People Back From Vacations Will Find Plenty to See Right Here

Opportunities Grow Stale Unless Promptly Seized and Used

Where the rain-water cisterns supply the drinking water for families far away from fresh-wells and streams, somebody must be critically watchful of clean pipes and roofs that catch the welcome streams from the sky. Many a man lost a chance by one day's delay.

The day's work left over for tomorrow doubles the burdens of tomorrow.

[Signed] John Wanamaker

September 7, 1921.

A Quaint Tea Service That Recalls Colonial Days

One might expect to find just such silver as this in one of the stately old homes in the delightful New England city of Portsmouth for which this pattern is named.

"The Portsmouth" has the long, slim, graceful lines so much admired in Colonial silver. It is one of the most beautiful designs in sterling silver made by the Gorham Company and is much sought after for wedding gifts.

The seven-piece tea service is hand chased and is priced at $1649.

(Jewelry Store, Chestnut and Thirteenth)

Women's Smart Top-Coats, $65

(In the London Shop)

They are fashioned on English box style, with most mannish collars and lapels, of Caledon tweeds, in overlaid designs.

The straight back which this coat features is especially smart.

Half lined.
Custom made, $75.

(The Gallery, Chestnut)

Big Chinchilla Coats for Small Daughters—$20

Little Miss Girlie of 6 to 14 years will be snug and "comfy" on the coldest day in one of these splendid winter coats at $20. They are of high-grade chinchilla, lined throughout with bright red flannel and well tailored in every detail. The close-buttoning collar, set-in sleeves, slit side pockets, full back, wide belt and good bone buttons are all as they should be to give comfort and satisfaction. And the little lady may choose it in navy, gray or brown.

Other coats for girls of 6 to 14 are priced $11.50 to $35—the last fur trimmed.

(Second Floor, Chestnut)

Effective Overblouses of Silk Crepe at $10.85 and $13.50

Once upon a time—and not so very long ago, either—women who desired such original blouses had to pay a high price to have them designed and made to order.

Now here they are, all ready to put on and wear off happily over skirt suits of any color.

The $10.85 model is of henna (they call it Mohawk now) crepe de chine, embroidered in navy; or of navy embroidered in henna or tan; or of brown with the vivid yellow known as yellowstone. It is cut to ignore the waistline, ending in a broad band around the hips.

Even straighter is the $13.50 chemise overblouse. The crepe de chine is cut in picot-edged bands to show another color beneath—Neptune green under navy blue, yellowstone under brown, and so on.

Both models have round neck, short sleeves and the new shoulder line.

(Third Floor, Central)

Stacks of Snowy Underthings

are a necessity to every particular woman. She likes to possess such a quantity of fresh new garments as never to get to the bottom of the pile.

To replenish her stocks come excellent new white envelope chemises at $1 to $5. They are nainsook, daintily made, either lace or embroidery trimmed, and ribbon run; with built-up showy frills or ribbon straps. Those at $1.85, $2.25, $2.50 and $2.75 are uncommonly dainty and pretty.

(Third Floor, Central)

A Few Parisienne Corsets Going Out for $8 Each

The reason for this great lowering in price is that there are a few broken sizes left from a special lot. An excellent opportunity for the many women who wear Parisienne models in the sizes left.

(Third Floor, Chestnut)

The School Dress of the Year
Is a Two-Piece Jersey—Here at $11.50

And if Miss 14 to 20 does not go to school, she wears it for shopping or business.

Made of fine wool jersey with a pleated skirt, and a two-pocketed slip-on overblouse, with detachable Peter Pan collar and cuffs of heavy white linen.

The colors are navy, brown, camel, henna. And the price of $14.50 is a little less than we have been able to sell it for hitherto.

(Second Floor, Chestnut)

To Brave the Autumn Winds— a Hat and Scarf to Match

At present they are merely decorative, but a little later how useful will be this coquettish hat of soft brushed wool, and its cozy scarf to match!

The colors are lovely, and many women are buying not one set, but several, to suit their varying color moods.

Prices on the sets start at $13. Other jaunty little sports hats of knitted and brushed wool—some of them from Scotland—are $7.50 and upward.

(Second Floor, Chestnut)

A Few Extremely Handsome Coats for Women Are Now Marked $100

They are coats to delight the heart of the woman who likes beautiful and distinctive fashions, for there are barely two alike, the majority being the finer novelties.

Principally, however, these wraps and coats are in just the weight cloths for fall—mostly silk and wool duvetynes and Bolivias. The dark Autumn shades predominate, and there are a few in black.

