NEWS FROM WEST SIDE Happenings of a Day That Will Interest Hyde Park Readers.

FUNERAL OF DAVID J. DAVIS Largely Attended by Friends and Comrades of Lieutenant Griffin Post, Grand Army of the Republic. —Arrested for Stealing Timber— Badly Burned by an Explosion.

The West Side office of the SCRANTON TRIBUNE is located at 128 South Main avenue, where subscription advertisements and communications will receive prompt attention.

The funeral of David J. Davis took place yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the family residence on Jackson street, and was largely attended. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. D. P. Jones, pastor of the Tabernacle Congregational church. The Ezra Griffin post, G. A. R., No. 139, of which the deceased was a member, attended in a body sixty strong, and was headed by the Thirtieth regiment drum corps.

The pall bearers were Police Sergeant John Davis, H. D. Jones, John J. Howell, George W. Skidmore, Robert Lyven and Samuel Rodgers. The remains were conveyed to the Forest Hill cemetery, where interment was made. Rev. N. F. Stahl, chaplain of the Grand Army, delivered an eulogy at the grave and spoke in the highest praise of the departed comrade. Three rounds of blank ammunition fired over the grave, with taps on the drum closed the ceremonies.

Deserted His Wife. Mrs. Kate Pennell, a resident of Oxford court, was before Alderman Oram yesterday with a pitiable tale of desertion. She stated that her husband would spend his money on drink when he was working, which was not very often, and still away from home for days at a time. Mrs. Pennell is compelled to obtain a livelihood for herself and four children, ranging from 3 to 12 years. She was given a letter to take to the poor board, where she will receive the support she so badly needs.

Stole His Timber. Thomas Mason and brother George, were arraigned before Alderman Blair of the Fifth ward on charge of P. C. Wickizer, of Newton, who said that they stole timber from his property, by cutting down the large trees that grow there. Constable Timothy Jones was called in such that the men and brought them before the alderman. After hearing they were found guilty, but the case was settled by the young men paying the costs.

Installation of Officers. Timmers' Union, No. 86, installed the following officers last evening: President, J. Devaney; vice-president, Theodore Riel; financial secretary, William Welsh; recording secretary, William Walters.

Burned by Gas. Thomas J. Thomas, of Academy street, an employe of Sand Banks, received a painful injury last evening while at work. Thomas was in a chamber with a naked lamp. The gas in the air ignited and he was badly burned about the hands and face. He was removed to his home and medical aid summoned to dress his injuries. He is a married man with three children.

Sidewalk Needful. The attention of the trustees of the First Welsh Baptist church should be directed to the bad condition of the sidewalk in front of their property on North Garfield avenue, which is at present leased by the school board, and used as a day school, relieving No. 14 of its overcrowded condition. During the wet weather of the past week the children were obliged to wade through mud and ankle deep. A few flag stones at this point would be an advantage felt by all pedestrians.

The Bone Set Wrong. Mrs. Randolph Jones, of Jackson street, who suffered a fracture of the leg five months ago by breaking the bone near the ankle, which was not properly set, left for Philadelphia yesterday morning for the purpose of consulting physicians for treatment. Mrs. Jones has not been able to walk without the aid of crutches since the accident.

Interesting News Notes. Keystone lodge, Royal Knights of America, will hold a social at Messrs' hall this evening.

The Episcopal diocese of central Pennsylvania will hold a winter session of the synod at Scranton in St. David's church on Jackson street, Jan. 15, 16 and 17.

John Stafford, of California, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Adkins, of North Main avenue.

Mrs. H. A. Davies, of Wilkes-Barre, was the guest of friends on this side.

SLED DASHED AGAINST A POLE. But the Boy Escaped Serious Injury by Pure Luck. Charles Decraw, a boy about 15 years of age, residing with his parents at 219 North Ninth street, was slightly injured by the Golden Eagle, of Providence, which was dashing against the pole on West Lackawanna avenue hill yesterday afternoon.

