

PEN AND PENCIL HERE HELP US TO LAUGH A LITTLE AT THE LIGHTER SIDE OF LIFE

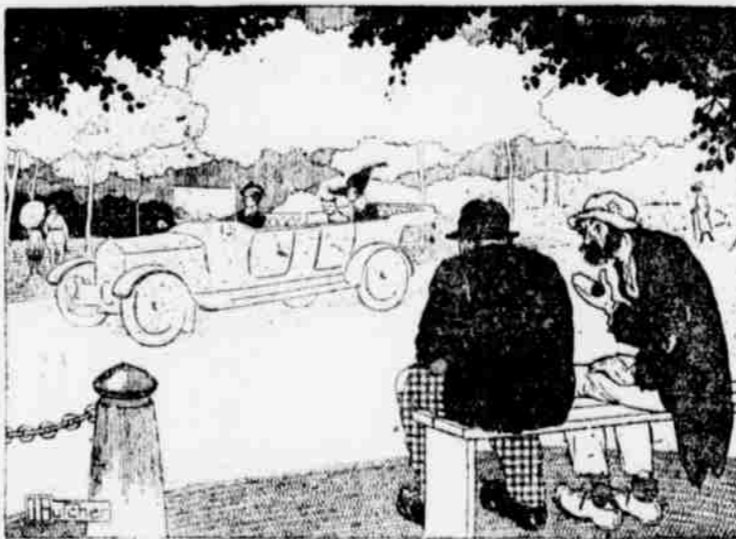

(THIS PAGE IS FULLY PROTECTED BY COPYRIGHT)

THE TERRIBLE-TEMPERED MR. BANG WENT DOWN INTO THE BASEMENT AND STARTED THE APARTMENT FURNACE HIMSELF

Up-to-date Picture Postcard Merchants—Buy a 'Red Hot' Souvenir of the Great War! King Charles the Post takin' cover from enemy airplanes—Only one penny!

ANOTHER CLASS INJUSTICE

"I call it a crime! Look at that dog sittin' on that lady's knee and 'ere are we on these 'ard seats!"

THE ONE THING NEEDFUL

Farmer—Here's your bow, rake, and spade. Fashionable Land Worker (newly arrived)—Oh, how 'nice! And where shall I find my caddy?"

SCHOOL DAYS

"CAP" STUBBS—A Boy Has a Hard Life

ALL HAPPY

The Young Lady Across the Way

The young lady across the way says she understands the peach stones we're all sayin' are used to make gas masks and she wonders how they keep them from rattling and attracting the enemy's attention when the boys sleep over the top.

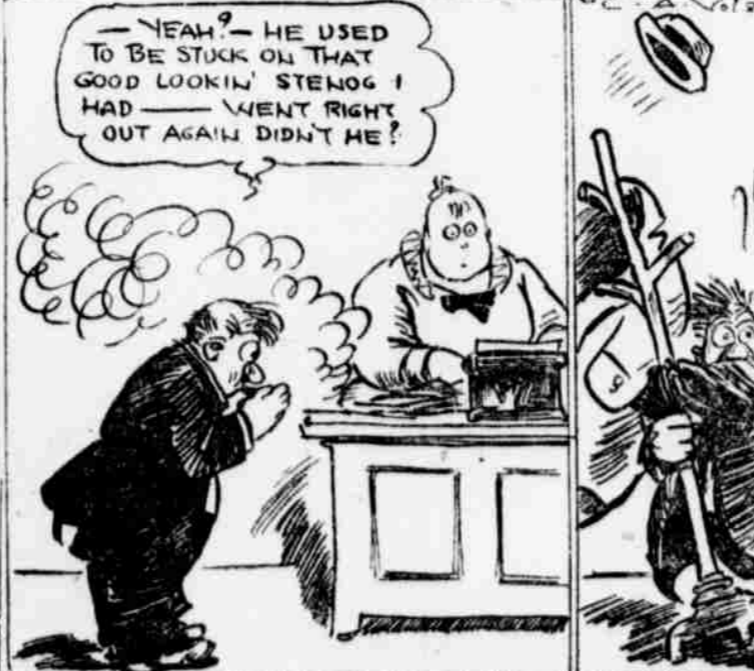

PETEY—End of Round One Finds Petey Hanging On to the Ropes. So to Speak

THE GUMPS—They're Burning Soft Coal Now

By C. A. VOIGHT

By SIDNEY SMITH

By C. A. VOIGHT

By SIDNEY SMITH

EFFICIENCY

We show in the person of Herr Professor estimated underhand proof positive that the Germans in four years have allowed nothing to go to waste.