of burial for the remains of the heroes of the late conflict in one spot, to be kept, as it is now the law and rule in many other places in a United States National cemetery to be located in the immediate vicinity of the city of Philadelphia, where the dignity and decency of the grave may be preserved and the honored dust in future years may speak as incentives to patriotism and valor. There are sixty or seventy places of interment now used, and the bodies of heroes may be thrown out at any time in the ditch to rot."

Time to Stop It.

It's too bad, Sir or Madam, but don't get frightened. Your hair is falling off—that's certain. A glance in the mirror, or an investigating committee of fingers tell the dismal story. We won't discuss the possible cause. It is enough that Parker's Hair Balsam used now will prevent further destruction. Is your hair somewhat gray, too, and crisp? Alas, yes. The Balsam will give back the original color, softness and gloss. Not a dye, not oily, elegantly perfumed, a perfect dressing. m31-lyd8&eoww

SECOND EDITION.

SATURDAY EVENING, MAY 31, 1884

LONDON ALARMED.

GREAT DAMAGE FROM DYNAMITE.

Property Destroyed and People Injured by Yesterday's Explosions—Vigorous Newspaper Utterances in London.

LONDON, May 31.—The coming of daylight this morning shows that the damage caused by the dynamite explosions last night, outside of the detective office in the Scotland yards, this city, and the Junior Carlton club house in Pall Mall, resulting from a bomb thrown into the basement of the club house, at the back of St. James' square, was not over estimated. Dense crowds of curious and excited people are visiting the ruins, which will remain untouched until after an investigation has been made. At St. James' theatre, a hundred yards distant, the explosion sounded like two claps of thunder and the alarm among the audience amounted almost to a panic. Several ladies fainted. The second bomb in St. James' square exploded against the residence of Sir Watkin Wynn, M. P. It produced a huge white fracture, four feet high by three broad. The windows were shattered and the furniture damaged.

Thirteen People Injured.

The explosion created great havoc at the Junior Carlton club. Many cases of wine in the cellar were completely destroyed. An hour before the explosion a fire broke out in the war office, but was speedily extinguished. As far as known up to this hour (noon) thirteen people were more or less injured, among them five women. Five of the wounded are in a precarious condition.

What the Newspapers Say.

The newspapers devote a large portion of their space to the explosions and comment upon them in their editorial columns in a vigorous fashion.

The Telegraph says: "It behooves the English people to reflect whether further and sterner measures should not be taken to put a stop to the public peril and mischief to which they are now exposed. Each fresh act of cruelty and malice will strengthen the resolve of Englishmen not to yield one jot to those who are wishing to dismember the empire."

The Standard declares that "No concession can be made to outrage. So far the only result it has attained has been failure and penal servitude. The nation is disgusted and annoyed, but not alarmed. If the attempt had fully succeeded last night, we could not answer for the reprisals of the London populace."

The Times says: "The explosions have followed shortly upon the introduction of Mr. George O. Trumlyan's Irish land bill. The inference is legitimate that the baffled Nationalists have again vented their displeasure in a dastardly act of mischief."

THE COLD WEATHER.

Fruit and Vegetables Greatly Damaged.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., May 31.—Reports this morning indicate that nearly all the apple and peach crop of Orange, Sullivan, Delaware and all the midland counties of New York state have been destroyed by frost. The strawberries in Oneida county have all been killed.

Dispatches from New England state that the severe cold and frost last night did severe damage to all kinds of fruit and vegetables.

An Editor Indicted for Libel.

FORT SMITH, Arkansas, May 31.—Hon. V. Dell, editor of the Fort Smith New Era, a leading Republican paper of this section, was indicted yesterday for libelling Col. J. H. Clendenning. Dell was postmaster under Grant and Clendenning's predecessor and U. S. marshall of the western district of Arkansas under Garfield.

At Chicago.

CHICAGO, May 31.—The weather is steadily growing warmer and the political atmosphere appears to follow suit. The event of the morning was the arrival of the California and Nevada delegations. They were escorted to the hotel with music, and after giving three cheers for Blaine separated.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

WASHINGTON, May 31.—For the Middle Atlantic states, warmer fair weather, easterly shifting in northerly part to southerly winds, a lightly warmer. The temperature will rise slowly during Saturday and Sunday.
