MILLIONS AVAILABLE FOR R. R. EXTENSION TO CITY

Candidates are on the Jump

From now on until election day candidates for office in Klamath county are going to be very busy. In addition to interviewing voters in the usual way, they will be called upon to attend candidates' dances to be given in different parts of the county.

There will be a ball in Dalry tomorrow evening. On Friday there will be a dance and social gathering in Bonanza, and this is going to cause some conflict, because there is also scheduled for that date a candidates' basket social in Mills addition hall in this city. There is also to be a ball in Ely on the same evening.

The last advertised entertainment especially for the benefit of the candidates is to occur in Fort Klamath on November 1st.

Just how the candidates will "get by" all of these entertainments is a mystery which they are now trying to solve.

STUDENTS URGED TO ADOPT COURSE

PRINCIPAL FAUGHT DELIVERED ADDRESS TO PUPILS OF THE HIGH SCHOOL AFTER SIX WEEKS OF STUDY

The first six weeks of high school are over and the reports will be mailed some time this week.

Professor W. E. Faught, in giving a talk to the students Friday, said: "The first six weeks of school are over, and by this time you should be fairly settled in regard to the course you will take this school year. Your course in high school will be your course in life. If it is not, then your school life is a failure. And failure is usually caused by lack of interest in your work. Therefore, if for any reason you are not satisfied with the work that you picked out six weeks ago, change your course and seek a course that will interest you."
