COLUMBIA DEMOCRAT.

"Our Constitution---guard it ever!
Our glorious Union---hold it dear!
Our Starry Flag---forsake it never!
The proud Caucassian---our only peer!

BLOOMSBURG:

Saturday Morning, Feb. 24, '66.

Public Notice.

I have sold the office of the Columbia Democrat, and request those of my customers who are indebted, to call and pay their accounts with as little delay as possible. Distant subscribers can, and I hope will, remit money by mail, taking care to have their LETTERS properly REGISTERED. For a short time the Books, &c., will be in my hands, and I hope that those interested will avail themselves of the opportunity of settling our business in our own way. And as I shall not hereafter, have the advantage of Free Advertising, it is hoped I may have no occasion for the publication of any further notice.

LEVI L. TATE.

Bloomsburg, Feb 24, 1866.

Thomas Dunn's Last Squirm.

The Editor of the Republican, is evidently alarmed—he knows that by his unreasonable demands, unjust acts and impolitic course, he has driven from his support his first, best and most influential friends. He now realizes the serious fact that he must either yield to their wishes or lose his humble and ill-gained position both as Editor and officer. To prevent this the entire editorial of his last issue, was devoted to the endorsement of President Johnson's policy, and to the wily endeavor to make good honest Republicans believe that the Democrats are playing at his (Dr. John's) game of low cunning, which is entirely beneath the dignity and honor of the Democrats, besides being a bare falsehood.

Senator Buckalew, as a generous and liberal man may or may not assist the Republicans in procuring a man to edit the proposed new paper, but as to the facts of its origin being from a Democratic source and in aid of Democratic principles are entirely unfounded and absurd. We believe that no Democrat will, and we know that none should suffer themselves to be engaged in the effort of ousting Dr. John from the head of the Republican party of this county and placing a BETTERMAN in his stead; which is the exclusive object of the intended paper, all of which will tend to their benefit and advantage and to the disadvantage of the country and the Democratic party.

Marching On.

The New York Tribune says "John Brown's soul is marching on!"

We think so. A number of people think so. John Brown in the body corporate marched off through Kansas and elsewhere, stealing horses and other property. He marched to steal niggers and break laws, till at last he marched into eternity by a different line. And now we judge his soul is marching on! It marched through custom houses, post offices, collector's bureaus, legislatures and congress, stealing by the gross. It marched away from the White House lately with ninety large boxes in charge, and left the President's Mansion gutted. It has marched with its mortal counterpart Ben Butler, from New Orleans to Lowell, and through all the Departments at Washington. Yes—the soul of John is marching on, and we think it time the Devil wrapped a chain about this essence of Republicanism and anchor the soul of the horse stealing Ossawatomie. That's what's the matter.

Rough on Lincoln.

Redpath one of the favorite contributors to the Boston Commonwealth. (Radical,) in a recent letter to that paper, says:

"Lincoln was an emancipationist by compulsion; (have you forgotten how he sneered at the Pope's bull against the comet?) Lincoln was made a saint and liberator in spite of himself; but he was cuffed into calendar; he was kicked into glory; he did not voluntarily rise up, he was floated up on the resistless will of the people, to the height he now occupies; but John Brown stands by his side, so far above him, in spite of every obstacle that could be thrown in his way—in spite of old age and poverty, and lack of sympathy from the world."

It makes a difference who kicks! If we say a word against Lincoln, people swear, curse, denounce and abuse us without stint or limit. But one of his followers and glorifiers, now that the illustrious is no more, indulges in very queer talk.—And the idea that John Brown, a notorious horse thief and law breaker, is more of a saint than Lincoln, the eminent christian and statesman, is the meanest cut of all. If this is their endorsement, GOD save us from our friends!

☞Gen. John W. Geary, a democrat as long as the democrats were in power, and since a republican, which he will remain as long as they are in power, seems just now to be a leading aspirant for the abolition nomination for Governor. Our worst men turned renegades, and are now their best.

VALEDICTORY.

To the Patrons of the Columbia Democrat.

