A DAY'S JOURNEY AT HOME AND ABROAD WITH THE CAMERA

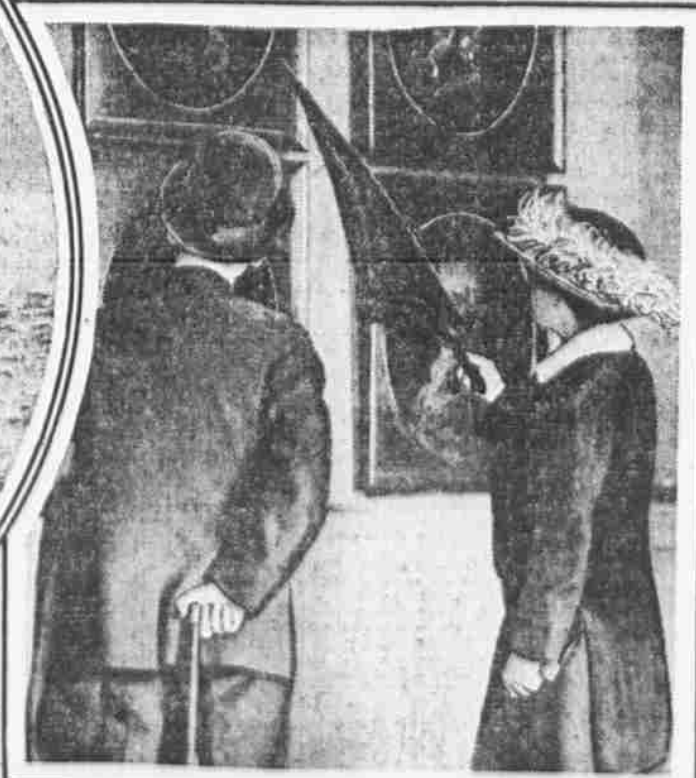

William Draper Lewis and Vance C. McCormick, snapped in front of the Washington party headquarters, 217 South Broad street. Mr. Lewis, the Washington party nominee who withdrew in favor of fusion and Mr. McCormick, is holding spectacles in his hand. Mr. McCormick is the smiling man with the overcoat thrown over his arm. The picture to the right is that of a group of women supporters of Mr. McCormick and the Washington party. From left to right, they are Miss N. Brown, Mrs. George H. Burpee, Mrs. Mary E. Hannum, Mrs. Joseph P. Mumford, Miss Mary H. Ingham, Mrs. Claude L. Roth and Mrs. D. C. France.

RUINS OF THE ANTIETAM GARAGE DESTROYED YESTERDAY BY THE FIRE AT HAGERSTOWN

SIR ERNEST SHACKLETON, AS WAS ANNOUNCED YESTERDAY SAILED FROM BUENOS AIRES ON HIS SOUTH POLE EXPEDITION. THIS PICTURE OF THE ENDURANCE WAS TAKEN AS SHE WAS SAILING FROM NEW ZEALAND FOR BUENOS AIRES

Among the precautionary methods employed at Independence Hall for the safety of the historic building and its contents is a new checking system which compels the checking of all canes and umbrellas by visitors. The picture to the left shows visitors prodding a portrait with an umbrella. To the right visitors are surrendering their prodding instruments to an attendant.
