ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

GLENDALE'S NEW BANK

The Glendale State Bank, which was incorporated last spring, is now an established institution, which will open its doors for business tomorrow. Harry N. Pratt, formerly of River Falls, Wis., has been here during the past week arranging temporary quarters at the drug store, where the banking business will be carried on until a permanent home is found for it. The stockholders held a meeting yesterday, when organization was consummated, officers elected and other important business transacted. All were in favor of R. A. Jones assuming the presidency of the new bank, but, on account of his necessary absence from the city so much of the time, this was deemed inadvisable. The following officers were elected: H. G. Sonnemann, president; L. K. Page, vice-president; H. Pratt, cashier. Directors: R. A. Jones, G. Gilbertson, H. N. Pratt, L. K. Page, J. Rogers, A. F. Hofer and H. G. Sonnemann.

It is a well known fact that the gentlemen from Salem are the successful operators of several prosperous banks in Oregon. Every man connected with this new enterprise in Glendale has made a success of his every business undertaking, and the business integrity and ability of these men individually and collectively bespeak for the new bank a promising future. This bank marks a new epoch in our progress and will prove helpful in the upbuilding of the city by bringing in new enterprises and in every way be a boon and a benefit to our community. We recommend the new institution to the good will and patronage of the community—Glendale News.

Salem Horses Best.

Salem certainly takes the lead as a horse market, as scores of fine animals are regularly picked up here by fanciers and buyers from other points. This morning E. C. Dick, manager of the Capital Commission Company, bought a couple of magnificent animals for the Pearson-Page Co., of Portland. They weigh about 1500 pounds each, yet they are rangy, and well matched. They cost about $500, and will be used on an up-to-date fruit van there, and will be shipped today.

Incredible Brutality.

I would have been incredible brutality if Chas. F. Lemberger, of Syracuse, N. Y., had not done the best he could for his suffering son. "My boy," he says, "cut a fearful gash over his eye, so I applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which quickly healed it and saved his eye." Good for burns and ulcers, too. Only 25c at J. C.
