Republican National Nominations.

FOR PRESIDENT, RUTHERFORD B. HAYES, of Ohio.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT, WILLIAM A. WHEELER, of New York.

FOR CONGRESS, DAVID J. WALLER, of Columbia Co.

Pennsylvania Electoral Ticket.

ELECTORS AT LARGE.

BENJAMIN H. BREWSTER,

Of Philadelphia.

JOHN CHALFANT,

Of Allegheny.

DISTRICT ELECTORS.

- 1. John Welsh. 2. Henry Diston. 3. Chris. J. Hoffman. 4. Chas. T. Jones. 5. Edwin H. Fidler. 6. J. W. Banard. 7. Benj. Smith. 8. Jacob Knabb. 9. John B. Warfel. 10. Jos. Thomas. 11. Ario Pardee. 12. Lewis Pugh. 13. Ed. S. Silliman. 14. William Calder. 15. Miles L. Tracy. 16. S. W. Starkweather. 17. Daniel J. Morrel. 18. Jeremiah Lyons. 19. William Hay. 20. Wm. Cameron. 21. J. B. Doney. 22. Daniel O'Neil. 23. William Nebb. 24. Andrew B. Berger. 25. Samuel M. Jackson. 26. Jas. Westerman. 27. W. W. Wilbur.

David J. Waller, of Columbia county, a brother of C. P. and G. G. Waller, of Honesdale, has been nominated for Congress by the Republicans of the Eleventh district (Columbia, Carbon, Montour, Monroe, Pike and part of Luzerne). The district is nearly three to one Democratic.

Why Tilden and the Ought-to-Reform Democracy should be defeated.

1st.—Before the rebellion it used its influence for the propagation of the secession States' Rights Doctrine, which Gen. Jackson made infamous.

2nd.—Before the War it was controlled by the same persons who became the leaders of the rebellion.

3d.—During the entire war the sympathies of a great majority of the Northern leaders were in favor of the South.

4th.—To-day its policy is shaped by the same men who rebelled in 1861.

5th.—Its whole influence during the reconstruction period has been used in favor of the ex- Rebels.

6th.—It has kept alive the prejudices caused by the war, and has encouraged the persecution of our negro citizens.

7th.—It is the secret and open enemy of our free schools, and in many States has openly allied itself with the Roman Catholic Church and demands that a portion of the school funds should be set apart for the support of Catholic Schools, in opposition to non-sectarian schools.

8th.—It is judged by the promises of its leaders and sympathies of its followers to the payment of losses caused by the War to rebel property amounting to over two billion of dollars.

9th.—Its coming into power would be a signal for ex-Confederate raids upon the Treasury such as would add to our public debt, depreciate our currency, destroy our credit and bankrupt our nation.

10th.—It has shown its unfitness to govern the Union by nominating Tilden for the Presidency who at the breaking out of the War publicly proclaimed his disapproval of its objects, and during its progress secretly favored the Confederates, and at Chicago in 1864 signed a resolution declaring the War for the Union a failure.

FOR CONGRESS.

Not our distinguished neighbor over the way, the Hon. Amundus Orevus Greenwald, that we earnestly hoped to be called upon to support, but that "Same old Coon" Frank Collins, with his cash, his check, and his ways that are strong and tricks that are vain, that we are called upon to oppose. We did not venture into the contest for our esteemed friend over the way, because we saw at once, on the assembling of the conference that Collins had palmed all the trump cards, and with his "bar!" of money was sure to win.

The effect of the nomination upon the Democracy hereabouts, was if possible worse than a wet blanket upon a sick dog—so bad that not one of the unhappy family has been heard to cry "reform" since the nomination was made. The Hon. Amundus looked both mad and bad, Captain Brockway went home to Columbia county terribly muddled in the upper story, and our pussy friend Klotz retired to the wilds of Carbon so tired and sick that the mention of Congress was studiously avoided in his presence lest it might produce the most serious consequence. There is some talk of a bolt and endeavor to butt Collins off the bridge with Klotz as the butter, but mature reflection and Frank to pay reasonable expenses incurred will head all that, and the antagonists of to-day, filled with gall and wormwood towards each other, will to-morrow be found hugging and supporting Collins like the Democratic men and brethren that they are.

And now the query arises in view of the many rumors about here, what did the nomination cost Mr. Collins? Rumor has it that at least $2,100 fell to Pike county, that $1,900 stuck to the fingers of a Monroe county man and that, as Montour was quiet, no small load of Greerbacks burdened the return home of her delegation. Carbon got nothing of course, while the ranting denunciation of Columbia is pretty sure evidence that she went home sore headed because of her defeat, and mad because the Collins greerbacks were exalted before they reached the palms of her virtuous sons.

It was a heavy conference from the beginning, but it was the natural product of a Democracy which bends the knee with fawning to the corrupt Democracy of Luzerne.