NINETEEN years ago this month we assumed the publication of the COLUMBIA DEMOCRAT, as its Editor and proprietor, and now, with the issue of this number, we resign our position and retire to private life and domestic endearments, in order to recuperate our wearied limbs and effect an early settlement of our out-standing accounts. During all this long period of time, to which sixteen years of our former life had been zealously devoted,—of active and ever-varying political contests—we have exerted our best energies to subserve and support the great principles of the UNION, the LAWS and the CONSTITUTION,—the undying heritage of Our Fathers—and the fundamental principles of the time-honored Democratic Party. If our labors have been of any advantage to our common country, in what we believe to have been for the dissemination of correct principles and the amelioration of the condition of our fellow-citizens, we shall feel that we have been amply compensated for our services and retire, for a time, from a long career of public journalism well satisfied.

ELIJAH R. IKELER, Esq., of Bloomsburg, has purchased the entire establishment of the old Columbia Democrat.—Mr. IKELER, is a young gentleman of high character, known integrity and fine ability—a sound Democrat, a chaste literary Writer and a fluent public Speaker. We commend him as such to our friends and the public—the noble lion-hearted Democracy of Columbia,—to whose liberal patronage and generous confidence we are mainly indebted for whatever of success has attended our poor labors and placed this establishment upon a permanent basis and career of unexampled prosperity.

Mr. Ikeler announces elsewhere in our columns his intentions in relation to the future conduct of this journal.

Subscribers and advertisers who have overpaid their accounts, will have a credit for the same on the Books of our successor, and all unexpired contracts will be fulfilled by him. We shall use our efforts to have all the business-minutia of the office satisfactorily arranged. More cannot be promised or expected.

And here we might close this brief Valedictory, and drop the Pen, were it not that the present untoward condition of affairs would seem to require at least a passing notice on the state of the country.

My Fellow-Countrymen, we are now in the midst of another, and what promises to be a fearful, if not a bloody Revolution. The spirit of fanaticism, treason and disunion, has unfortunately, for the honor of the nation, and the happiness of the country, placed a lot of traitors to the Constitution in high positions under the Government. Stevens, Sumner, Wilson, & Co., have determined to rule or ruin the country. And for this purpose they have thrust upon the people the odious measure of Negro Suffrage. These traitorous conspirators have made the issue with the people and the President, and seem determined that these States shall NOT be reunited—that Peace shall NOT be restored—that the Government of our Patriotic Fathers SHALL be broken up, and that death, devastation and anarchy shall again pervade our common country. President JOHNSON has sworn to support the Constitution and see the Laws faithfully administered. We only ask him to maintain his Constitutional Oath inviolate—not to commit perjury—and he will be sustained and the honor of the country preserved. The Southern States must either be brought back into the Union, or they will be kept out, and in the latter event, Negro Equality will be forced upon the People against their will and remonstrance.

Upon this great matter of the franchise privilege, depend consequences, for weal or woe, to the present and future generations—consequences to satisfactorily put an end to our troubles, or to increase and prolong them indefinitely—consequences which are to consummate our late unhappy civil war in a wholesome and perfect peace, and lead us again into the path of prosperity, or to involve us in agitation and bickering, if not, (which Heaven avert,) into renewed blood-shed, sooner or later—consequences which are to strengthen and secure the permanency of democratic institutions and the stability of constitutional government, or to unmoor this people on the wild sea of anarchy, or pass them beneath the yoke of despotism—consequences which may jeopardize the existence of the Union."

A word more in view of the situation of the country since the war, and the paramount duty of conciliation incumbent upon the people and all the States. The war was unexampled for its magnitude—the ground-swell of the energies of the greatest people known to history. But the tempering down of the heart of the people, the yielding of passion and resistance to law and authority was a grander sight.—Another triumph is to be achieved—to prove "whether the unseemly defacements which this beautiful fabric may have received during the war shall undergo radically organic alterations; or whether it it shall be restored, and remain in form and essence what it was—the model of genuine republican liberty.

Friends of Constitutional Government, your duty, our duty, and the duty of every good citizen, is to sustain the present policy of President JOHNSON, He is waging a just war against the Radical Abolitionists, the only Disunion Party in the land, the worst enemies our country ever had. We gave our first vote to ANDREW JACKSON, and should the present Executive succeed in his present high Mission of RESTORING THE UNION, we ask no higher honor,—in the Providence of God—when the time comes to cast our last vote for ANDREW JOHNSON.

Ever faithfully yours—Farewell.

LEVI L. TATE.

And here we drop the Pen.

To the Patrons of the Columbia Democrat.

