Proposal Made That U.S. Tell Tokio It Is Ready to Protect Pacific Interests

WASHINGTON, March 1.—By unanimous vote, 88 senators answering roll call, the senate tonight attached as an amendment to the naval appropriations bill, a section calling upon the president to call a conference of the United States, Japan, and Great Britain, to consider naval disarmament.

The proposition originally presented by Senator Borah, republican, Idaho, was put before the senate under unanimous consent agreement, by Senator Edge, republican, New Jersey, and the vote was taken upon his amendment.

The vote was taken after seven hours of debate which included an executive session at which foreign affairs, particularly reference to Japan, were discussed.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—The senate frankly discussed relations between the United States and Japan for two hours late today behind closed doors, but the situation in the Pacific is not expected to be improved by the vote.

After the doors were opened, Senator Borah, republican, Idaho, and other leading republicans, declared emphatically that the measure in its present form could not be passed before congress adjourns Friday.

When the galleries had been closed, Senator Lodge was understood to have presented new information regarding controversies between the United States and Japan.

Morris Citizen Shoots Salesman Found With Wife

OKMULGEE, March 1.—Olm Hoffman, a traveling salesman, was shot and killed in a theater at Morris tonight by George Ward, a well known business man there.

Hoffman was seated in the theater beside Ward's wife when Ward entered. Walking down the aisle, he took a stand directly in front of Hoffman.

"You've ruined my home, but you'll never break up another one," said to Hoffman, according to witnesses, and fired point-blank. The bullet went through Hoffman's heart and he died instantly.

Ward then went out in search of an officer and a telephone message was sent to Sheriff Lon Kuhn at Okmulgee who immediately went to Morris and placed Ward under arrest.

The shooting caused a panic in the theater and two women fainted. According to the officers Ward had warned his wife a few minutes before not to be seen in company with Hoffman.

They do declare that Ed Harley, Mrs. Ward's father, had told Ward that his daughter had been seen frequently in company with Hoffman.

3 MORE CABINET PLACES FILLED

Mellon, Hays and Fall Officially Designated for Portfolios

ONLY ONE EMPTY NOW

Labor Berth Alone to Be Officially Filled; Harding to Give Statement Today

MARION, Ohio, March 1.—Three more appointments to the cabinet were definitely confirmed by President-elect Harding tonight, leaving only one cabinet selection still to be formally given to the public.

The vacancy is in the portfolio of labor, and an announcement assigning that to a candidate was expected tonight.

The three whose selections were made known tonight are Andrew W. Mellon, a Pittsburgh banker, to be secretary of the treasury; Will H. Hays of Indiana, republican, to be chairman, to be postmaster general, and Albert B. Fall, United States senator from New Mexico, to be secretary of the interior.

No formal statement was issued in connection with the appointments, but Mr. Harding indicated that he might have detailed observations to make when he announced tomorrow the name of his secretary of labor.

The man tentatively selected for the labor position is James J. Davis of Pittsburgh, a former steel worker, who is now supreme dictator of the Loyal Order of Moose. There has been evidence of a chance, but the activities of those who would rather see James Duesan of Massachusetts, or T. V. O'Connor of New York chosen, puts a last minute turn over well within the range of possibility.

Mr. Harding attended to many matters of personal business, preparatory to his departure for Washington, and completed his inaugural address. Late in the day he conferred with Major General Leonard Wood, who has been selected for governor-general of the Philippines, and during the evening he accepted an invitation into the Knights Templar order at a reception which brought in Marion many of the leading Masons of the country.

The meeting with General Wood left the question of his accepting the island governorship more or less in doubt, although the confidence that he would do so was apparent among those close to Mr. Harding. An acceptance would involve resignation.

MILFAY BANDITS ELUDE PURSUIT

ROBBERS' CAR FOUND?

Machine Belonging to Bristow Jitney Driver Found Stuck in Mud Near Depew

LOOT AMOUNTED TO $900

Cashier Sutton Hit on Head With Pistol by Thief as Gang Left Bank

MILFAY, OKLA., March 1.—For the second time within a year the bank of Milfay was held up and robbed about noon Tuesday by three unmasked men who escaped in an auto with about $900 in silver and currency. The bank was held up last summer by two men and a woman.

