

THE CAUTIONER'S STORY.—I had neither time nor space yesterday evening to give you the following anecdote, related in La Patrie, of Lord Gray, whose death has caused as much regret in the English society of this channel: Lord Gray was one evening returning from his club, when he perceived the loss of his pocket book, containing 40,000 francs. Lord Gray searched the pockets of his coat, but in vain. He quietly returned home. Next morning his servant went to his room at an early hour, and informed him that a lady wished to speak to him. Lord Gray decided that she should be shown into his drawing room. "My Lord," said his visitor, "you dropped your pocket book; I bring it back to you." The voice was sweet and low, but so closely was the lady veiled, it was impossible to guess her age or appearance. "Madam," replied Lord Gray, "you have rendered me a service for which I heartily thank you. Allow me to ask if I may venture to offer you some remuneration of my gratitude." The lady then hesitatingly confessed that she had recently lost her husband, whose death had left her the charge of three little children, and that so utter was her destitution she had actually been tempted to keep the pocket book. Lord Gray returned it to her, merely saying: "You are my creditor—you or your children will repay me later." Lord Gray received a visitor five years after this scene occurred, who appeared a total stranger to him. It was a lady. She handed him a velvet portfolio, on which his cypher and coronet were embroidered in gold; within lay forty notes of 1,000 francs each. "You will allow me to retain the old purse in memory of your magnificent generosity," she remarked.

AN ARTIFICIAL HORSE.—At the Paris Exposition it is said that a novelty will be on exhibition, in the shape of an artificial horse. The ingeniously constructed animal, when ready for the road, will travel twenty-five miles without stopping, and afterwards may be wound up in a few moments so as to go as much faster, and so on indefinitely. A horse like this must be a valuable acquisition, provided it can be bought as cheaply as the noble animal of which it is a copy.

MEDICAL PREPARATIONS. POLAND'S Magic Bilious Powders. This Preparation is the discovery of Rev. J. W. Poland, formerly Pastor of the Baptist Church in Goldtown, N. H.—a man dearly beloved by that denomination throughout N. England. He was obliged to leave the pulpit and study medicine to save his own life, and his Magic Powders are one of the most wonderful discoveries of modern times. It is the GREAT LIVER and BILIOUS REMEDY, which completely throws in the shade all other discoveries in medicine, and it affords him much gratification that they receive the unanimous approbation of all who have tested them. The Magic Bilious Powders are a POSITIVE CURE FOR LIVER COMPLAINT in its most aggravated form, and an immediate corrector of all BILIOUS DERANGEMENTS. Excellent for Headache, Constipation, Flatulence, Blotches on the Skin, Drowsiness, Dizziness, Palpitation, Heartburn, and a most wonderful Cure and Preventative of Fever & Ague. (We advise all who are troubled with this fearful malady to always keep the Powders on hand ready for immediate use.) There are a few important particulars to be noted: 1st. They are the great specific for Bilious Affections. 2d. They are the only known remedies that will cure Liver Complaints. 3d. They are the only known remedy that will cure Constipation. 4th. The Powders are so thorough in their operation that one package will be all that the majority of those using them will require to effect a cure. 5th. They are a mild and pleasant yet the most efficient cathartic known. 6th. They are the cheapest and best medicine a patient can use, as they can be sent by mail to any part of the globe for the price, 50 cents. Circulars, containing certificates, information, etc., sent to any part of the world free of charge. Sold by all Druggists, or by mail on application to GEO. CLARK & CO., Gen'l Agents, Price, 50 Cts. per Box, New Haven, Conn.

$100 REWARD. For a medicine that will cure COUGHS, INFLUENZA, TICKLING IN THROAT, WHOOPING COUGH, or relieve CONSUMPTIVE COUGHS. AS QUICK AS COE'S COUGH BALSAM. OVER ONE MILLION BOTTLES have been sold, and not a single instance of the failure is known. We have in our possession any quantity of Certificates, some of them from EMINENT PHYSICIANS who have used it in their practice, and given it the pre-eminence over all other compounds. IT DOES NOT DRY UP A COUGH. It enables the patient to expectorate freely. Two or three doses will invariably cure coughing in the evening. A half bottle has often completely cured the most stubborn Cough, and yet, though it is so sure and speedy in its operation, it is perfectly harmless, being purely vegetable. It is very agreeable to the taste, and may be administered to children of any age. In cases of Croup, too, will guarantee a cure, if taken in season. It is a safe and reliable remedy, and should be without fail in the reach of all, it being the best medicine extant. GEO. CLARK & CO., Proprietors, New Haven, Conn.