With this issue the Hon. LEVI L. TATE, the veteran Editor of this journal, retires from the Editorial field with all the honors of an upright, faithful, true and successful champion of Democratic principles and the rights of man. He has not only gained an enviable position in his field of labor, but has, in addition, for his reward an approving conscience, and the deserved confidence of his numerous friends. Having purchased the COLUMBIA DEMOCRAT; and believing it to be an economical arragement to the Publishers and Patrons of both the "Columbia Democrat" and "Star of the North," and through the suggestions and entreaties of our many Democratic friends, we have decided, that hereafter the two Democratic papers of this county, known as the "Columbia Democrat" and "Star of the North," shall be consolidated and published as the accredited and responsible organ of the Democratic party of Colombia county.—With a firm and unflinching determination to sustain DEMOCRATIC PRINCIPLES at all times, and under all circumstances, we hope, dear readers, that the above arrangements will meet with the general approval of the entire Democratic party of this county, and with the improvements we hope to be able to make in the paper we shall endeavor to deserve the confidence and support of the public.

E. R. IKELER.

Veto of the Negro Bureau!

THE VETO MESSAGE.

We have not room to-day for the message of the President vetoing the "Freedmen's Bureau Bill." The main objections to the bill are: It gives too much power to the executive, it is too expensive and burdensome; it is unnecessary; it was passed in the absence of representation of the States chiefly to be affected by it; and, finally, it is unconstitutional.

We freely and candidly declare says the Patriote & Union, that this message of Mr. Johnson is a most masterly paper—clear, searching, unanswerable. It dives to the very bottom of the subject and overturns the shoddy structure of the Yankee negro rushlights as though it were built of paper. We will print this truly statesmanlike message to morrow, and hope that every man woman and child will read it and thank its author as we do from their very heart of hearts. In the name of our Democratic patrons we thank President Johnson for the stand he has thus taken to protect the white laboring tax paying masses of the country from extortionate oppression.

In the Senate when the massage was read, an effort was made during the excitement, and indignation of the radicals, to pass the bill over the veto, but it was soon evident that two-thirds could not be secured. A vote to postpone stood—ayes 17; nays 29; and as this test was considered a sufficient dampener, the Senate soon adjourned without even discussing the subject they decided not to postpone. A "loyal" negro organ says that while the message was being read "brows were knit and many countenances bore an unusally stern and determined expression." Of course, there is now weeping and wailing in the negro camp.

Lieut. D. Lowenburg.—At the risk of incuring the displeasure of this gentleman, we voluntarily take the responsibility of putting his name in print, as this may be the last opportunity we shall have of doing him justice. Mr. LOWENBERG is not only a worthy citizen and gentleman, in the fullest acceptation of the terms, but is also a man of the most enlarged liberality and acknowledged patriotism. We need only add, that he has ever been a consistent Democrat, and the best friend we ever had since we located in Bloomsburg.

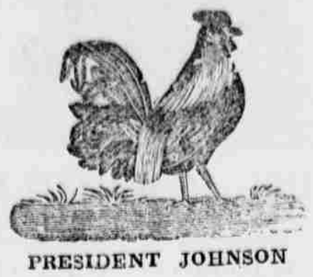
The Ledger's correspondent says there are serious doubts about the admission of Colorado as a State; and that a sharp fire will be opened against her in both branches in which the whole combined Sumner-Stevens strength will be concentrated. All this because her constitution was not made by negroes instead of white people as it was. It now becomes a recognized principle of Republicanism, as distorted and debased by its leaders, that no State is 'republican in form' which does not allow negroes to vote.

SUM TOTAL OF GREAT LIBRARIES.—We have had as much to do with dictionaries, first and last; have turned over a thousand pounds of them, perhaps, have watched new editions riseing in stately fashion and found the best were set on Webster's sure foundations. What we have written of Webster's work, while it has been in all truthfulness has also been in all love. We have a warm filial feeling for it and for him: grateful to Webster for earliest lessons and for latest teachings; grateful to God, that, while he gave us English for our mother-tongue he gave us a man so worthy to record and expound it; men so worthy to continue the work he so nobly begun. And we put that mother-tongue to a sacred use when we utter the truthful words that these three books are the sum total of great libraries :—The Bible, Shakspeare, and Webster's Royal Quarto.—Chicago Evening Journal.

Honors to the President.

NEW HAVEN, CONN., Feb. 20.—The Democracy of this city are firing thirty-six guns in honor of President Johnson and his veto of the Freedmen's Bureau Bill.

GLORIOUS NEWS!



