Republicans Knock Off Large Sum From Estimate of Democrat Administration.

WASHINGTON, June 14.—Approximately $5,000,000,000 was appropriated by the sixty-sixth congress at its session ending June 5, according to a statement prepared today by Chairman Good of the house appropriations committee for the final issue of the Congressional Record.

The exact total as given by Mr. Good was $4,859,899,327. Of this $4,373,395,279 is for government expenditures in the fiscal year beginning July 1 and $486,504,048 is to meet the deficiency for the fiscal year ending with this month.

Chairman Good said congress had reduced estimates of government expenditures for next year by $1,474,422,692, the total appropriations in only two measures exceeding the estimates. Congress added $64,120,000 to the pension bill and $70,861,000 to the postal bill. The latter increase was to meet advances in pay to postal employees, while the pension increase was absorbed in part by increased pensions.

The total carried by the 13 great annual supply bills, as given by Mr. Good, was $2,212,128,298 as follows:

Postoffice $482,575,190.
Sundry civil $427,109,899.
Naval $443,279,574.
Army $592,558,365.
Pensions $279,160,000.
Legislative, executive and judicial $194,735,726. Agriculture $31,712,784.
Fortifications $18,833,442.
District of Columbia $18,373,094.
River and harbor $12,490,000.
Indian $10,040,655.
Diplomatic and consular $9,218,527.
Military academy $2,142,212.

In addition to these bills, permanent appropriation—annual expenditures authorized by congress for stated periods, amount to $1,162,763,350, of which $980,000,000 is for interest on the credit balance. Miscellaneous appropriation included $725,000,000 by the transportation act, of which $300,000,000 is to be used as loans to the railroads for a period of 15 years.

Minor miscellaneous appropriations with the deficiencies brought the total appropriations to $4,859,899,327.

Mr. Good charged off $2,558,968,400 of the appropriations as a direct war "hang over" the sum including the funds provided for the railroads for the interest on the public debt, the payment to the sinking fund and $293,145,400 appropriated for re-education, hospital treatment and insurance payment for veterans of the world war. The army and navy together use $855,958,962 for the next fiscal year, leaving a total of $979,319,518 as the funds for all the other civil functions of the government during the year.

Truth in Advertising Diamonds.

Merchants bear a much heavier burden in advertising than it is a pity they do not let the public in on the "know." An intimate relationship should at all times prevail between customer and merchant.

The customer has as much right to know the merchant's "secrets" as the merchant has to know the state of his customer's responsibility or the genuineness of his cash. It should not be on one side.

How many shop keepers are there that can truthfully declare at this moment that they permit their customers to know all there is to know about their merchandise or the policy of their business?

The Fifth and Main Street Jewellers are not moving their affairs in the glaring full page newspaper promises. On the contrary in their meek, modest, quiet way, like this, are introducing their policy of doing business in an open, honest, intimate fashion.

The present sale of diamonds at a cash discount of 25 per cent is an example of this constant and unchangeable method of doing business in the open.

They are in need of ready money to pay their accounts and open bills. Money is not available to them at the banks and they are satisfied to sacrifice the 25 per cent on their diamonds to raise the ready cash.

Books showing original costs are open to intending purchasers for the asking. Signed guarantees accompany each sale. Merchandise sent on approval to responsible people for examination and comparison of value.

This is an example of their open method of letting the custom know the whole truth. Watch for our future truthful advertising talks.—Adv.

ELECTION HOLDS BRITISH THOUGHT

Comment Upon Harding
Confined to Chances for Being Winner.

LONDON, June 14.—The London evening paper editorials on the republican nomination are devoted largely to speculation on Senator Harding's chances of election and what effect that would have on American foreign policy.

Both the Globe and Westminster Gazette assert that Senator Harding's election is by no means assured if the democrats are able to find a strong candidate.

The Globe thinks a republican defeat is not impossible if such a man as William G. McAdoo or Ambassador John W. Davis were nominated. The Westminster Gazette declares that Great Britain must preserve neutrality in a presidential conflict but cannot disguise its interest. It is doubtful, the gazette says, if the November elections can settle the question whether the United States will pursue a purely American policy or take a hand in international politics.

"Had President Wilson been available," says the paper, "he might have boldly carried his banner into the fight and rallied the majority to him by the lofty appeals he knows so well how to make. But in his default it is unlikely that any dem-cratic nominee will do this or get the sanction of the democratic party for a pure league of nations doctrine.

"On the other hand, the republican party does not entirely close the door on American participation in world politics and even seems to favor some sort of extension of arbitration methods in world affairs. The choice of a safe man, in all events, saves us from active pursuit of an anti-European policy by that party or its nominee and to that extent there is a point gained."

The Globe says:
"Senator Harding is credited with favoring reversion to that aloofness from world politics which characterized America in the days before the war."

"It is perfectly intelligible point of view but we venture to think that Senator Harding, if elected, will be compelled by force of circumstances to soften something of its old rigidity."

The Star says:
"Senator Harding will represent in the United States very much what the coalition liberals represent in this country. He is the instrument, we might almost say the tool, of the cleverest group of men in American public life, the republican senators. The senate is dominated by the trusts."

The Morning Yorkshire Post believes "there is a better prospect of helpful European policy than we could have hoped for had the choice of the delegates at Chicago fallen on a politician holding the opinions on the subject with which Hiram Johnson is credited."
