Livestock Shipments

Monday Light
(From The Oregon Journal.)
Only one load of livestock came forward to North Portland Tuesday, and this was not available for the market. All lines showed unchanged prices for the day, with the exception of a slight change in mutton.

There was one load of stock in the cattle alley, but this consisted of dairy stock and was not offered for sale here. Killing stick indicated a steady tone around former prices.

Strike Situation

No Longer Counts
NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—The railroad labor situation ceased to be a factor of more than passing importance in the stock market yesterday, although transportation shares again were relatively backward in the board and active dealings.

Speculative interest converged around the oils, that group dominating. Mexican Petroleum, as a result of its favorable semi-annual statement of earnings, made a wide opening on sales of 33000 shares at a maximum advance of 4 1-2 points, subsequently increasing its gain to 6 points, only half of which was retained.

Other oils, foreign and domestic, were higher by 1 to 4 points at their best and motors, equipments, shipings and unusual array of unclassified miscellaneous issues scored gross gains of 1 to 7 points, even leathers showing strength, notwithstanding the poor statement of Central Leather.

Some steels were moderately strong, but that division reflected occasional pressure arising from anticipation of an unfavorable statement by United States Steel. The steel report issued after the close of the market, showed no part of the common dividend had been earned and that it was necessary to draw on the undivided surplus to meet the full requirements of the preferred stock. Sales were 750,000 shares.

Call money opened at 5 1-2 per cent, but advanced to 6 on an increased demand at midday, the higher rate holding to the close. Brokers reported smaller offerings of time funds, for which quotations were unaltered. Sterling demand bills were quoted as high as $2.96 1/2, the top figure for almost six months, and francs and lire also improved, but the remainder of the remittance list showed irregularity.

Dealing in bonds again were comparatively light and uncertain of tone, all liberty issues closing at variable losses. Rails, industrials and internationals moved narrowly. Total sales, par value, $12,675,000.

No Liquor Available

Thirsty patrons who knew friendly bartenders pleaded in vain. "There isn't any liquor in New York," they were told. And there wasn't then, apparently.

It looked as if the $5,000,000 worth of seized liquor was all there was in New York, and that was locked up.

There wasn't any more liquor to seize, it appeared; so, after a dry week in New York, Mr. Haynes left town.

LONDON, Oct. 26.—The offerings at the wool auction sales today amounted to 10,871 bales. There was a large attendance and competition was keen for all grades. Recent rates were fully maintained.

OUTBURSTS OF EVERETT TRUE

BOOZE STILL FLOWS FREELY IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Oct. 26.—(I. N. S.)—Booze, "three fingers" of it at fifty cents a shot, is today dampening New York City as fast as retailers can siphon it out. Meanwhile more liquor, in wholesale waves, is rolling over the rim of Gotham and spilling all over the United States.

That is believed to be the true status of the whiskey situation in New York today, although only a few weeks ago the city was declared to have been the driest in the country. It was at that time probably.

Haynes Hits Town
Roy Haynes, Prohibition Commissioner, and a whole flock of prohibition enforcement agents, all loaded with sponges, had hit town then, each with the announced intention of sponging up all the liquor here.

On the very first of their arrival newspapers fared forth with eight-column headlines telling of the seizure by prohibition agents of $5,000,000 worth of liquor.

Haynes' arrival and the seizure of millions' worth of booze, before his men had time to unpack their sponges, "meant something," to speak in the vernacular. It meant business, anyway. And within the twinkling of an eye all liquor disappeared.

NOT MANY YEARS AGO

It is not so many years ago when a common steel-box afforded all the protection necessary for the safe-keeping of money and papers. Today it is necessary to have an intricate and strongly constructed vault, fully protected with time-locks and electric apparatus, to be safe from burglars and fire. This bank has such a vault, and it is considered the finest structure of its kind in Eastern Oregon.

You are invited to inspect it.

HUNGARIAN GENERALS TAKE UP OTHER WORK

LONDON, Oct. 26.—(I. N. S.)—Hungarian generals and statesmen, and a majority of the nobility who played brilliant roles during the war at the court of the ex-emperor, are following the example of Field Marshal von Koyevs, the conqueror of Ivangorod, who recently opened a cigar shop in Budapest, by setting up in business as shopkeepers, tailors, carpenters and clerks.

The Baroness Dora Banffy, daughter of the former Hungarian premier, has opened a hat shop, while Count Eugen Klebelsberg had become a mounted policeman on probation.

Count Albert Apponyi, the veteran Hungarian statesman, writes two articles monthly for a New York newspaper, and Herr von Szepessy, member of an old family of aristocrats, is about to marry a dressmaker and plans to become a women's tailor.

Famous dancers and singers unable to live on their salaries have opened miniature saloons, and the greatest tragedienne of the National Theatre, Emilia Markus, is employed in a soap works.

How Much How Little

How much more than the bare mechanism of an automobile do you get when you buy a car? The real value of any automobile lies in performance, not in design or material.

The manufacturer furnishes the car. The good dealer guarantees its performance.

How much more you get than merely a car depends upon your selection of the dealer.

There is much more than a stock of automobiles in our establishment.