Young Decraw was coasting on the sidewalk and when near Lackawanna avenue and Ninth street sought to steer out of the way of pedestrians. He lost control of the sled and it dashed against a telegraph pole on the corner. The boy was thrown into the road, where he lay unconscious for a time. He was picked up and carried to his home. It was learned after ward that he was only suffering from a several bad bruises.

VERDICT REACHED IN BAIRD CASE. It Was Sealed and Will Be Brought Into Court Today.

The trial of the trespass case of M. M. Baird against Walter B. Curtis was resumed yesterday morning before Judge Gunster. Evidence, showing the ignorance by the grand jury of the charge made against Mr. Baird and the placing of the costs on the prosecutor, Mr. Curtis. The plaintiff rested and Attorney W. S. Dishi opened for the defense.

Attorney W. W. Watson was called to the stand and gave the history of the meeting that took place on Aug. 12, 1889, when the business arrangement between Mr. Baird and Mr. Curtis was terminated. The latter demanded the money taken in by Mr. Baird on Aug. 12, but that gentleman, through his attorney, E. H. Shurtleff, refused to give it up. He said he was entitled to the money received in the store up to the time the agreement concerning the transfer of the stock and business to Curtis & Co. was signed, late on the night of Aug. 12.

On Aug. 13, Mr. Curtis came to witness and wanted to know what could be done to get the money for the sales made on Aug. 12 from Mr. Baird. Witnesses told Mr. Curtis that he might have Mr. Baird arrested for false pretenses and a body suit in front, and was headed by the testimony for the defense, and Mr. Baird and Attorney Shurtleff went on the stand in rebuttal. Closing arguments were made by Attorneys Dishi and Rose, and at 8:30 the case was given to the jury. It agreed after court adjourned and sealed its verdict.

In the interpleader case of Mrs. Sarah Bradley against Crandall & Co., and W. M. Ford against John W. Massey & Son, verdicts were returned for the plaintiffs. The trespass case of Mrs. Ann Manley against John L. Hall was called for trial but on account of the absence of important witnesses it was continued until today. When court adjourned the case of Gilmore & Duffy against O. B. Partridge, garnishee, was on trial. The suit is the outgrowth of trouble arising from the case of Philip Hall, of this city. Attorney James H. Torrey and John P. Albro appear for the plaintiff and Attorney Milo J. Wilson for the defendant.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

"The Limited Mail," which comes to the Academy this evening, is of the comedy drama order, and was written by Elmer E. Vance, a former Columbus telegraph operator, who has utilized his training to introduce many startling and wonderful inventions in stage effects.

A RAILROAD TICKET. The farce comedy, "A Railroad Ticket," will be presented at the Academy tomorrow evening. This excellent play has scored the biggest kind of a hit, wherever presented and will doubtless continue to do so for the roster of the company is an excellent one.

THE TORNAO. The dissecting room scene in Lincoln J. Carter's new play, "The Tornado," which comes to the Academy of Music Saturday evening, is one of the most attractive scenes of the performance. It was this feature of the new play which was availed by Mr. Carter's admirers, with a possible doubt as to his ability to keep it free from gruesome shades, but the production has settled beyond a doubt the complete triumph of the feature.

LADY WINDERMERE'S FAN. Oscar Wilde's famous play, "Lady Windermere's Fan," will be produced at the Academy Monday evening by Charles Frohman's company.

"A Study in Scarlet." MR. AND MRS. DE LACY SURPRISED. Thirty-Fifth Anniversary of Their Marriage Commemorated.

Tuesday was the thirty-fifth anniversary of the marriage of Captain and Mrs. P. DeLacy, and during their absence from their home on Capone avenue that evening it was taken possession of by number of their friends. The worthy couple were completely surprised on returning home.

They were each presented with a handsome plush easy chair and Mrs. DeLacy in addition received a pair of handsome hand-painted banners. The presentation speech was made by Mayor T. V. Fowler, and on the part of Mr. DeLacy was for six years chief of police. He referred in an eloquent manner to the faithful manner in which Mr. DeLacy has performed every duty imposed upon him both in public and private life. An appropriate response was made by Mr. DeLacy.