Every one in the collection was half again as much or more.

(First Floor, Central)

Veils From Paris Become More Fascinating

They have the advantage of being French, and feel able to come forth with all sorts of new points.

A plain mesh affair has drooping chenille-dotted ends. The small draped veil has a band of ribbon fringe for the hat. Scrolls, silk flowers and a number of odd designs appear.

Colors are brown, taupe, navy and black.

Prices are $4 to $11.

(Main Floor, Central)

New Striped Skirtings Answer Fashion's Call

Never were seen so many different kinds of stripes before! Chevron effect stripes, lattice stripes, cross-bar stripes, check and plaid stripes and others plain but in varied widths—all are here!

They are intended for the smartest new sports skirts, pleated and plain, and any woman can see at a glance the wonderful possibilities in them.

The colors are navy, black and brown, combined with tan, gray or white chiefly, 54 inches wide, $4 and $5.50 a yard.

(First Floor, Chestnut)

A Dainty Satin Slipper for $9.75

Much satin, satin-faced crepe and charmeuse are to be worn for afternoon and evening, and the satin slipper that goes with both of them best will be in great demand.

We have prepared a very dainty satin slipper to sell at $9.75. It is of supple black satin, with one-buttoned strap, narrow toe and low French heel. Or of navy blue satin in the same one-strap model, but with Louis heel.

A finer grade one-strap satin slipper, with low French heel, is in a shade of brown to harmonize with the prevailing brown tones of the season. This is $12.

(First Floor, Market)

Women's Sturdy Handkerchiefs $3.75 a Dozen

They are a smooth, nice quality linen, fitted to stand many weekly tubbings, and they come with one-eighth, one-quarter or half inch hems.

By reason of the fact that these handkerchiefs were made in Ireland especially for us, the price is as moderate as it is.

(West Aisle)

Gay Plaid Hair Ribbons for School

Hair bows are bobbing merrily to and from school now. These new ribbons are plaid or striped, 5 and 5½ inches wide.

Prices are less than usual—50c and 60c a yard.

(Main Floor, Central)

A Young Maid's Fancy—Pearl Beads

We have all heard her say "Next birthday I'm going to ask for pearl beads!" Pearls are universal favorites, and are universally becoming.

Imitation pearl necklaces, in various lengths, with solid gold clasps, cost from 75c to $65.

(Jewelry Store, Chestnut and Thirteenth)

Women's Duplex Gloves for Fall

Cooler weather brings a great demand for gloves. These are the two-clasp length, of a fine quality and a reputation for durability. They are easily cleaned.

The colors are gray, tan, beaver, black and white.

Price, $1.75 a pair.

(Main Floor, Central)

2000 Yards Linen Crash, Special, 28c a Yard

Three years ago you could buy this grade of crash toweling for this price, but not since.

It is unbleached, 17 inches wide, and a particularly nice quality for kitchen towels, roller towels or dish towels.

(First Floor, Chestnut)

New Velour Portieres at a Low Price

$24.75 is a special price on these double-faced velour door draperies. We had them made up during dull season. They are in beautiful colorings—the shades most desired for artistic home-decoration. They are full size and finished with the French edge. Late shipments will have to be more costly.

(Fifth Floor, Market)

Rainproof Clothing for Gunners

No good sportsman minds the rain unless it gets through to the skin, which these garments will prevent.

Hunting trousers, $4.25 and $4.50; breeches, $6.65. Coats, $9.90; extra size, $10.25; vests, $4.75.

Hats, $2; caps, $1.60; leggings, $2.50 a pair.

Also a complete assortment of hunting boots, shoes, shirts, knives, rifles, guns and ammunition.

(The Gallery, Juniper)

100 Pieces of Nainsook Special at $5.25

This is a splendid opportunity to buy a fine quality of material for underclothes, 45 inches wide, 10 yards in a piece.

(Fifth Floor, Chestnut)

Men's Fine New Pajamas of Woven Madras

are in just the weight needed from now on till cold weather—and some men will wear them all Winter.

They are in wide and seersucker stripes and in a good range of colors, and are made in the perfectly plain style that so many men prefer.

Price $3.

Cotton pongee pajamas in plain colors and also plain in cut, $2.50.

(Main Floor, Market)

Men's Linen Handkerchiefs $4 a Dozen

These are the good "everyday" handkerchiefs for which many men have been looking.

All Irish linen.

(West Aisle)

Silk Scarfs Made a Safe Voyage From England

It is true that they have "just stepped off the steamer." Some are striped in Oriental colors and have an interesting new weave. $16.50.

