

SOCIETY WOMAN'S WORLD AND WORK

"Life, A Question." "Life, And worth living." "Life, Each part of us."

Community Party. The community party to have been given last Monday night and postponed will be an event of interest and pleasure to many of the city.

Barrett-Hollinger. Friends here are advised by letter of the wedding a few days ago in Chicago of Mr. Stanley C. Hollinger of that city to Mrs. Vera E. Barrett (nee Newcome) of Tulsa.

Personal Mention

Mrs. Allie E. Lewis and small son Jerry left Friday for Colorado Springs where they will be guests at the Broadmoor hotel for the months of July and August.

Mrs. Ernest H. Cornelius and two children have returned from Lincoln, Neb., where they visited Mrs. Cornelius' parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Mosely.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant R. McCullough and sons are sojourning at their summer home Claramar, having gone there to spend the Fourth of July.

Mrs. J. J. Madden of the Mary Brockman apartments who underwent an operation for appendicitis the past week at a local hospital is doing well.

Mrs. H. N. Lowry of the Temple apartments left Friday for Denver where she will spend July and August with friends and relatives.

Mrs. J. Walter Beyer and children expect to leave the first of the week for Chicago.

In Chicago teaching an association of surgeons, dental normalizing operation. He is in my office July 1.

I feel like a different person since Resinol cleared away that skin trouble

"I had suffered from eczema so long I didn't believe anything would overcome it, but the first time I used Resinol it stopped the itching, and now my skin is entirely clear."

THE TIME, PLACE AND THE WOMAN

"Cafe" at Osage Junction Is Scene of Near Tragedy.

The time was Wednesday, the place the Poulos Cafe at Osage Junction, the woman Mrs. T. H. Sturgeon, state health inspector, and the man in the case the proprietor of the Poulos Cafe, attired in the height of simplicity, a pair of trousers and an undershirt.

Mr. R. A. Sebastian of Kansas City and Chicago is stopping at the Bachelor's Inn.

Mr. Charles A. Black will entertain the Thursday Bridge club next week.

Mr. D. D. Wertheimer who was operated on in Kansas City Thursday is said to be resting nicely.

ALPHA OMEGA GIRLS PICNIC. Toasted Marshmallows Award for "Treasure Hunt" in Woods.

Girls of the Alpha Omega Sunday school class enjoyed a picnic supper at Parkside park Thursday evening, accompanied by Richard Heilbron, educational director of the church, and Mrs. Heilbron.

Is Found Guilty. SHREVEPORT, La., July 9.—A verdict of guilty without capital punishment has been returned by a jury in the district court at Homer, La., against Tom Shannon, a deputy sheriff at Cliftonville, charged with the murder of "Pete" Dunson, an oil field man in the Homer field, several weeks ago.

There cannot be two rules of morality for the sexes, see "The End of the Road" at the Grand Theater.—Adv't.

Someone Soliloquizes on Modern Home Says "Housekeeper's Life Not Narrow"

I shall never be able to understand why people consider the housekeeper's life "restricted," or why the housekeeper herself may be heard murmuring about the petty details and detail of her existence.

He looks like a bandit, but should you speak to him you would find him as gentle as a child. He has come to America to escape the evils of the absentee landlord system which has impoverished so many Sicilians.

One has hardly opened the mail when there is a crash in the backyard and a gigantic shadow flickers across the window.

At this moment there sounds a ring at the front door and an Armenian stands before you, ready for his yearly repairing of your rugs, and to tell you the news from that land from which his mother and sisters are even now fleeing.

WATERMELON TIME SOON. OKLAHOMA CITY, July 9.—It will be watermelon time in Oklahoma within three weeks, according to Ed C. Dustin, secretary of the state market commission, who said today the crop will be ready for market in that time.

After her, for all the world like symbolic figures in a pageant, comes the gas man to read the meter; comes the housing condition, in the guise of the sewing woman whose rent has just been raised; comes the plumber in shape of a plumber to mend a pipe; comes the question of farm labor and European export under the smiling face of the Italian vegetable man.

McGregor returns bringing mail from Europe and out-of-town papers and bulletins, among them a letter to Katie in the kitchen, doubtless throwing its small bit of light upon the Irish question.

No, I have never been able to understand why one calls the housekeeper's life narrow. The social fabric of two continents has been steadily unfurling all morning—and this is only half a day, and only one day out of the seven!