PRESIDENT JOHNSON

THROWS HOT SHELL

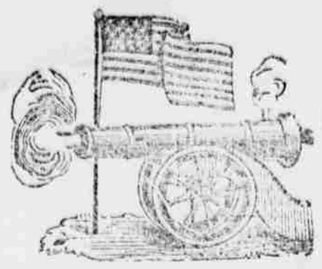
ABOLITION CAMP!!

The First Gun!!!



LET HER BLAZE!

He Vetoes the Freedmen's Bureau Bill!

The people breathe more freely. The cloud that hovered o'er the Republic has broken, and, although the storm is not yet over, there is light on the horizon and the promise of rest and safety. It is not merely that an unjust, unnecessary and unconstitutional bill has been vetoed, it is not merely that the revolutionists in Congress have been rebuked, and one of their schemes frustrated, but, better than that, the President has flung defiance in the faces of the Radicals, and the republicanism of our country is sure of a champion, in the person of its Chief Magistrate, against the ambition and fanaticism of the arrogant faction, whose intrigues and reckless legislation threatened the very life-essence of our political system.

The long-wished for hour has come that elevates Mr. Johnson into the glorious position of defender of the Constitution.—The Radicals may rail, and plot, and fling their fire-brands into the Congressional arena. Stevens may vent his rage and Sumner declaim in the polished rhetoric of abuse, but the spell is broken, the meshes have been rent asunder, the voice of authority has been heard in terms that cannot be mistaken, and the people are ready to respond with an earnestness that will endure no opposition. The masses have waited but for the signal from the leader, in whose hands dwells the power to baffle the disunion conspirators. They have not waited in vain. Andrew Johnson has thrown down the battle gage and let the Radicals take it up if they dare—the days of their power are numbered.

The Freedmen's Bureau.

At one o,clock, Mr. Foster, of Connecticut in the chair, said—The unfinished buisness of yesterday is the bill returned by the President with his objections, Senate bill No. 6

The question being called for, the Chair announced that it was: "Shall the bill pass, the Presidents' objections notwithstanding?" Upon which the yeas and nays were required by the constitution. The vote was as follows:

YEAS—Messrs. Anthony, Brown, Chandler, Clark, Conness, Cragin, Creswell, Fessenden, Foster, Grimes, Harris, Henderson, Howard, Howe, Kirkwood, Lane of Indianna, Lane of Kansas, Morrill, Nye, Poland, Pomeroy, Ramsey, Sherman, Sprague, Sumner, Trumbull, Wade, Williams, Wilson, Yates—30.

NAYS—Messrs. Buckalew, Cowan, Davis, Dixon, Doolittle, Guthrie Hendricks, Johnson, McDougal, Morgon, Nesmith, Norton, Riddle, Saulsbury, Stewart, Stockton, Van Winkle, Witley—18.

The Chair announced that the number voting in the affirmative being less than two-thirds the bill had failed.

This announcement was greeted with loud hisses from the colored galleries.

"BEAST BUTLER."—The Philadelphia Age, commenting on the late speech of the "Beast,' delivered in the hall of the House of Representatives, at Washington, to a mixed audiance of Shoddytes and negroes says:

"The speech is simply a long howl for blood. Its brutality is in entire keeping with the history of the man who made it. It contains no argument, it merits no reply. To its demand for the judicial murder of General Lee and Jefferson Davis we have only this word to say—that if the armies of the North had been cursed with the leadership of many such generals as Butler we should have had the rebel flag floating to day over the hall in which that bottle-corked warrior uttered his clamorous cry for cowardly vengeance."

☞A petition for the pardon of John C. Breckinridge, signed by over seventy members of the Kentucky Legislature, has arrived in Washington for presentation to the President.

JUDGES KING AND GILMORE SUSTAINED.—A correspondent writing from Bloomsburg Columbia county, says: "At the last term of court in this county, an action was brought by the Commonwealth against Charles Eck, a member of an election board for refusing the vote of Wm. Fry, and alleged deserter. His Honor Judge Elwell, took substantially the same grounds as Judge King. The jury found a verdict of 'guilty, against defendant. Please place Judge Elwell's name beside King's and Gilmore's."

—Patriot & Union.

☞Judge Patterson, Senator elect from Tennessee, has been examined by the Reconstruction committee. He thinks no Freddmen's Bureau is needed in East Tennessee, and that all the national troops may safely be withdrawn from the State.