Nineteen marriages have taken place within the last two weeks, while others are talked of as being ripe for the near future. The clergy seem to wear a benignant smile at the faithful members of their flocks thus obeying the scriptural injunction which requires that they should leave father and mother and cleave unto each other, thus making the strange arithmetic read—twice one is one, the product of which is more.

On the 6th of this month while two children of Wm. Arnold, who lives near Bartonville, this county, were out playing, the little boy accidentally cut his sisters right forefinger nearly off. The wound was carefully attended to but it would not heal which necessitated amputation. The operation was performed by Dr. N. C. Miller. The child is but 4 years old and we learn is doing well.

The Beethoven Band gave a grand complimentary hop to those who have heretofore patronized them, at Williams' Hall, on Thursday evening last. The hall was more thoroughly filled than at any previous hop, and every thing passed off most pleasantly. The music furnished by Messrs. Miller, Bennett, Smith, Wolfe, Keiser and Keller was rendered in unexceptionable style, and contributed no small share towards the pleasures of the evening.

They were Scranton ladies, and they were young and beautiful, gentle yet gushing. A dashing young barber hereabouts so filled the measure of their young love eyes that they declared they would like to give him a shaking up. What a pity they did not do it. "Tempus fugit," says the proverb, and events follow each other in rapid succession; and if Madame Rumor is to be relied on, ere the opportunity is again desired, another will stand as a bulwark around the barber, and they be compelled to shake two instead of one, which may prove altogether unpleasant.

Personal.

Joseph C. Dean, of Scranton, is visiting his father, Wm. Dean.

The Rev. Dr. Carrow preached a very interesting sermon on last Sunday evening.

Mr. Theodore Pratt, of Jersey City, N. J., and Charles Kern, of Wilkes barre, are here on a visiting and hunting expedition.

Mr. William Hollinshead, our well known druggist, who has been suffering for some time from dropsy, we regret to learn is now confined to his house.

Mrs. Hiram Lash and child and Mrs. A. Marsh, former residents of this place and county, now of Westport, Carbon county, are here visiting their friends.

John Henry Williams, colored, who fell from the top seat in Van Munguel's Circus, on Monday a week ago, an account of which we published, died from the injuries received on Thursday afternoon last.

Mr. Thomas Vickery, at one time a law student of Hon. Wm. Davis of this place, was home a few days last week visiting his mother, Mrs. M. E. Shay. He is now practicing law in New York city.

Linford Marsh and wife, Wm. Ackerman, Jere. Kresge, Geo. L. Decher, Charles P. Yetter, Levi Mering, Wm. Dunfield and a number of the employees of the Taithe Co., left town on Monday for the Centennial.

Miss Alice Schoonover, while coming down stairs, after attending the hop at Williams' Hall, on Thursday evening last, slipped and seriously sprained one of her ankles. Dr. Cloud, who was accompanying her at the time of the accident attended to the necessities of the case. We hope soon to see her entirely recovered.

REPUUDIATING THE PERJURER.

The Ithaca Journal of Friday contains the following: "There is Democratic rebellion all around the board. Up in Oswego County Hon. A. S. Page, Mayor Poucher, Delos De Wolf, F. B. Smith, and a host of prominent Democrats are openly opposing Tilden, and they denounce him in the bitterest terms. Albany supplicants Oswego, and the Cornings, Prunys, Parkers, Vosburgs, and Schuylers, led by the Albany Evening Times, an influential Democratic daily declare that this 'reformer' is a fraud upon the party and a knave generally. In this section Hon. George J. Magee, E. P. Hart, and Ausubus Birdsall have deserted him, and hundreds of honest Democrats will silently vote against Tilden because of his disloyalty during the war, his defrauding the Government on his income returns, his operations at Brady's Bend, his sheep-plaster swindles in Michigan, and his 'railroad wrecking everywhere.'"

OCTOBER ELECTIONS.

Ohio Republican—But Indiana Democratic. State elections held resulted as follows, in Ohio, Indiana and West Virginia, Ohio has elected the Republican State ticket by 10,000 majority, except Barnes for Secretary of State, his majority is about 7000. The Republicans have also elected as least 13 of the 20 members of Congress, a clear gain of four.

In Indiana Williams (Dem.) has been elected Governor by a majority that will probably settle down at about 5000. The Republicans more than offset this by electing nine of the thirteen Congressmen—a clear gain of five—and by securing a majority in the State Legislature.

West Virginia has elected a Democratic Governor by about 6900 majority, and a Democratic Legislature—just what she had before.

A Russo-Dutch Memnonite advertises in a Kansas paper for 25,000 acres of contiguous, uncultivated land in the far West.

The Republican Meeting.

