There's a lot of romance about the good old times, but we would kick like steers if we had to have them back.—New York Times.

Prize—Would you marry an extravagant man? Dolly—That would depend, dear, on how long he had been extravagant.—Harper's Weekly.

Stockings were unknown in Bible times. Literature first mentions them as having been worn in Italy about the year 1100.

Mrs. Bloodgood—Would you be willing to marry a nouveau riche?
Miss Parvenu—Why, certainly, if he had money.—Life.

In 1750 a law in England was that at parties "ladies must not get drunk on any pretext and gentlemen not before 9 o'clock."

"So you asked old Brown for his daughter's hand. What did he say?"
"He said, 'Take her and let me be happy.'"

Nimrod—Are you fond of hunting?
Gyer—It all depends. Nimrod—Depends on what? Gyer—Foxes or collar studs.—Illustrated Bits.

To get rid of daughters East Indians marry them to Sowers. When the Sowers die the girls are widows, and widows can be sold cheap.

The New Steel Box Cars.
Steel box cars have been built recently which will weigh about 2,000 pounds less than wooden cars of the same size and capacity.

DANGEROUS FREIGHT.

Cargoes That Are a Source of Danger to Vessels.

Exhaustive experiments by the New South Wales government have now proved—that wool will under certain conditions ignite spontaneously and that consequently it is a dangerous cargo to carry.

Probably, therefore, it will be added to the list of commodities which the board of trade decrees must be stowed with extra care, commodities which include such diverse articles as matches, acids, gunpowder, coal, wheat and timber.

This, however, will be but poor consolation to the harassed sea captain, since all these things have to be carried anyhow, somehow. Besides, the danger frequently lies not so much in cargoes known to be dangerous as in those supposed to be safe.

Thus a cargo of glass bottles came within an ace of wrecking the sailing ship Camel off the Isle of Wight a short time ago, and a patent paint drying preparation sufficed to send to the bottom of the strait of Magellan the Dorel and the 143 souls aboard her.

Potatoes that decayed into a putrid pulp engendered a pestilence that a couple of years ago killed eleven out of twenty-seven of the crew of one of the finest vessels in the American mercantile marine and nearly caused her total loss off Tenerife. This year in one of the Liverpool docks the emanations from a cargo of soap blew a ship well nigh to bits and killed a number of men who were working in her hold.

The other day a bark put out from Cadix with a huge block of granite poised near her after hatch. This through some mismanagement fell into the hold, broke through her bottom and sank her there and then. Three huge vans filled with furniture caused the Marie Rose to capsize and founder in Marseilles harbor.

Finally there is the extraordinary case of the Southern Belle, lost last spring between Tahiti and the New Hebrides, the cause of the wreck being officially described as due to "monkeys gnawing cordage."—Bernarda Royal Gazette.

Excitement on the Sun.

There is now visible upon the sun's disk a remarkable array of spots in which rapid changes are taking place. The activity to which they are due is no doubt connected with the great sun flame, shooting up to an elevation of 225,000 miles, which was recently observed at the Radcliffe observatory, Oxford. The entire length of the disturbed area, which lies practically parallel with the sun's equator, is not less than 250,000 miles.

Recent spectroscopic studies of great sun spots have stimulated interest in these wonderful phenomena by showing that in the nature of the light given forth from them they bear a resemblance to certain red stars which appear to be in a more or less advanced stage of decadence. Thus they serve as indications of the existence of a tendency in our sun toward a change of state which will probably end in its ultimate extinction.—Garrett P. Service in New York American.

Pacific Coast Halibut.

That a large part of the eastern fresh halibut comes from the Pacific coast will probably surprise many of the lovers of that huge fish. The business of western halibut is growing constantly, and the supply going to Boston comprises about all of the 25,000,000 pounds a year taken by the fishermen in Seattle and Alaska. The fish is carefully boxed and lead down and then rushed to Boston by express freight and sold back again to New York, Chicago and other large centers for distribution. Comparatively little halibut is taken to Boston in vessels.—San Francisco Argonaut.

New Drowning Theory.

An Illinois physician has revived the idea of resuscitating drowned people by first immersing them in a hot bath for twenty minutes or longer and then resorting to the old and ordinary methods of restoration. He says the lungs of a drowned person do not contain water, a spasm of the larynx occurring which prevents the entrance of water for a period of nine days. Drowning, so called, is merely suspended animation and not death. By this process life may be saved if the body has not been submerged more than six hours.

A Year's Crops.

According to the eleventh annual report of the secretary of agriculture made public recently, the main crops of the country are valued as follows: Corn, $800,000,000; hay, $675,000,000; cotton, $675,000,000; wheat, $600,000,000; oats, $380,000,000; potatoes, $190,000,000; barley, $115,000,000; tobacco, $67,000,000; rice, $19,500,000; poultry and eggs, $600,000,000; dairy products, $600,000,000.

The Blue and the Gray.

Missouri boasts a new society, the United Veterans of the Civil War, made up of Union and Confederate soldiers. Missouri was on the borderland between north and south, and "brother against brother" was more than a figure of speech. The Missouri society may lead to a united grand army of blue and gray.—Youth's Companion.

English Not Wanted.

It is an exceedingly significant and a by no means infrequent experience to read advertisements in Canadian papers that end up, "No English need apply."—Sidney Brooks in Harper's Weekly.
