DIVES SELL MILK

Spokane Joint Evades
Law by Peddling
Soft Drinks

Act Passed to Keep Women
From Places Where Intoxicants Are Sold,
Is Evaded

Only temperance drinks are on sale at the Comique variety theater, a notorious dive, which for 12 years has been known as the lowest box-rustling resort in Spokane. The object of selling soft drinks is to defeat the recent order of the chief of police. The order prohibits box-rustling in any place where intoxicating liquor is sold.

The order is based on what is known as the state barmalade act, and, while generally believed to be a political play, is nevertheless effective. The order was promulgated seven days ago, and all the variety theaters, concert halls and saloons discharged their female solicitors, who have been following the business since the memory of man in Spokane. The managers of the Comique theater hit upon the temperance plan to beat the statute, as the law is aimed to prohibit the commingling of sexes in any saloon.

Tonight old habits of the Comique were met with solicitations of the girls, who plead with patrons to buy milk at 25 cents per glass, oyster cocktails at $1 per bottle and cirens lemonade, two drinks for a half. And the house did a rushing business.

The girls got a 20 per cent commission as of old, when all kinds of booze was sold. The police are non-plussed over the latest move. There is apparently no law under which prosecution can be brought for it.

There is one sure way to extirpate vice—that is to wipe out the singer.

MORE LABOR RIOTS

Chicago Workmen Get
Angry at a Train
Crew

Beat the Conductor and
Motorman, Smash Car
Windows and Finally
Battle With Police

Chicago, Dec. 10.—Angered because the train crew on the Halstead-street railway, on which they were riding, did not wear union buttons, a score of workmen left the car this morning, threatened to throw the motorman and conductor into the river, smashed all the windows on the train, and forced the crew to run for their lives. The motorman, being fleet of foot, escaped, after being chased a mile, and repeatedly hit with stones. The conductor was on the verge of collapse, four blocks away, when a policeman came to his rescue, dragged him into a house, and held the mob at bay with a drawn revolver. A riot call was sent in, and the battle was of short duration, as the squad of police, angered by the show of resistance, charged mercilessly, striking right and left with their clubs, until the mob finally dispersed. None were seriously hurt, although bloody heads were common. The frightened conductor was escorted to the barns. Both motorman and conductor were badly beaten. While the police were dispersing the mob surrounding the conductor, another contingent nearly demolished the abandoned train, tore out the seats and smashed the woodwork with sticks.

COUGAR ABROAD NEARBY

Followed Several Persons and Mischief
Feared

A Hunt Proposed to Capture the Monster Brute
That Is Following People at Night

Considerable interest and excitement is rife in the Kaiser school house neighborhood over the presence of a mammoth cougar in that region. He was seen many times during the summer and fall, but no great danger has been apprehended, until recently. It is known that he has feasted chiefly on gophers and other rodents, and no stock of any kind is known to have been disturbed.

A son of Wesley Osterman once saw him playing in a clover field, with a gopher he had captured. He also followed a man to the sawmill, and kept him there over night, and it is reported that he followed Mr. Spong, a brother of Capt. Spong, who lives on the latter's farm. It is reported that an effort will be made to organize a lot of citizens of that section, and start a hunt to exterminate this monster animal.

Party Go on Chase.
On being informed that the cougar had been seen within about a mile of the city, just below the poor farm, a number of hunters met at the Maurer gunstore, and a party will be organized to give the brute a chase. Late Savage, with his pack of hounds; Mark Bayley, who has been in many a cougar hunt in Tillamook county; Broese Gibson, and other riders, will be in the hunt. The crew will be made up at Maurer's gunstore tomorrow night. The cougar is getting altogether too familiar, and his proximity to Greater Salem is resented.

Employers Have Organized Under Parry's Plan

The Fight Between Organized
Capital and Organized Labor, May Prove
National Calamity

San Francisco, Dec. 10.—Chairman Jones, of the Restaurant Keepers' Association, which is allied with the Citizens' Alliance, a secret employers' organization, says if the cooks and waiters don't return to work in the open shop he will order all the provision trades to cease selling to restaurants not in the association, thus closing all those restaurants. Yesterday a settlement seemed near, but today indications are the employees are well organized, and prepared for a bitter fight, in which the public will be the greatest sufferers.

The Red Ferment.
A. W. Thornton a young man who had too much liquor on board, last night created a disturbance in the Japanese restaurant on Commercial street, and was arrested. He was fined $5 by Recorder Judah today, and allowed to go.
