

Goulds Begin Fight for Control of Texas & Pacific

Associated Press Service
DALLAS, Tex., Jan. 31.—The Gould interests today began their battle for control of the Texas & Pacific railroad. The receivership asked by F. Bush, receiver for the St. Louis, Iron Mountain & Southern railroad, is expected to be one of the most hotly contested legal fights in corporation history. The petition was filed December 17th, and the hearing is to begin today before Federal Judge Meek. The petition entered by the Bankers' Trust company of New York alleges that the interest on $55,000,000 second mortgage bonds, issued in 1907, has been in default since 1907. The total interest and principal in default is said to amount to $14,000,000. The petitioner asks an accounting of the earnings and property of the railroad, applicable to the payment of the bonds. The complaint alleges that for a number of years the income from operation, instead of being applied to payment of interest on the bonds, was used for improvements, betterments, and other purposes. The petition also includes the New Orleans Railway company, a Texas & Pacific property in Louisiana. The Iron Mountain is the owner, subject to a pledge of more than $23,000,000 of the $35,000,000 bonds issued under the mortgage. The business war between the Goulds and certain antagonistic interests are said already to have been responsible for the International & Great Northern and the Missouri Pacific receiverships. An agreement as to the Texas & Pacific property failed. George J. Gould is president of the Texas & Pacific, which has been controlled by the Gould family since the days of Jay Gould. It operates under a federal charter granted March 3, 1871. The company was reorganized without foreclosure in 1888. Recent figures show the Missouri Pacific, also in the hands of a receiver, and allied lines, owned $6,555,000 of the Texas & Pacific's outstanding shares.

RUB RHEUMATISM PAIN FROM SORE, ACHING JOINTS

RUB PAIN AWAY WITH SMALL TRIAL BOTTLE OF OLD, PENETRATING "ST. JACOB'S OIL."

What's rheumatism? Pain only. Stop drugging! Not one case in fifty requires internal treatment. Rub soothing, penetrating "St. Jacob's Oil" directly upon the "tender spot" and relief comes instantly. "St. Jacob's Oil" is a harmless rheumatism and sciatica liniment, which never disappoints and cannot burn the skin. Limber up! Quit complaining! Get a small trial bottle from your druggist, and in just a moment you'll be free from rheumatic and sciatica pain, soreness, stiffness and swelling. Don't suffer! Relief awaits you. Old, honest "St. Jacob's Oil" has cured millions of rheumatism sufferers in the last half century, and is just as good for sciatica, neuralgia, lumbago, backache, sprains and swellings.—Adv.

How Women Grow Fat by Swimming

Nona Leahy of St. Louis, Louise Debus of Philadelphia, Rose Pitonoff of Boston

Here is the proof of what swimming will do for women. Let the stout lady beware, despite the fact that it is the finest exercise in the world. She ought, perhaps, to value her health more than her figure, and therefore swim as much as she can. But if she thinks her figure is of supreme importance she may as well understand that she cannot take off weight in the water. Nona Leahy was a little slip of a girl when she began to swim. See her now in this photograph. She is a powerful young woman, and she is yet very young. A few years more of it and she will have a figure like the third lady of the picture. Miss Debus has admitted she gained ten pounds in 1914. She shows in this picture as 140, and she doesn't know how much higher she will go. The most convincing proof of the affinity of fat and water—water taken externally as well as internally—is in the case of Miss Rose Pitonoff. Six years ago when she started the public by her feats in Boston harbor she was a slip of a girl. She was strong, of course, but she weighed only 120 pounds. The other day she tipped the scales at 180. She had gained sixty pounds in six years, and she is still under 25 years of age.

"Bill" Cheyne gave his friends and neighbors a frolic last Friday evening. Klamath Falls talent furnished excellent music, and a large crowd of friends and neighbors enjoyed themselves, dancing and visiting well into the night. Miss Mary Schubert of Klamath Falls is visiting her parents near Spring Lake. Alex Cheyne's baby has been very sick the past week, but is much better at this writing.

