REUNION AT FARVIEW

War Veterans and Their Numerous Friends Jollity at the Park.

FIFTEEN THOUSAND ARE PRESENT

The Railroads Severely Taxed to Accommodate Pleasure-Seekers—Veterans from Lackawanna, Luzerne, Wyoming, Susquehanna, Wayne, Bradford and Broome Are Present. The Next Reunion to Be Held at Montrose.

There was standing room only at Farview yesterday. McKintley was not present; and General Beaver and other well known orators expected did not materialize. Still no one about the grounds had reason to experience a feeling of loneliness. The annual reunion of the Seventy-Seven Veterans' association sailed together one of the largest picnic parties that has ever assembled at the popular pleasure resort. From early morning until afternoon a steady stream of pleasure seekers poured into the grounds from the various directions. The seven companies, Lackawanna, Luzerne, Wyoming, Susquehanna, Wayne, Bradford and Broome, N. Y., were well represented at the gathering. The first train from Wilkes-Barre in the morning carried over 700 passengers. Other trains following were well loaded, and the Delaware and Hudson trains leaving this city before noon could scarcely accommodate the excursionists.

At Carbondale, where passengers are transferred to the Gravitry road, which is the key to Farview, the excursionists were met by hosts of others who came on the Erie and Delaware and Hudson trains from the north. The open cars through the crowds that surged about the grounds, but as a well-known veteran remarked, the affair could scarcely be called a soldiers' reunion as the comrades were lost to each other in the immense throng.

As the noon hour approached the wide excursionists who had come from the occasion spread inviting lunches upon the tables about the ground which they proceeded to enjoy while the foolish virgins dined and fought for non-lubricated sandwiches and "milky way" ice cream at the meagre lunch pavilion which was capable of accommodating perhaps one-fourth of the offered patronage of the day. At tables near by a piece of watermelon a little larger than a nickel could be purchased for five cents, and bananas that had the appearance of having passed through the annual ordeal of the Delaware peach crop were offered at rates that left no reason for doubt that a banana trust had cornered the output.

Not far away several enterprising individuals were warming claims on a sheet iron and brick arrangement that failed to open the shells. Owing to scarcity of other filling material, many of the "ladies" tackled the clam shells and pounded the shells open with heavy knives in order to secure the bivalves, from which the chill of the ocean had scarcely been removed.

GREAT DAY FOR LIQUIDS. The ice cream and the supply from sundry kegs that contained something with the odor of malt seemed inexhaustible, and the liquid dispensed by Waymart dairy made from a pagoda which bore the mysterious sign "Ice Milk" also held during the meal. Up on the hill away from the maddening rush of the hungry throng, the James S. Ham circle of the Ladies auxiliary of Honesdale, presided over a genuine barbecue and dispensed toothsome roast pig, chicken salad, boiled eggs, etc., to invited guests. Those who were unfortunate enough to enjoy the hospitality of the Honesdale ladies declare the barbecue one of the most pleasurable features of the reunion. The large dancing pavilion was thronged during the day by enthusiastic young people who indulged in the usual terpsichorean exercises to music by the Mozart orchestra.

The Union Ex-Prisoners' association banner hung from a sapling near the white observatory, and here Comrade Halsey Lathrop and a number of jolly companions dispensed clay pipes to ex-prisoners of war and amused the crowds cracking jokes and singing war songs.

At 2 o'clock the bugler of Conyngham post, of Wilkes-Barre, sounded the assembly call and many of the excursionists gathered about the observatory to listen to orators of the day. Governor McKintley and General Beaver did not appear, but excellent addresses, however, were listened to. Among the impromptu speakers were Judge Archibald and Judge Edwards, of this city; District Attorney Painter, of Broome county, N. Y.; Colonel Campbell, of Wilkes-Barre; Homer Greene, of Honesdale; James Turner, of Jersey; Captain Darts, of Wilkes-Barre, and Rev. Severson.

At the close of the speechmaking a business session of the Veteran association was held, at which Captain H. F. Beardsley, of Montrose, one of the best known and most popular of the Northeastern Pennsylvania veterans, was elected president for the ensuing year. The association at the same time voted to hold the next reunion at Montrose. The late exercises in the afternoon were interrupted by showers, and many of the excursionists were drenched on the return trip from Farview to Carbondale. Considerable difficulty was experienced in transporting the crowds back to Carbondale and Honesdale, and the trainmen of the Delaware and Hudson are entitled to credit for the manner in which they performed their arduous duties of the day.

In the evening a banquet was held at Hotel Antracite in Carbondale, which was attended by officers of the association and other distinguished guests of the Carbondale Grand Army post. The list of speakers included Past President Frank Hollenbeck, of Waymart; Vice President J. C. Turner, of Jersey; Treasurer Dr. Brady, of Honesdale; Secretary Chase, of Carbondale; Judge Archibald, Hon. J. A. Scranton, Mayor Hendrick, W. B. Gritman, F.

