VALUABLE RECIPES.

BEEFSTEAK PIE.—Cover the bottom of a deep plate with paste. Cut the beef into pieces convenient for the mouth; spread them evenly over the paste; then add butter, flour, pepper, salt, and water; cover with paste, press the edges firmly, and cut a gash in the centre of the pie. It is good cold or hot. If to be used cold make a gravy by boiling a bit of the bone, seasoning it the same as the pie; heat the gravy and serve it with the pie. Potatoes are all the vegetables needed—they should be mashed. These pies can be made from cold beefsteak left the day before, but are not quite as good. It is an important fact that, if meat-pie is made without a hole in the crust, to let out certain emanations from the meat, colic, vomiting, and other symptoms of slight poisoning, will occur.

TO KEEP CIDER SWEET.—The Utica Herald states that A. G. Williams, of Hampton, Oneida county, has a method of keeping cider worthy of being generally known: Allow the cider to work until it has reached the state most desirable to the taste, then add grated horse-radish in the proportion of a tumbler and a half to the barrel of cider, and shake up well. This arrests further fermentation, and, after remaining a few weeks, may be racked off in clean casks, and the air excluded by closing the bung. Cider preserved in this way has a pleasant, agreeable flavor.

SUPERIOR CORN BREAD OR CAKES—Made without eggs or milk. Take three cups of corn meal, one and a half cup wheat flour, three-fourths cup lard, three-fourths cup brown sugar, four teaspoons baking powder, one teaspoon salt and water enough to mix a batter that will pour. Bake with a quick fire in a pound cake dish, three-fourths of an hour, or in a bread pan one or two inches deep, or as griddle cakes. It makes a good pudding with dip. Try it.

TO BEAUTIFY THE TEETH.—Dissolve two ounces of borax in three pounds of boiling water, and before it is cold add one teaspoonful of spirits of camphor, and bottle for use. A teaspoonful of this mixture, mixed with an equal quantity of tepid water, and applied daily with a soft brush, preserves and beautifies the teeth, extirpates all tartarous adhesion, arrests decay, induces a healthy action of the gums, and makes the teeth pearly white.

CURE FOR BURNS.—It is said that it a piece of charcoal is laid upon a burn the pain subsides immediately. By leaving the charcoal on one hour, the burn is healed, as has been demonstrated on several occasions. This remedy is cheap and simple, and certainly deserves a trial.

NO DYST.—The Niles (Mich.) Sentinel-on-the-Border relates the following good one:

"Beneath, around, before and behind our office—all about in the neighborhood—there are, or have been, a variety of independent institutions, one of which was a dye shop, and while we have no earthly connection with, or knowledge of, any such business, we are nevertheless expected, if not absolutely to manage it for the proprietor, at least, to answer all important questions of his customers. A day or two since, while engaged dashing down a string of alliteral adjectives qualifying a bad case of Black Republicanism, a lady walked in, and, leaning her elbow on the counter, beckoned to us, and whispered cautiously in our astonished and disgusted ear, the following blood-harrowing inquiry: 'Sir, can you dye a white skirt red?' Great heavens! thought we, what a blessing to our chocked feelings that the widow we board with and support did not hear it! The idea of the sober Border Ruffian leaning over a dye tub, or in any other manner, coloring a shirt, or any other garment, red, or any other color! Whew; 'No, madam! no!' we snappishly retorted, 'we are no dyist! This is a newspaper and job printing office! Don't you see the sign?' 'Well,' she thoughtfully drawled out, 'one of them reads Sentimental-on-the-Border, and I thought if you could make it sentimental on the Border, you could make it red all over!' Great God, from such an incorrigible old Mother Goose we could do no less for liberty than rush off and leave her in full possession of the 'Sentimental' office."

A SHABBY LOVER.—It used to be the fashion for all the folks in the neighborhood of new London, Conn., to go to town and see the annual examination of the schools. One fellow brought his girl along with him in a wagon; but when time for dinner came, instead of going with her to the hotel, as the others did, he went to a shed where his horse was hitched, and took out a pumpkin pie. "Come here, Cecilia," says he to his girl, "let's have dinner. Fact is, they do charge so monstrous high to the hotel, that I don't feel like submittin' to their extortion. I guess we kin make as good a meal as we want to out here." Cecilia, having no other resource, assisted her beau in his practical protest against hotel extortions, and swallowed her share of his frugal lunch with the best grace she could command. After the examination was over, they drove home. There was a toll-gate on the way, and, as they came near it, her prudent lover turned to her and said: "Now, Cecilia, you know we mayn't be married arter all, and as I paid the toll one way, I don't consider it no more than fair that you should pay it the other!" The poor girl paid the toll, but she never allowed him to pay his addresses to her again.

