30 YEARS OF SUCCESS

THE CITY DRUG STORE OFFERS A REMEDY FOR CATARRH—THE MEDICINE COSTS NOTHING IF IT FAILS.

When a medicine effects a successful treatment in a very large majority of cases, and when we offer that medicine on our own personal guarantee that it will cost the user nothing if it does not completely relieve catarrh, it is only reasonable that people should believe us, or at least put our claim to a practical test when we take all the risk.

These are facts which we want the people to substantiate. We want them to try Rexall Mucin-Tone, a medicine prepared from a prescription of a physician with whom catarrh was a specialty, and who has a record of thirty years of enviable success in this record.

We receive more good reports about Rexall Mucin-Tone than we do of all other catarrh remedies sold in our store, and if more people only knew what a thoroughly dependable remedy Rexall Mucin-Tone is, it would be the only catarrh remedy we would have any demand for.

Rexall Mucin-Tone is quickly absorbed and by its therapeutic effect tends to disinfect and cleanse the entire mucous membranous tract, to destroy and remove the parasites which injure the membranous tissues, to soothe the irritation and heal the soreness, stop the mucous discharge, build up strong, healthy tissue and relieve the blood and system of diseased matter.

This book is written in a cycle, only the first part "The Bride of the Mistletoe," having been published. The other two volumes are still in the hands of the publishers and not until they have been made public can the decision in yesterday's discussion be reached.

Neglect of a cough or cold often leads to serious trouble. To break up a cold in twenty-four hours and cure any cough that is curable, mix two ounces of Glycerine, a half ounce of Virgin Oil of Peppermint and eight ounces of pure White Pine. Take a teaspoonful every four hours. You can buy these at any good drug store and easily mix them in a large bottle.

BAREFOOT PARADES ARE NOW TABOOED

NEW YORK POLICE PICK UP CHILD IN SPARSE RAIMENT—HEEDLESS OF COLD.

New York, Jan. 10.—Broadway got a new sensation this afternoon. Thousands gazed in wonder as little 4-year-old Menalaks Duncan, nephew of Isador Duncan, the dancer, promenaded down the street, clad only in the short skirt and sandals which have formed his only raiment since his birth. The thousands shivered in the cold wind, but not so little Menalaks.

With the toddler were two of his grown-up friends, Elmo Sikelianos, an art student, and Andrew Devabis, an artist. They wore the usual New York raiment, and the collars of their overcoats were turned up.

The policeman was shivering in his great, thick overcoat and stamping hard to keep his feet warm as the wind swept around the corner. He saw little Menalaks wearing what looked to him like a bathing suit, and his teeth began to chatter and he shivered more than ever.

"That looks like cruelty to children," he said to himself, and walking up to the trio he arrested the older folk and charged them with endangering the health of the boy. Then the three walked to the station house and the Children's Society was communicated with.

Free Sample For Baby's Ills

Something can and must be done for the piny, crying baby, for the child that refuses to eat and is restless in its sleep. And since the basis of all health is the proper working of the digestive organs, look first to the condition of the stomach and bowels.

First of all, if you have not yet used it, Dr. Caldwell would like to send you a sample bottle free of charge. In this way you can try it before buying. Later, when convinced of its merits, you can get it for your druggist at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle, just as thousands of other families are doing.

TAFT'S LETTER TO GIFFORD PINCHOT

WHOSE DISMISSAL WAS BASED UPON INSUBORDINATION—SEC. WILSON'S ADVICE UNHEEDED.

Washington, Jan. 9.—President Taft's letter to Gifford Pinchot, chief forester informing him of his dismissal, follows:

The White House, Washington, January 7, 1910.—Sir: The secretary of agriculture informs me that December 28 your associate forester, Mr. Price, went to him and proposed to resign on the ground that he had been engaged with Mr. Shaw, assistant law officer, in investigating the publication in various newspapers and magazines attacking the good name of Secretary Ballinger and charging the interior department and the land office with corruption.

"The secretary advised against such a course, but asked you for a recommendation as to accepting Price's resignation, in order that he might bring the matter to me, to whom, he told you, it must ultimately come, because I had considered the Glavis charges and had passed upon them. Without further conference with the secretary, and before making a report to him, you succeeded in making public, by having it read in the senate, a letter from you stating that you had sufficiently disapproved Price and Shaw by reprimanding them, and that your recommendation would be that no further punishment was required, and this before that recommendation was submitted to the secretary and me whose power and duty it was to determine, upon Price's admissions as to his culpability, what action should be taken with respect to his resignation.

In order to understand the full purport of your letter, in which you admit the complicity of Price and Shaw in the publications of the press, it should be said that the Glavis charges were that Secretary Ballinger and the officers were all affected by a corrupt wish to patent thirty-three so-called Cunningham claims upon coal lands in Alaska; that the question whether these claims were fraudulent or not remained to be decided upon the evidence after both the United States and the claimants had been heard; that every patent as an executive act is completely within the jurisdiction of the president to direct the withholding of it in order that he himself may examine the evidence as to the validity of the claim.

These facts understood, the plain intimation in your letter are: First, that I had reached a wrong conclusion as to the good faith of Secretary Ballinger and the officers of the land office, although you and your subordinates had only seen the evidence of Glavis, the accuser, and had never seen or read the evidence of those accused or the records that they disclosed which were submitted to me; and, second, that, under these circumstances, without the exploitation by Shaw and Price in the daily, weekly and monthly press of the charges of Glavis, the administration, including the president and the officers of the interior department and land office, would have allowed certain fraudulent claims to be patented on coal lands in Alaska, although the matter had been specifically brought to the attention of the president by the Glavis charges.

You solicited the opportunity to make such a deprecation in congress for the purpose of offsetting, if possible, the public mind the president's decision in the Glavis case, supported by the opinion of the attorney general after a full examination by both of the evidence adduced by the accuser, and the evidence on behalf of the accused, while the latter evidence you and your subordinates, never had seen.

You did this against the advice of the secretary of agriculture, without notifying him that you intended to do so, and without conferring with me at all. Your letter was, in effect, an improper appeal to congress and the public to excuse in advance the guilt of your subordinates before I could act, and against my decision in the Glavis case before the whole evidence on which that was based could be considered.

I should be glad to regard what has happened only as a personal reflection, so that I could pass it over and take no official cognizance of it. But other and higher considerations must govern me. When the people of the United States elected me president, they placed me in an office of the highest dignity and charged me with the duty of maintaining that dignity and proper respect for the office on the part of my subordinates.

"By your own conduct you have destroyed your usefulness as a helpful subordinate of the government, and it therefore now becomes my duty to remove you from your office as the forester. Very sincerely yours, WILLIAM H. TAFT. Hon. Gifford Pinchot, Forester."

RESORT ROBBED NEAR PITTSBURG

Pittsburg, Kan., Jan. 10.—Robbers raided a resort, known as "Turner Hall" in Crowberg, a mining camp in this vicinity, killing two and wounding another, escaping with $200.

The dead: FRANK ANSLINE. GEORGE SMITH. Albert Craven and Edward Alton were arrested, charged with the robbery, and are now in jail at Girard.

Twenty men were in the resort when the robbers entered. They were forced to line up and deliver their valuables. Anslin and Smith resisted and were shot, and Bert Turner, who sought to aid them, was wounded. Ivory Soap 99 1/100 Per Cent. Pure

A COLD bath can be taken at any time of day; but the best time is before breakfast. A hot bath should be taken only at night—just before retiring. Cover the body with Ivory Soap lather and rub it in. By doing this, you not only cleanse the surface of the skin, but you also cleanse the pores, which is equally important.