F. Forbes, C. R. Manville, Colonel Campbell, Hon. S. S. Jones, Hon. C. E. Rettew, ex-Mayor Kelly and Captain Darts.

TENNIS AT FARVIEW.

The Carbondale Club's Tourney Will Begin Today.

The annual tournament of the Carbondale Tennis club will begin at Farview today. The event has always been considered one of the most prominent regular social affairs of its kind in this section of the state, and, aside from local participants and players from abroad, will be attended by many Scranton people and others from nearby towns.

The programme is confined to gentlemen's singles and doubles and a special event for the Delaware and Hudson challenge cup, which was won last year by H. Torrance, jr., of Carbondale. The winner of the present singles will contest with Mr. Torrance for the trophy. Its final disposition will be decided when it has been won by one person three times, not necessarily consecutively. The entry list, which closed yesterday, has been open to all comers and includes a gallery of notable players. A dance and reception will give the players and guests this evening in Watt's hall.

The drawings for the tournament took place at Carbondale last night and resulted as follows: Singles, Lieutenant R. P. Davis, W. L. Pink, C. F. Fuller and J. E. Sandler, byes; N. L. Moon and M. D. Lathrop, preliminary round; N. R. Johnson, C. Orchard and W. J. Sadler, byes. In the doubles Davis and Pink, and Johnson and Fuller drew byes. The Sadler brothers play Torrance and Moon in the preliminary round. Orchard and Lathrop drew a bye.

TYPHOID FEVER SCARE

Dr. Allen Visits Elmhurst and Reports Very Favorably to Mayor Connell.

The citizens of Scranton have been not a little alarmed on account of a report to the effect that there were fifteen cases of typhoid fever in Elmhurst, a report which was supplied to the Health Officer Allen, accompanied by Sanitary Officer Burke and Anthony Bauman, of the Elmhurst board of health, went to Elmhurst yesterday morning and found that the state of affairs was not nearly as bad as rumored. The following is a copy of the report submitted to Mayor Connell by Dr. Allen on his return to this city.

DEAR SIR: I have to inform you that I visited Elmhurst this morning accompanied by Sanitary Officer Burke and A. Bauman, of the Elmhurst board of health. I fortunately found the attending physician, and had no difficulty in making a thorough investigation of the cases of fever reported, and surroundings.

There were five cases in two houses, three of which were convalescent, and the other two not seriously ill. No deaths have occurred. The water supply is from the hills above, on the north side of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western tracks. Every precaution has been taken to prevent the pollution of any water supply. The excreta is thoroughly disinfected and buried deep in the ground. Under the circumstances it would be impossible for the Scranton water supply to be contaminated. Very respectfully yours, W. E. ALLEN, M. D., Inspector State Board of Health, Aug. 15, 1894.

Latest Messages Indicate That He May Recover.

At the Episcopal residence last evening Rev. J. A. O'Reilly stated that a message had been received to the effect that Bishop O'Hara, who has been critically ill at Cape May, was able to sit up in his room late in the day. Father O'Reilly said further, that each message received indicated that the bishop's chances for recovery are favorable.

DR. BURNETT SERIOUSLY ILL.

His Condition Somewhat Improved Last Night.

Dr. John Burnett, of Linden street, has been seriously ill for two weeks but, upon inquiry last evening a TRIBUNE reporter was informed by Mrs. Burnett that the physician reported a slight improvement in the condition of the patient. Typhoid fever symptoms have developed but hopes are entertained that a better report can shortly be made.

KICKING ON THE PARTS

Trouble Experienced in Making Up the Cost of Characters.

PRODUCTION NOT YET BILLED

Managers of the Democratic Company Are Having No End of Trouble in Getting Actors for Fall Season. The Company is Large Enough but They Cannot Agree About Roles. Much Depends on the Republican Convention.

The Democratic convention is yet "to take place in the near future." No steps have been taken even to call a meeting of the county committee, although it was expected that this would be done during the fore part of the present week. None are more anxious for the fixing of the date than one or two of the candidates, as upon the fixing of the date depends the fixing of the date of the election.

If the convention is held after the Republicans have made nominations, as it now undoubtedly will be, there will be no time lost by the Democratic machine in filing up the ticket, which will be attended with considerable ease on account of the determination to do certain things if the Republicans do certain things. One of these certain things is the placing of J. G. Bailey in the sheriff's column if any man but Mr. Clemens is nominated on the Republican ticket. Mr. Bailey will not run against Mr. Clemens on account of certain social relations existing between the two, and if Clemens is nominated Mr. Bailey wants to run for clerk of the courts. John Durkin does not intend to present himself as a candidate for the office of sheriff, but he will set upon defeating John Thomas and no other. "They can't force me up against Clarence Pryor," said Mr. Durkin yesterday. "I want clerk of the courts or nothing."