THE BASE BALL FEVER is widely spread. A little six-year-old was sitting in repose upon the parlor steps, with a base ball in his hand, gazing intently at the moon. "Pa," he suddenly spoke, "is there only one man in the moon?" "That's the tradition, my son; the man in the moon was the only inhabitant of that bright world we have ever heard of." After a moment's pause he remarked, with a sigh—"He must be lonesome, pa, and no one to play base ball with!"

Lincoln's Wardrobe.--Further Revelations.

[From the N. Y. World of Saturday.]

The exclusive publication in Saturday's World of Mrs. Lincoln's correspondence with her agent in this city in regard to the sale of her wardrobe, has created a great flutter in circles fashionable as well as political. Yesterday the rooms of Mr. Leslie, 609 Breadway, were filled nearly all day by ladies and gentlemen, who came to look at goods displayed for sale under such unfortunate circumstances. Few people could hardly reconcile the unquestionable accuracy of the World with the actual state of facts, and hundreds came away. Ample missions of inquiry to go away satisfied that there was more truth than fiction in the statement. During the day several United States Senators, whose names by request we withold, called on Mr. Brady, and on just such a mission. A large number of letters from ladies of the country have also been received by Mr. Brady, asking to know the facts, and making indignant protests against permitting a forced consummation of Mrs. Lincoln's plans.

The sales yesterday did not exceed $2,000, notwithstanding the large number of ladies that called. Many no doubt were prompted by curiosity, and after examining the goods to their satisfaction, left without purchasing. Among those who called were the wives and daughters of several prominent merchants.

As previously announced, if the greater portion of the inventory is not disposed of in a few days they will be put up at auction, and sold for what they will bring.

MR. THURLOW WEED HAS TO SAY—FURTHER REVELATIONS.

[From the Commercial Advertiser, Oct. 4.]

We have never approached a question with half the sorrow that this one awakens.

To vindicate, shield, and protect "Heaven's best gift to man" is a grateful task, while to even reprove, and much more to assail a woman, is painful and if not without a perfect justification, unmanly.

TICKLING IN THROAT,
WHOOPING COUGH

or relieve CONSUMPTIVE COUGHS,

AS QUICK AS

COE'S COUGH BALSAM

OVER ONE MILLION BOTTLES have been sold, and not a single instance of its failure is known. We have in our possession any quantity of Certificates, some of them from EMINENT PHYSICIANS who have used it in their practice, and give the pre-eminence over all other compounds.

IT DOES NOT DRY UP A COUGH

BUT LOOSENS IT,

so as to enable the patient to expectorate freely. Two or three doses will invariably CURE TICKLING IN THE THROAT. A half bottle has often completely cured the worst Stubborn Cough, and yet, though it is as sure and speedy in its operation, it is perfectly harmless, being purely vegetable. It is very agreeable to the taste, and may be administered to children of any age.

In cases of Croupwe will guarantee a cure if taken in season.

No Family should be without it.

It is within the reach of all, it being the cheapest and best medicine extant.

COE'S DYSPEPSIA CURE!

This great remedy for all DISEASES OF THE STOMACH is the discovery of the inventor of Coe's valuable Cough Balsam, while experimenting for his own health. It cured Cramp in the Stomach for him which had before yielded to nothing but chloroform.

The almost daily testimony from various parts of the country encourage us to believe there is no disease caused by a disordered stomach it will not speedily cure. Physicians endorse and use it. Ministers give testimony of its efficacy; and from all directions we receive tidings of cures performed.

Dyspepsia it is sure to cure. Headache, one dose will cure. Sick Headache it has cured in hundreds of cases. Headache and Dizziness it stops in thirty minutes. Acidity of the Stomach it corrects at once. Rising of the Food it stops immediately. Distress after Eating one dose will remove. Chills and Morbus rapidly yields to a few doses. Bad Breath will be changed with each dose.

IT IS PERFECTLY HARMLESS!

Its unprecedented success is owing to the fact that it cures by assisting Nature to assert her sway in the system.

Nearly every dealer in the United States sells it at ONE DOLLAR PER BOTTLE.