THE NEW ILLUSTRATED EDITION OF WEBSTER'S DICTIONARY.—This seemingly dry and certainly ponderous book has its peculiar charms. Here is collected and tersely set down a vast quantity of various and useful knowledge such as is indispensable to educated men and women. Here are an hundred and fourteen thousand words, defined with a clearness, fullness, precision, and wealth of illustration that denote the soundest scholarship and the most entire fidelity to laborious details. Altogether the work is a marvelous specimen of learning, taste, and thorough labor. We praise it heartily, because we believe it deserves the heartiest praise.—New York Albion.

☞It is stated that the Radicals are trying to alienate Johnson and Grant

THIS INVENTION consists of Duplex (or two) Elliptic Pure Refined Steel Springs, ingeniously Braided Tightly and Firmly together, edge to edge, making the Toughest, most Flexible, Elastic and durable Spring ever used. They never break or break, like the Single Springs, and consequently preserve their perfect and beautiful shape more than twice as long as any Single Spring Skirt that ever Has or Can be made.

THE wonderful flexibility and great comfort and pleasure to any Lady wearing the Duplex Elliptic Skirt will be experienced particularly in all crowded Assemblies, Operas, Carriages, Railroad Cars, Church Pews, Arm Chairs, for Promenade and House Dress, as the Skirt can be folded when in use to occupy a small piece as easily and conveniently as a Silk or Muslin Dress.

A Lady having Enjoyed the Pleasure, Comfort and Great Convenience of wearing the Duplex Elliptic Steel Spring Skirt for a single day will Never afterwards willingly dispense with their use. For Children, Misses and Young Ladies they are superior to all others.

THE HOOPS are covered with 2 ply double twisted thread and will wear twice as long as the Single yarn covering which is used on all Single Steel Hoop Skirts. The three bottom rods on every Skirt are also Double Steel, and twice or double covered to prevent the covering from wearing off the rods when dragging down stairs, stone steps, etc., etc., which they are constantly subject when in use.

All are made of the new and elegant Corded Tapes, and are the best quality in every part, giving to the wearer the most graceful and perfect shape, possible, and are unquestionably the lightest, most desirable, comfortable and economical Skirt ever made.

THE HOUSE of ROSANQUET, GIRAUD & CO., PARIS, have the pleasure of announcing that they have opened an AGENCY IN THE CITY OF NEW YORK, for the sale of their WIDELY KNOWN JEWELRY, WATCHES, &c., and for the purpose of making their goods as extensively known and appreciated in the United States as they now are, and have been for over 70 years, in Europe; they have determined on a plan by which poor and rich alike may have the advantage of their splendid styles. As a preliminary, they would remark that they manufacture and sell no imitation Jewelry or Watches but

All are Warranted GOLD of the finest Workmanship.

Our customers will also have the great advantage of a constant succession of new and recherche styles and patterns with which we shall keep our New York Agency supplied.

We have adopted the plan of sale, now so popular, of charging a uniform price, and in price will invariably be $2 FOR EACH ARTICLE, no matter how costly it may be. The expenses of conducting our New York Agency are paid by the sale of Certificates or Coupons representing the various articles. These Certificates are sold at 50 cents each, or five for $2 and each Certificate will show the holder the particular article he or she is entitled to on payment of an additional $2. If the article named on the Certificate is not desired, the holder will oblige us, when he returns the Certificate, by stating what other articles of the same value he or she may prefer, and it will be sent with pleasure. OUR AIM IS TO PLEASE, and every means to that end will be exerted. We solicit a trial from every one who reads this notice as we are confident of giving the utmost satisfaction.

THE STOCK COMPRISES

Amongst other articles, Splendid Clocks, Gold and Silver Watches, Rings set with Diamonds, Rubies, Pearles, Garnet and other Stones, (solitaire and in clusters,) Ladies' sets of Jewelry comprising Pins and Ear-rings of the most fashionable styles, set in Precious Stones of every variety, together with a large assortment of Gold and Enamelled and Pearl Sets, Gold Studs and Sleeve Buttons of the most beautiful patterns, Gents' Bosom and Scarf Pins, and an endless variety of Bracelets, Chains, Musical Boxes, Head Dresses Combs, Charms, &c. In case any of our patrons are not in want of Articles of Jewelry, and would prefer a Silverware, we will send, for ANY Certificate returned to us, a richly engraved SET OF CASTORS or BUTTER DISH, beautifully chased and plated,
