A further extension of time until Monday, March 20, was granted by the court yesterday in the Alderman C. M. DeLong attachment proceedings. The Lackawanna Bar association has fixed April 13 as the date for the annual banquet, which will be held in the main corridor of the court house. LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

[Under this heading short letters of interest will be published when accompanied, for publication, by the writer's name. The Tribune will not be held responsible for opinions here expressed.] License Application Opposed. Editor of the SCRANTON TRIBUNE: Dear Sir—We find in the list of applications for licenses in the City of Scranton, a notice of an application for license for 1762 Washburn street, which we believe to be a new application, this house having been occupied as a store ever since it has been built. Within fifty yards of this is an old established hotel, and forty yards further a restaurant of many years' standing, both of which are an annoyance to many who have to travel by their doors many times during the week, and we would without any other argument, submit the authorities of our city, and also to the honorable judges who have the power of granting these licenses, whether or not in their judgment two saloons are not ample and sufficient to supply the wants of those who are in the immediate vicinity of these houses, the latter being such a short distance away. The neighborhood is not so densely populated, one side of the street being merely an open space for the entire length of the blocks in which these three houses are situated. Surely these two can supply all their wants. Our ignorance of the rules governing remonstrances has deprived us of the opportunity of presenting such, but should this have been attended to, no doubt a large majority of the citizens in that neighborhood would have been glad of the opportunity to sign a remonstrance against granting a license for this house, and it is to be hoped that this means of communicating our ideas will reach the eyes of those who are in authority and that they will weigh the matter carefully and conscientiously. We hope this may be the means of convincing our honorable judges that there is no need of any more saloons on Washburn street, and that they will be determined to reduce the number of saloons in the city rather than to increase them. Scranton, Pa., March 12. BEZALEL DAVIES.

A VERY ENJOYABLE CONCERT

Given at Plymouth Congregational Church by Lovett's Boston Stars, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Reinhart Celebrate Their Wedding Anniversary at St. David's Hall—Interesting Talk on Raphael—Dannie Reese Honored.

[The West Side office of the SCRANTON TRIBUNE is located at 123 South Main avenue, where subscriptions, advertisements and communications will receive prompt attention.] A large and appreciative audience greeted Lovett's Boston Stars at the new Plymouth Congregational church last evening. The newly furnished auditorium was beautifully decorated with white walls and floral decorations.

Miss K. K. Cawley Buried. The funeral of Miss K. K. Cawley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Cawley of Van Buren avenue, took place yesterday morning from the family residence at 933 O'Connell. A large number of the young lady's friends gathered at the home and viewed the remains for the last time.

A Wedding Anniversary. St. David's hall, on North Main avenue, which has just been renovated, presented a brilliant scene last evening. The occasion was the seventh anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Reinhart, of North Hyatt Park avenue. The evening was spent in an enjoyable manner. Over 100 guests were present, and dancing and speeches were the principal features. Refreshments were served at a late hour.

Mrs. L. L. Heath, daughter of Dr. W. H. Heath, of Scranton street, gave an interesting talk last evening on "Raphael," the great Italian painter, and also exhibited forty illustrations of his works at the home of Dr. H. H. Gibbs, on South Main avenue. The attendance was quite large and the work of the talented young lady was much appreciated by those present. A social followed.

An Evening Party. A very pleasant surprise party was given last evening in honor of Dannie Reese at his home, 141 South Fillmore avenue. A very enjoyable evening was spent. Games and music were the principal features and were kept up for many hours. Refreshments were served at midnight.

AMUSEMENT NOTES.

Barney Ferguson and "McCarthy's Mishap" will be at the Academy of Music Thursday evening and no doubt be greeted by a large audience. It has been here many times, and each time has proved a more meritorious performance. The players are always talented and the audience is always here.

MAYO AS DAVEY CROCKETT. Of Frank Mayo's impersonation of "Davey Crockett," which will be seen at the Academy Friday night, the Detroit Free Press says: "Mr. Mayo is the ideal backwoodsman—a hero in buckskins. He is commanding in stature, an Apollo in appearance, strong as Hercules and as tender as a woman; a face that for mainly beauty is not surpassed, and an eye that can flash like lightning, or molting in softness can look deepest love into a woman's eyes. All this, with a voice sweetly musical, or loud in clear, ringing tones that thrill, makes him the very dream of the dramatist who has lined the beautifully poetic character which is so well idealized in Mr. Mayo."

NORTH END.

Yesterday's search for the body of Miss Bridget White was fruitless. Mr. Kennedy, her employer, had been searching along the Lackawanna but could find nothing to indicate that she had been drowned. Sunday evening she performed the usual household work and appeared to be in as good spirits. She has always been of a melancholy turn of mind and her despondency aroused no suspicions in the minds of the people she lived with until the letter which she left was found soon after her disappearance. The letter showed abstraction and mental derision. The idea was attempted to arrange her affairs, giving what money she possessed to her friends and providing for her burial. Lately she has worried about a sister who was out west. She has been in the employ of Mr. Kennedy several years, but was previously that in the Danville insane asylum. Miss White's character as a faithful domestic was excellent, and her relationship with the family of her employer of the pleasant kind.