A very able address was delivered in the Court House on Saturday evening last by the Hon. De Witt Sprague, of New York city. The speech occupied in delivery an hour and a half and was listened to by a large audience to the end with interest. A word as to the speaker. He is a lawyer by profession and is engaged in the law business with ex-Judge Joachimson at 239 Broadway, N. Y. In the early days of the rebellion when a student at college he enlisted and took part in the first Bull Run fight, where he was wounded and taken prisoner and became a boarder at Libby's prison for a short season. He subsequently enlisted a company of which he was elected Captain and was in the Fredericksburg battle, where his company was badly cut up and himself received four wounds which have caused him much pain and made several surgical operations necessary, but notwithstanding all this he has a better physique than one out of a thousand copperheads who dexterously avoided the smell of gun powder while our nation was suffering for want of their help. The speaker also acted at one time as ex-Gov. Buckingham's private secretary, and was subsequently made consul to Germany and was afterwards promoted to the consularship of Italy. His wounds give him a right to speak for his country, such as no ex-Rebel Democrat or Copperhead can claim.

The speaker first passed in review the history of the Democratic party, and, after he had shown that the Southern portion of that party rebelled against its country and fought for four years to destroy the Union, and during all this time received the active sympathy of a great portion of the leaders of the Northern Democracy, he then inquired whether it would be wise and statesman-like to hand the Government over to their care. In this connection he inquired where were Gov. Tilden and Gov. Hayes when our country was trembling in the balance? In answer he showed that while Tilden was actively engaged in scattering copperhead doctrine and refusing to have anything to do with Union meetings the object of which was to foster and arouse a patriotic spirit in the breasts of all good citizens, Gov. Hayes was down South scattering bullets and shedding his blood in order that his country might live. Was it a difficult matter for good intelligent citizens to make a choice?

Tilden was never heard from on reform until long after O'Brien betrayed Tweed to the New York Times and when it had become certain that Tweed must fall, then Tilden began to help put him down. While before that time they were fellow political workers.

Who have stolen money from the people? Tweed and his fellow Democrats of New York city alone have stolen far more money than has been lost under all the Republican national administrations for the last sixteen years. And Tilden under oath acknowledged that Tweed on one occasion gave him as chairman of the State Democratic Committee $5,000 for election purposes.

Who demand a change in the management of the government? Why every ex-Rebel, every scoundrel who wishes to get his hands on the public money, and some of those who are ignorant enough to charge the hard times on Grant and the Republican party. These are men who hold in their hands a change.

Who fear a change most? Why our most solid and substantial business men; those who hold bonds against the government; as well as our most patriotic and intelligent citizens.

The contemptible demagogic cry that Grant made the hard times was fully and completely answered. He stated that Grant had no more to do with the hard times here than he had to do with the hard times in England, France, Austria, Germany, Italy and throughout all Europe. Commercial crises come periodically all over the world, and in the nature of things, cannot be avoided. They are sometimes caused by one thing and sometimes by another. The present crisis is caused by over supply of manufactured articles, caused mainly by the greatly improved machinery and facilities for manufacturing almost every thing made within the last fifteen years. But the law of supply and demand would soon cure the hard time. If Grant and the Republicans could make times good they would do it with the utmost pleasure, for we all suffer alike both Republicans and Democrats.

Suppose the ex-Confederates and so called Democrats should come into power and inaugurate the Democratic free trade doctrine, the speaker asked where would our manufacturers and commerce go. They are flat now but would then be utterly destroyed by foreign trade.

The speaker stated that while the constitutional amendment provided that the debt of the confederate government should not be paid by the national government, it was possible for the government to pay for all damages to the ex-Rebels' property of all kinds, except slaves, caused by the invasion of our army, including houses burned, railroads destroyed, cattle, sheep, hogs, chickens, grain, &c., which were taken to feed our army, all these and a hundred other things amounting to more than all our national debt combined, it is probable we would be called upon to pay, if the ex-Rebels and Democracy should get into power. And such a result would utterly destroy our bonded debt and sink us into national bankruptcy. And however much the Northern Democracy might oppose the paying for losses to Rebel property, they would be powerless to prevent it, for from the foundation of our government the Southern Democracy have moved the Northern Democracy to do as they wished.

Our national finances are in a prosperous condition; our war debt is over one quarter paid off, and our greerbacks are approaching the value of gold; and if not disturbed must soon be equal to specie. While Buchanan paid 12 per cent for borrowed money we are finding our bonds at 44 per cent.

In Republican success in the rapidly approaching election, there is safety for all, Democrats and Republicans alike. But if the ex-Rebels and Democrats should succeed and get command of Congress, the prospect would be at best but dark, gloomy, doubtful.

HIS STUMP SPEECH.

From the Chicago Journal. "That shows how I shall vote," said a Union ex-soldier, as he pointed to his armless shoulder, at an Illinois Republican meeting the other night; "against the men who shot that off."

"Yes, yes," cried the audience.

"And that is all the stump speech I can make you," said the veteran, as he climbed down from the stand.