Others, having a looser and novel weave, show color combinations resembling heather, with Roman striped ends. $20.

Wool scarfs, not imported, include two types excellent for schoolgirls. One is striped, and has a pocket and patent leather belt. $5.

The other has large colored dots. $6.

(Main Floor, Central)

The New Baby's Layette Costs $15

It includes 25 pieces—dresses, booties, petticoats, shirts, bands, diapers, binders and a blanket. It is a very dainty collection.

Besides layettes, there is a whole world of lovely and useful things for the baby. Machine and hand-made dresses, petticoats, blanket-knit goods, long coats and caps are reasonably priced.

(Third Floor, Chestnut)

Men's Silk Sock "Seconds" 45c, Three Pair for $1.25

3500 pair of black and colored silk half hose that would be a half more if first-grade goods.

(Main Floor, Market)

Umbrellas Specially Re-covered at 95c

A new umbrella for 95c! Re-covered with a very durable American taffeta (cotton) with tape edge. Any sized umbrella, in black only.

(Main Floor, Market)

In the Great Sale of China

In addition to the incomparable collection of china and porcelain dinner sets at savings of 20 to 50 per cent (the year's greatest opportunity) we also have many specialties, including such things as:

Fine English service plates, Cauldon and Royal Doulton with coin-gold incrustated borders, now $75 to $150 a dozen.

Marble, all-at half price—now $3.75 to $187.50 each for groups, figures, busts and other beautiful subjects.

Eichwald pottery vases with basket-weave base and floral borders, many quaint designs, now $2.50 and up.

Fancy china, hundreds and hundreds and hundreds of pieces, 25 to 50 per cent less than hitherto.

English china tea sets, Czechoslovakian tea sets, French tea sets, French breakfast sets, Czechoslovakian breakfast sets, are all reduced 20 to 33½ per cent.

Concrete garden furniture at a reduction of one-third.

Italian pottery, Belgian pottery, French pottery vases, English semi-porcelain vases, Pickard hand-decorated china are shown in large and charming assortment at one-fifth to one-third less than former prices—now $1.50 to $65 a piece.

(Fourth Floor, Chestnut)

We Might Say the Chinese Rugs Are the Feature of the Oriental Rug Sale

In the first place, there is a greater number of room-size pieces among the Chinese rugs than in any of the Persian weaves.

And in the second place, and what is more important, prices on the Chinese rugs are about back to where they were before the war.

More and more people are coming to appreciate the beauty and furnishing qualities of Chinese rugs and the luxurious tread of their deep, soft pile.

Practically none of the rugs that follow have been mentioned before in the sale:

Chinese Rugs
10x8	$165
12x9	225
10x8	155
10x8	165
12x9.3	245
12x9	225
12x9	255
12x9	227

Daghestan and Shirvan Rugs

6.1x4 to 7.1x4, $55 to $85

(Seventh Floor, Central)

Glorious Choice in the Sale of Lamps

Very many people did not get home from the mountains and the shore in time to participate in the opening of this sale.

But for those who are now coming there is still abundant choice.

Our whole collection of gas and electric lamps and shades is in the September Sale at 10 to 50 per cent reductions.

Floor Lamps, $7.50 to $200
Table Lamps, $4.50 to $50
Silk Shades, $3.50 to $165

These prices are less than half the prices of a year ago.

Now is the time of opportunity.

(Fourth Floor, Central)

Men's New High Shoes At the Modest Price of $8

These are black and tan calfskin blucher shoes with full, round toes, wide shanks and low heels.

They are perfectly plain, with straight tips.

Unusually good-looking shoes for the price, and very comfortable.

(Main Floor, Market)

For Some Cooking There Is Nothing Like the Old-Fashioned Iron Pots and Pans That Mother Always Liked

In plenty of Philadelphia homes there are iron utensils a century old, or more, still in use. It is sure that no other kind of cooking utensil will last so long, and many women claim that no other kind will brown so evenly or retain the heat so well.

In the September Housewares Sale

we have an abundant choice of the very best old-fashioned iron cooking utensils, including such things as

Tite-top basters—improved Dutch ovens (incomparable for fine pot roasting).

Frying pans with polished interiors.

Waffle irons with high base for gas stoves and low base for coal stoves, including the new baker that makes heart-shaped waffles.

Cake griddles, with smoothly polished baking surface.

Food and meat choppers that cut, but do not crush, fine, medium and coarse. Prices low as before the war.

(Fourth Floor, Market)