SCHMIDT DOESN'T WANT MUCH.

In case Mr. Bailey declines to seek the nomination for sheriff the slate-makers would have Charles Schadt take it, but Charles says "I want county clerk." The slate-makers are anxious to have all these men on the ticket, but they are sorely troubled as to how they shall be disposed of. Here is the way they would like to see the county slate printed.

Congress..... W. H. Gearhart; Judge..... P. F. Smith; Recorder..... J. J. Smith; Proprietary..... John J. Durkin; Clerk of the courts..... J. G. Bailey; District attorney..... John P. Kelly; Register..... J. J. Koenig; J. T. Koenig; They do not know as yet just how they would like to fill up the treasurer's column, but as there is plenty of willing victims no trouble would be experienced in securing one.

STREET CAR WAR AGAIN.

Will Be Carried to the Courts by the Railway Company. Now that the people of Taylor are again up in arms against the laying of rails through that borough, the street car company has determined to use no further efforts at an amicable adjustment between the borough and the company, but will take the matter to court in order that they may enforce the rights which they claim gives them the power to construct the road without consulting the borough.

DILATORY MEMBERS.

Sheridan Monument Cannot Be Built by Absentees. Less than a quorum of members present prevented a meeting of the Sheridan Monument association last night. Many of the members were absent at Farview with the veterans. Those who assembled at the board of trade rooms discussed the matter of arousing the members that belong to the committee and are not prompt at meetings. The hope was expressed that those who have been careless in the past will see the error of their ways and make amends.

THE TEA DRINKER

To the Public. Since the organization of our school we have given to the citizens of Scranton and Pennsylvania advantages in the commercial and stenographic work equal to that of the best colleges in the largest cities. More than 1,000 students have attended in a single year. A Great Multitude has been inspired to higher living and have won important places in the business and professional world. With the experience and success of the past we propose to give our patrons of the future higher, more practical, and thorough business and stenographic courses. Conditions in the business world have changed. Schools must change to meet these conditions. Students must be taught to do as well as to think. The faculty is an important factor in an institution. Heretofore we have educated our teachers this year we have engaged men who have made a record and acquired a reputation. We have had good pupils in the past. We shall have better ones in the future. No business school in the United States can exhibit a more competent, cultured and efficient class of aggressive teachers. The college will reopen August 27. Day and night sessions. Old students, students who have not completed the course, and prospective students, are invited to call. The office is always open. F. E. WOOD, President.

TEAS are among the most delusive goods sold in a grocery. Frequently the most inferior goods are sold at high prices. We have made it a point to make a specialty of the best grades imported. Prices never were so low. We have good Tea at 25c. and Japans and Oolongs at 60c. that recently sold for $1 per pound.

DOWN IN A MINE.

Novel Vacation of Two Plucky Evangelists.

An interesting and effective evangelistic work is being done in our valley by Messrs. B. F. Armstrong, general secretary of the Bloomsburg Young Men's Christian Association and Thomas Thorsburn, general secretary of the Sharsburg and Elm association, assisted by J. C. Tennant, a theological student in Wyoming seminary. They are holding services in the mining villages between Wilkes-Barre and Carbondale, traveling in a closed wagon and holding services from the rear of their conveyance, which is supplied with organ, hymn books and other appliances. Yesterday during the noon hour these gentlemen held a religious service at the foot of the shaft in the Ontario mine in Peckville with the permission of Mine Boss Chapman. The meeting lasted a half hour and was very impressive. Slips of paper with the words of hymns printed on them were distributed among the men, who joined heartily in the service of song. No collections are taken up at these meetings, all expenses being met by private subscriptions from gentlemen through the valley who are interested in Christian work. Those in charge give their time to this work in preference to spending their vacation in the usual way.

TRIED TO BEST THE LIEUTENANT.

But the Officer Knew What His Club Was Used For. Michael Gallagher, of Riley's Patch, was parading around Monsey avenue yesterday looking for some one to tread on the tail of his Prince Michael. No one could be found to perform this little office for him until Lieutenant Spellman came along and made an official request that Gallagher would keep his clothes on. Gallagher doubled up his fist and let 'er go. Spellman drew his club and returned the fire. When the smoke of battle cleared away the lieutenant was in doubt whether he would ring for the ambulance or the patrol wagon. The tailor was decided upon and Gallagher was placed behind the station house bars.

SERIES OF BURGLARIES.

Two Jobs in One Night Up the Valley. The Jersey depot of the Ontario and Western railroad was burglarized Monday night, supposedly by tramps, and a number of express packages taken from the freight room. No arrests have been made. During the same evening or Tuesday morning the store of the Riverside Coal company between Peckville and Archbald was entered and goods to the value of $100 were stolen. RESTFUL to tired toilers, bread made from Pillsbury's Best.
