

GERMANS DEMAND PROTOCOL CHANGE

Want Scapa Flow Incident Referred to the Hague.

PARIS, Dec. 3.—Germany is willing to sign the protocol putting the treaty into effect the moment certain clauses objectionable to her are eliminated, Baron von Lersner, head of the German delegation here, told the Associated Press this afternoon.

When the German plenipotentiary was shown the statement given out by the British press on Monday he had no objection to the protocol, but he said that the German plenipotentiary would permit the inclusion of certain clauses in times of peace on any special pretext.

"We have represented to the supreme council," he continued, "what we consider ample proofs that the German government is not restoring sible for the sinking of the ships at Scapa Flow and will in effect delay the final conclusion of peace we will submit the matter to The Hague tribunal."

Coal Famine Helps Oil Men.
These are significant days for men who are connected with the oil business in the opinion of L. B. Jackson, a director of the Union National bank of Tulsa and president of the American National bank of Oklahoma who was a Tulsa business visitor Wednesday. "The coal famine over the country has created an unprecedented demand for fuel oil," said Mr. Jackson. "The fact that oil consuming burners are being installed all over the country indicates that the demand is going to be permanent. Operators can make money by shipping even crude oil to points of consumption in tank cars."
