many other liquid commodities on which great and little industries depend.
