Original Poetry. AN INCIDENT OF THE FLIGHT INTO EGYPT.

BY LINNET. There is a sweet tradition Of the Mother and the Child, Who, with Joseph, fled to Egypt, From their native land called.

When they fled across the desert, Joseph and his Jewish bride, With a God for their companion And an angel for their guide, Night fell round them, and the shelter Of a dark and lowly cave.

When she washed her babe in water From a stream that flowed near by, The poor mother of the leper Took the same, she scarce knew why.

Mary lays her hand in blessing On the soft and rosy brow, And with keen, prophetic vision, Sees the form, so lovely now.

THE GREAT BALL MATCH.—O'PAKE YEETS' CHAD—STUNNING PLAY—BRILLIANT BATTING, FRANTIC FIELDING, AND A REMARKABLE CONCLUSION.—THE O'PAKES THE VICTORS.—UNPRECEDENTED SCORE.

DEAR EAGLE: The great Base Ball Match which I referred to last week has been played. It was between the first (and only) nine of the O'Pake club, and the Chad club.

USE THE BEST.—Blades' Euphonia Laxative is a medical preparation in the form of a Lozange, and is universally considered the most pleasant, convenient and effectual remedy in use for Hoarseness, Coughs, Colds, Croup, Catarrh, Asthma, Bronchitis, Diphtheria, and all Pulmonary Complaints.

Blades' Constitution Pills are so called because of their peculiar effect upon the Liver, Stomach, Blood and Nervous System. For inactivity of the Liver, for the Stomach in derangement, or Dyspepsia, they will delight the patient with their mild and beneficial effect.

Original Poetry. THE QUEER SKELETON.

I announce myself to the reader as the man who believes in ghosts—perhaps, at any rate, I believe in my father, and he believed in the story I am about to relate.

REMARKABLE SUPERSTITION.

The Monongahela Republican has the following: Not long ago the young and beautiful wife of one of our citizens was called to her final account, leaving her husband inconsolable, sad, bereft.

THE LITTLE BOY'S REBUKE.

There was once a very old man who lived in the house of his son. The old man was deaf; his eyes were dim, and his legs weak and thin.