Attorney C. H. Soper then extended the congratulations of those present and took occasion to pay a deserved tribute to Mr. DeLacy's distinguished military services. Several other members of the company also made addresses. The company was then escorted to the dining room, where a delectable supper was served. The tables were artistically decorated. After supper several hours were passed in social converse and in listening to vocal and instrumental music. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. T. V. Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. LeGrand Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Osbury, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Haas, Mr. and Mrs. John Sanford, Mr. and Mrs. A. Meers, Mr. and Mrs. H. Seeley, Mr. and Mrs. John McLane, Mr. and Mrs. E. Stock, Mr. and Mrs. E. Kresge, Mr. and Mrs. John Peab, Mrs. Charles Baker of Honesdale, Mrs. E. A. Scull, Mrs. Clark, Mrs. James Hicks, Mrs. M. D. Roche, Misses Jennie Burnett, Millie Luthner and M. A. Davies, and John Cooper and Frank Luthner.

LARGE CROWDS AT EDEN MUSEE. The Show Pleases All and Is a Very Taking One. Large crowds continue to patronize the first-class show being given by Manager Jefferson at the Eden Musee this evening. The performance of "Bronco Boocoo" with Wallace, the untamed lion, is one of the greatest wonders seen in this city in some time.

In the theater a first-class variety show is being given. Inez Pearl, the dance artist, and Rice and McFarlane are the cleverest of performers. Davitt and Robinson, two Scranton boys, are staging a clever Irish song and dance sketch.

New Bicycles. A new bicycle worth $75 will be sold for $35. The machine is guaranteed and is a rare bargain. Machine may be seen at the Tribune office.

BUSINESS NOTICES. 33 and 35 Lackawanna Market. Every day from 6 a. m. to 10 p. m. Round steak, 12c.; sirloin steak, 14c.; standing rib roast, 12c.; chuck roast, 8c.; boiling meat, 4c.; fresh pork, 12c.; pork sausage, 12c.

NOTES OF SOUTH SIDE Happenings of a Day That Will Interest Many Tribune Readers.

A GOOD SEASON IS ANTICIPATED Spruks Bros. Receiving Quantities of Lumber—Death of a Pioneer —Funeral of John Boland—A. L. Collins to Read a Paper on "Why Men Don't Go to Church."

Spruks Bros., the lumber dealers, are evidently expecting a brisk season in their line during the year 1894. Carriage and other "unloaded" lumber to their Alder street yard, while a similar condition prevails in the yard at Meadow avenue.

Speaking on the subject yesterday, T. H. Spruks, the senior member of the firm, said: "Everything points to a brisk trade in the building. Not only will there be many new edifices reared, but many persons are contemplating extensions to the homes which they have already erected. Besides, there are very few desirable houses that are vacant, and landlords who expect to derive any revenue from their properties are beginning to realize that only the better class of houses are profitable and they are being governed accordingly."

These words coming from such a source speak well for the future growth of this portion of the city. Mr. Spruks said that the average annual business done in lumber and building is $125,000.

Another Pioneer Gone. One by one the older residents of the city are passing away. The last one being Henry Snyder, of Pittston avenue, who died yesterday morning. Mrs. Snyder came to this city about fifty years ago and had always been an upright and exemplary Christian wife and mother. Death was due to pulmonary troubles. Her husband and son, Joseph Snyder, survive her. The funeral will take place tomorrow morning. Services will be held in St. Mary's Catholic church.

Funeral of John Boland. The remains of John Boland, who was killed in New Jersey Tuesday morning, arrived in this city on the 6 o'clock train last evening and were taken to his home in the Twelfth ward. The funeral will occur tomorrow afternoon. The young man had worked at Sparrow's Point all summer and had been away from home since spring. He was a model young man and was a brother of Patrick Boland, a roll hand at the South works.

