WANT CEMENT SACKS

Shortage of Containers Alleged to Be Partly Responsible for Present Condition. Shortage of cement sacks is in part responsible for delayed shipments of cement, it was stated in a telegraphic appeal for the return of these sacks to their purchasing places which was received yesterday from the National Cement Manufacturers' association by the Tulsa Association of Purchasing Agents.

This appeal should be heeded by builders everywhere for selfish reasons if for no other, O. V. Jordan, secretary of the association of purchasing agents, said yesterday in