The car containing the three men drove up in front of the bank, two of the bandits went into the bank, and while one of them covered H. O. Sutton, assistant cashier, the other faked all the money in sight into a sack which he took.

When the robbers started to leave the bank, Sutton lowered his hands and one of the robbers turned and knocked him to the floor with the butt of his gun.

Startling to see the robbers, Sutton walked to the phone and as the robbers sped off he notified central of the robbery. The telephone operator spread the news of the robbery over the radio.

In a few minutes armed posses were in pursuit of the bandit car.

About 8 o'clock last night several officers discovered a car stuck in a ditch about a mile north of Depew. As the officers approached a man who was endeavoring to start the car fled and although he was pursued he succeeded in escaping.

The man, whom officers identified as a jitney driver at Bristow, who was known merely as "Jack" Depew, officers said that car answered the description of the bandit car.

With the discovery of the car the chase was renewed and about 9 o'clock two men were believed to be surrounded in a small woods between Depew and Drumright. But when they refused to Depew and fought the man who gave them the ride could not be found.

It is believed that if it was the bandits who boarded the train they will attempt to make their way out of the area tonight.

When they returned to Depew the jitney driver, whom officers discovered laboring with a car in a mud hole and who fled at their approach is believed to be the other bandit. It is also believed that he caught a trail after escaping from his stranded car.

Milfay is in Creek county, about 15 miles west of Bristow on the Priceo railroad.

KILLS LOVER WHO BROKE INTO HOME

Chicago Tire Man Shot to Death in Apartment of His Sweetheart.

JEALOUSY REAL CAUSE

Wine Glasses Thrown During Cafe Fight; Victim Gave Woman Gun She Used

CHICAGO, March 1.—An inquest into the death of Herbert Ziegler, automobile tire salesman, who was shot in death early today by Mrs. Isabelle Carl Orthwein, after he had broken into her apartment, was begun today but continued indefinitely after the witnesses had been heard.

Mrs. Orthwein testified that she shot in self defense after Ziegler struck her, but admitted she was jealous of him.

The inquest brought out that Mrs. Orthwein, formerly was the wife of Jack O'Connor, once manager of the St. Louis American league baseball club, and that O'Connor named Orthwein, then part owner of the club, a correspondent when he divorced her. She married Orthwein and later they were divorced.

Her Story Borne Out. The police today said an investigation of Mrs. Orthwein's apartment bore out her statements that Ziegler had forced his way in when she refused to see him. The door was splintered and bore shoe marks.

Mrs. Orthwein tonight repeated her story that she and Ziegler quarreled after the witnesses had returned to her and his 16-year-old daughter.

Following the inquest police ordered Mrs. Orthwein booked on a charge of murder, she was taken to a police detention house, where she spent the night.

Jealous of Dancer. Mrs. Orthwein told the police that her jealousy at seeing Ziegler in the dressing room of a dancer at the Carlton cafe precipitated the quarrel that led to the shooting.

"When he saw that I saw him in there," she said, "he came out. I was angry. I told him that I believed he had been lying to me—that he was going around with other women. Then he swore at me and called me names."

"Herb," I said, "you have made a fool of me. Now give me back my pin. I'm through with you."

"My heart was breaking when he slowly handed me back my pin—a simple big pearl, set in a necklace and given to me by Mr. Orthwein before we divorced. I thought I could bear no more."

Mrs. Orthwein said the pin cost $1,900.

Wine Glasses Thrown. "We got into an argument," she continued. "Mr. Ziegler finally picked up a wine glass and threw its contents into my face. I picked up my own glass and gave him a dose of his own medicine. Then he got ready to throw a bottle at me."

SUGGESTS NEEDED PROBES

Who Got More Than $600,000 Set Aside for Capital Grounds? He Asks

By C. W. HINER, Tulsa Capital Investigator.

