PERSONAL.

Joseph Goldrey was in Wilkes-Barre on business yesterday.

Mrs. C. J. Carver is visiting her parents at New Albany, Pa.

Attorney H. C. Reynolds of Carbonate was in the city yesterday.

F. H. Holbrook and A. L. Patterson, of Carbonate, were at the Forest House yesterday.

John D. Miesler, manager of the Eastern Pennsylvania circuit of shows, was in the city yesterday showing hands with his many Scotch friends.

Ex-Internal Revenue Collector Peeman was presented with a handsome birch-wood pipe yesterday by his late associate in the office. The presentation speech was made by Richard Brantlage.

NORTH END.

The Providence Gas and Water Company has been ripping up West Market street from the corner of Brick avenue to the Welsh Baptist church in search of a leakage in the gas main.

The consumers say that they have to pay for escaping gas. The workmen find it difficult to determine the exact location of the leakage.

Politics in the First ward is assuming a more interesting phase. Mr. Mitchell, the present efficient school controller, is making a progressive canvass.

There is nothing sensational in the political situation in the Second ward.

Wade Egan, the candidate for select committee, and M. V. Morris are prosecuting the canvass with energy and are meeting with promises of support and encouragement all along the line.

An exciting runaway took place on North Main avenue yesterday, when the horse owned by Doctor Keys took flight and throwing the doctor violently against the street, started at a furious pace along North Main avenue toward "Dutch Gap."

The funeral of John Naughton, of Dickson, who was killed a few days by falling the shaft at Storrs' mines, will take place this morning.

Thomas, an infant child of Michael Nary, of Mary street, died yesterday.

The feeling in the North End is strongly in favor of Grow for congressman. He is sure of receiving a large vote in this section.

Dr. Henry Roberts has just returned from Towanda, Bradford county, where he had been for six weeks attending his sick daughter, Mrs. Dr. Guick, formerly of this city.

Mr. Watkins, of Carbonate, has purchased the business of Mr. Armstrong on Wayne avenue.

An entertainment and poetry party will be given at the North Main avenue Methodist church tomorrow evening.

The articles of incorporation were artistically typewritten by Samuel Pettit.

A MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE. It is believed that Thomas Thomas Has Been Foully Dealt With.

Thomas Thomas, a miner, employed at the Pine Brook shaft, has disappeared from his boarding place and his friends fear that he is the victim of foul play.

Mr. Thomas came here a short time ago from Stockton, O., where he has a wife and four children. He engaged board with his mother on Luzerne street and remained at her house until Sunday.

About noon he left home for a stroll and has not been seen or heard from since. No cause for his absence can be assigned and his mother fears that he has been foully dealt with.

At the Academy of Music on Saturday will be Katie Emmett in "Killarney." The piece has won prizes from press and public everywhere and without doubt is an Irish play of exceptional merit.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

Agnes Herndon will present "La Belle Marie" at the Academy of Music this evening. It is said to be brimful of good things. Every other line is a laugh, and the dialogue is bright and sparkling, while the situations are telling and unusually strong. There is not a dull moment from the opening to the closing line.