The new Spring Lake-Laki telephone line is in working order, and will soon be completed to Klamath Falls. Warren Dodd and wife have gone to Chico, Calif., where Mr. Dodd has a position. Mrs. Ward Dolan visited Miss Maud Schreiner Wednesday afternoon. There is a great deal of sickness reported among the horses of the valley. Frank Stewart had bad luck while in Klamath Falls Wednesday. One of his horses became sick and had to be left in town under the care of a veterinarian. Miss Zelma Folsom visited friends near Olene the latter part of the week. Ward Dolan, Mrs. Schreiner and son Arthur, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stewart and Mr. Carl Schubert were Klamath Falls visitors this week. The attendance of the Spring Lake school has been 95 per cent for the last month. We feel this is an excellent showing, when we consider the weather we have been treated with. Those of us who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when we arise; splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, lame back, can, instead, both look and feel as fresh as a daisy by washing the poisons and toxins from the body with phosphated hot water each morning. We should drink, before breakfast, a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to flush from the stomach, liver, kidneys and ten yards of bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins; thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary tract before putting more food into the stomach. The action of limestone phosphate and hot water on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast and it is said to be but a little while until the roses begin to appear in the cheeks. A quarter pound of limestone phosphate will cost very little at the drug store, but is sufficient to make anyone who is bothered with biliousness, constipation, stomach trouble or rheumatism a real enthusiast on the subject of internal sanitation. Try it, and you are assured that you will look better and feel better in every way shortly.—Adv.

HENLEY SOCIAL MUCH ENJOYED

OVER A HUNDRED DOLLARS TAKEN IN FRIDAY NIGHT—PROGRAM AND SOCIAL WERE ALL ENJOYABLE

A large crowd gathered at the Henley school house Friday evening, and enjoyed an excellent program and afterward a basket social. The program was rendered in a manner creditable to those in charge, Mr. Sexton and Mrs. Johnson. Its success was the result of their careful, efficient training. After the program the ladies' "shadows" were sold. They sold readily, the bidding being brisk and in excellent spirit. A "fish pond" and a "candy booth" were patronized with spirit, and their supplies were soon exhausted. The receipts for the evening were something over $100. This shows an excellent school spirit in the Henley and neighboring districts.

BY MARGARET MASON (Written for the United Press)

Sleeveless nighties, ankle short. Are the new alluring sort; In them Sue's so sweet a sight 'Tis a shame to douse the light.

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—The newest nighties are bound to be a source of vexation to those unfortunates whose vaccinations are thus laid bare either by the lack of sleeve or the lack of length. But who can deny they are adorable?

It takes little material but lots of art takes little material, but lots of art to evolve them and a little nerve and lots of charm to wear 'em. About the only way you can tell a nightie from a chemise these days and nights is by inches. The chemise is cut just above the knee and the nightie just below it. It is true that most of the nighties actually blush for their own shortcomings, and this beautiful bluish pink dyes them, whether they be of sheer batiste crepe de chine or the new wash satin. It takes lots of sibilants to describe them and but little else—short, sleeveless and simple will do the work, and there you have it. Just to be consistently short in every respect the new nighties are also short waisted, and the empire waist line is shown on all the smartest models. Narrow lace edgings outlining the armholes and low neck line; briar stitching in pink or blue, touches of smocking or embroidery in pink or blue are all the ornamentations permissible on these chaste little sleeping garments of the moment.

They must be highly hygienic, allowing as they do for so much fresh air, but one shudders to think how soon these ducks of nighties will become an extinct species along with the Dodo bird and other rare avia, if they keep on dwindling away to nothing in this reckless way they have begun.

As for caps to top the dishevelled matutinal locks of milady fair, they are getting reckless too. Time was when a boudoir cap meant a coquetish little morsel of ribbon and lace and net, or at most, pastel tinted bits of chiffon or crepe de chine. Nowadays one must be coiffed like a gypsy or one of the Russian ballet in vivid hued silks twisted in turban shapes, or wierd and oriental head dresses. One model that turns you into a rosette on top of the head and topped with a fluffy ball of swan-down. Fluffs of swan-down alternating with tiny French ribbon roses frame the face. These swan-down trimmed caps are also charming when combined with satin of delicate tints and are verily far more fascinating when on my lady's head than when on the swan's.