OKLAHOMA CITY, March 1.—The special investigating committee appointed by the senate to ascertain if there had been money raised for lobbying purposes, and which rumors say was endeavoring to connect Republican State Chairman Jim Harris with having secured money for lobbying purposes, has heard from the chairman, who is at Washington.

A subpoena had been issued for Mr. Harris and his name has been used in connection with a security money for the purpose above mentioned.

The world correspondent this morning received a copy of a telegram addressed to Senator Charles McPherson, chairman of the investigating committee, together with authority to use it.

"A 'Busting Message.'" The Harris dispatch bristles and makes denial of either having raised or expended money for lobbying or use of any fund to influence legislation of any form or character. Impossible for me to comply with your subpoena mailed here. How ever, on my return to Oklahoma I will be glad to appear before your committee without subpoena.

Suggests Other Inquiries. "If your committee is really desirous of making investigations that will be of benefit and interest to the taxpayers of Oklahoma, I would suggest that you follow the lead of the house committee on investigation and determine and advise the taxpayers of the state what has become of the $600,000 to $800,000 appropriated for the improvement of the capital grounds and who got the money. Why it was that check more was pardoned, and Tom McGee pardoned, what departments have been selling stamps to private individuals who were bought with taxpayers' money, further as to the manipulation of state banks and charters and all other illegal and irregular transactions known to exist in you and your committee."

"Signed," "JIM HARRIS."

FRANCE IS READY TO LEAP AT FOE

Foch Has but to Say Word for Troops to Plunge Into Germany

AMAZED AT COUNTER

German Proposals Don't Even Provide Basis for Discussion, Claim in Paris

NATION SOLID FOR BRIAND

Satisfaction Also Expressed at Stand of Lloyd George on Germany's Protests

LONDON, March 1.—When the German delegates faced the allies today for a final settlement of the German peace, a cold was revealed even wider than any predictions had forecast.

Germany's counter-proposals fell so short of the allied program that the British prime minister declared: "The German government appears to have a complete misunderstanding of the realities of the position," and fiercely denounced the conference after Dr. Simons, the German foreign secretary, had tried to advocate the reasonableness of Germany's proposals.

The belief prevails in the allied camps tonight that the negotiations have ended and that the allies are on the eve of action. Their reply is expected to be an ultimatum, clear and imperative.

PARIS, March 1.—Everything is in readiness along that part of the Rhine held by the French for a jump forward at a few hours notice should the occasion arise. The Associated Press was informed in official circles tonight. Plans have been going on several days in anticipation of any action which might make a forward movement necessary, and in the words of a high official of the war office, "Marshall Foch has but to say the word!"

The German counter proposals created nothing short of a amazement in French official, diplomatic and parliamentary circles. Advance information regarding the propositions to be submitted by Dr. Simons, the German foreign secretary, as received in Paris, was to the effect that the proposals were more reasonable and might form the basis of discussion. The content tonight, however, was that the counter proposal was so unreasonable that it was not worth the trouble of discussing.

Bears Out French Stand. French officials, however, cannot hide the feeling of satisfaction that the German attitude should "show that the French position is greatly correct from the first," that Germany was unwilling to face the responsibilities and also prove to Great Britain and the rest of the allied and neutral world, that Germany will undertake nothing but the application of force, and that it is useless to deal with Germany in a spirit of justice and fairness.

Popular feeling is greatly aroused, and the opinion is expressed that France has waited long enough, and that the movement of troops into the interior of Germany would meet with smaller opposition from the opponents of the government now than at any other time, owing to the fact that the government has the country situation well in hand, the leaders either having been sent to jail or silenced.

Solid Behind Briand. A deputy who voted against Premier Briand on the Paris conference decision informed the Associated Press that he should Mr. Briand return to Paris tomorrow and tell the chamber to ratify the position decided upon. He would receive a vote of more than 500, only the socialist and communist voting against him.

Satisfaction is also expressed at the British prime minister's attitude, which is mentioned in official dispatches as "showing deep respect" toward the German peace overtures. In the absence of Premier Briand and Vice Premier Briand, it is not expected that in order to go forward would come before tomorrow night at the parliament, as it is expected the Germans will be given a final opportunity to receive from the position taken today.