Shorter Paragraphs. Circulars soliciting members in a charitable organization known as the Working Boys' Home of Boston, are being circulated by Mrs. Phillip Wren, of Stone avenue. The advantages are purely spiritual. Mr. and Mrs. Robert McCrea and family were in Avoca yesterday attending the funeral of Mrs. McCrea's niece, Forman Andrew White of the William Connell House company has presented the company with a bandonnet framed photograph of Chief Engineer H. F. Ferber.

At a meeting to be held at the Penn Avenue Baptist church on Jan. 15, A. L. Collins, well and favorably known here, will read a paper on "Why Men Don't Go to Church." It will be a fifteen minute paper and cannot fail to prove interesting.

ST. JOSEPH'S SOCIETY OFFICERS. Elected at the Annual Meeting at the Founding Home. At the annual meeting of St. Joseph's society held at the founding home yesterday morning officers for the year were elected.

The officers chosen were: President, Rev. P. J. McMahon; vice president, Mrs. John Burnett; secretary, Mrs. P. J. Horan; financial secretary, Miss Anna Cusick; treasurer, Mrs. F. W. Gunster; directors, Rev. P. J. McMahon, Mrs. P. J. Horan, Mrs. F. W. Gunster, Mrs. Duggan, Mrs. O'Boyle, Mrs. McDonald, Mrs. Gitzgerald, Mrs. McFlaherty, Mrs. Cusick.

"A Study in Scarlet." CONTRACT WAS NOT OBSERVED. Court Is Asked to Compel Jacob Cohen to Live Up to It. Alfred Darie, of Kingston, and Harriet A. Herrig, of Carbondale, yesterday brought a suit in equity against Jacob Cohen to compel him to carry out a contract he entered into on May 13, 1874.

The plaintiffs claimed to own a tract of land located in Fell township. The defendant said he was the owner of an undivided one-half interest in it, and to settle the dispute the plaintiffs and defendant agreed to convey quit claim deeds for certain portions of the land to each other. This was not done by the defendant, hence the action to compel him to do so.

HENRY COMPANY AT WONDERLAND. Pride and Poverty to Be the Bill During the Next Three Days.

The Henry Comedy company is repeating its success of several months ago at Wonderland this week. Miss Staniford, supported as she is by an excellent company, produced "Early Lynn" before the public in a first class style this week.

Today the company will begin to play "Pride and Poverty," which is spoken of very highly. It was written especially for the company by J. H. Slater, who takes one of the leading characters. Miss Staniford is said to be excellent in the part assigned to her.

STOLE MONEY FROM HER BOSOM. That Is the Offense Lizzie Newton Charged George Orle With. George Orle has begun an action against Lizzie Newton, of this city, to recover $1,000 for alleged defamation of character. Mr. Orle's attorneys, Hulslander & Vosburg, yesterday filed the declaration in the case.

Its forth that on Jan. 4 Lizzie Newton, in the presence of divers witnesses, declared that Mr. Orle stole a pocketbook containing $13.37 from her bosom. He denies the theft and says the charge is false and malicious.

The Leader. THE TRIBUNE Encyclopedia Britannica covers every department of knowledge known to mankind. THE TRIBUNE Encyclopedia Britannica is the most complete reference library the world has ever seen.

THE TRIBUNE Encyclopedia Britannica is the highest authority on every subject, being the result of the labors of more than 1,300 scholars, each one a master specialist in his class and a recognized authority on the subject of which he treats. It has been said of the Encyclopedia Britannica that, "If all other books should be destroyed, the Bible excepted, the world would have lost but little of its information."

The president of Yale college has said, "He will defy anyone to buy 3,000 volumes like this, in his class and a recognized authority on the subject of which he treats." The authority of the Encyclopedia Britannica has never been questioned in any court of justice in this country or in Europe. Lawyers take it into court to speak from it or quote it with the same assurance that they would from a law book.

Nowadays everybody is expected to have an Encyclopedia. If you act at once you can get the best in print for a song and sing it yourself. If you would be one of the fortunate who should act at once. Only 10 cents a day, and it means success in life. Call at THE TRIBUNE for sale and rent. Copying work executed. Photographs rented for an evening's entertainment. Telephone 2343. Edw.