Wedding Cards Are Out. Very pretty wedding cards are out announcing the marriage of Rosa, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Hall, to Henry Sonntag, of South Washington avenue. The ceremony will take place on April 18, at 4 p. m., at the family residence, 1208 Cedar avenue. In the evening a reception will be held at Schimpff's hall on Cedar avenue. A hundred invitations have been sent out to the friends of the young couple.

Roberts of the Road Growing Bolder. Something must be done soon to rout the tramps stationed in a shanty near "Miller's field." It is not unusual for one of their number to announce himself at a kitchen door and in a very peremptory manner ask for food. Women are afraid to refuse them, even when they ask for money.

Personals. John Killeculen, of South Washington, will return this afternoon from a business trip to New York. Miss B. A. Melroy, of Cherry street, left yesterday for Rochester on a business trip in the interest of Haalacher's millinery store. She will be absent two weeks.

Shorter Paragraphs. Thomas J. Moore, treasurer of the P. S. Sheridan Motor and Boat association, has the subscription books on hand and will distribute them in a few days. Amounts to suit the means of the donor will be cheerfully taken, no matter how small the contribution may be.

DR. PEARCE'S VACATION. He Will Not Take a Needed Rest Until After Conference. Contrary to announcements made, Rev. W. H. Pearce, D. D., of the Elm Park Methodist Episcopal church, will not immediately leave on his vacation, which is now near its close. At a meeting recently held by the official board of the church it was decided to prefer Dr. Pearce a vacation, owing to the strain he has been subjected to in the last two years.

CURIOS OF STATE NEWS. In order to entertain the rural attendance at the instigation of Mrs. Anne Taylor baked 699 pies, roasted two calves and half an ox. All was eaten.

Has Been Badly Discomforted. Congressman Wilson, who has been seriously ill, will, it is announced, "soon be himself again." His ailment, which has made the whole country ill, was probably aggravated by its author when it comes out of the season. It will never be "itself again."

Lehigh Valley Railroad Company. Announce, commencing March 12, their dining car on the European plan will run on train leaving Easton 10:30 a. m., arriving at Wilkes-Barre 1:35 p. m., and train leaving Wilkes-Barre 8:45 p. m., arriving at Easton 7:40 p. m., instead of between Jersey City and Wilkes-Barre, as heretofore. And train 20 leaving Wilkes-Barre 8:05 a. m., and train 29 leaving New York 4:10 p. m., will now carry Pullman Buffet Parlor cars between Wilkes-Barre and New York. The rates are very nominal, as between New York and Catskills seem to be only 25 cents; between New York and March Chant, 50 cents, and between New York and Wilkes-Barre, 75 cents.

KILLED UNDER WHEELS OF A CAR

Patrick Reilly, a brakeman at the South Works, Crushed to Death A Lady Loses Her Pocketbook but Has It Restored—Tramps Growing Pesticiferous—Approaching Marriage—Personals and News Notes.

Patrick Reilly, aged 17 years, a son of Edward Reilly, of 1811 Pittation avenue, was crushed under a car yesterday at twenty minutes to 1 o'clock, and the life was squeezed out of him. Young Reilly was employed as a brakeman on one of the small engines at the South works of the Lackawanna Iron and Steel company. The engine was pushing a trip of cars loaded with lumber out to the ender dump along the Lackawanna River near Central Park gardens. He was riding on the front car of the trip, and in attempting to get off, his clothing caught in a bolt, and he was pitched under the first car. One wheel passed over his body near the hip. When assistance reached him he was dead. The casualty was purely accidental. Announcement of the funeral will be made tomorrow. Coroner Kelly investigated the accident, but decided that an inquest was unnecessary.

Motorman Gallagher's Honesty. Motorman Thomas J. Gallagher, of the South Side line, was the principal character in a story that occurred on his car yesterday morning on one of its outward trips. Two young ladies got on the car on Lackawanna avenue and one of them in pulling out her handkerchief unwittingly pulled out her pocket book and it dropped on the floor of the car. She got off without misgiving and after the car reached the end of the line Mr. Gallagher found it. Opening it he found that it contained over $5. He suspected who the owner was and later in the day returned it to the young lady.

This Happy Chance Will Soon Pass Away. The question is frequently asked, What does it require to constitute a successfully educated man or woman? Some one has answered this question by saying, "An educated person is one who knows how and when to act."

THE BEYOND. They Lost a Depot but Obtain Little of Value. Late Sunday night or early yesterday morning burglars broke into the Delaware and Hudson station at Avoca. The persons having a knowledge of what was taken are very reticent on the subject. They say that little of value was taken and that they have a clue that will lead to the apprehension of the marauders.
