

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

The most highly refined and healthful of baking powders. Its constant use in almost every American household, its sales all over the world, attest its wonderful popularity and usefulness.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL.

Miss Lillie Stevens of Greenwood, spent from Thursday until Sunday afternoon in the city, the guest of Miss Emily Meug.

Miss Ethel Simmons of the Columbia college spent Easter at home.

Miss Sadie Sullivan of the Columbia College for Women spent Easter with her parents; Miss Sullivan arrived in the city Thursday night.

The sacred concert at the First Methodist church on Monday evening of this week was one of the most delightful events of not only the week but of the year. A large audience was assembled to hear the delightful music which had been carefully prepared, and was rendered with exceeding skill.

Each number on the program was given and was thoroughly enjoyed by all those present. Miss McMichael of Orangeburg, chorused her hearers with the several beautiful vocal solos; and the organ selections by Miss Jessie Holt were beautiful indeed, rendered as they were with that peculiarly happy touch that characterizes all her playing. Mr. Marvin Franks of Charleston, who is well and favorably known here, and whose voice is much admired, was at his best in the several numbers given by him. The chorals were trained by Mrs. Dorothea Turner, and the male quartette, delighted the audience with two excellent selections each.

Following is the outline program: Postlude in G... Edward Reed... Miss Jessie Holt... Mrs. M. H. Behrend... Mr. Marvin Franks... Alfred Hollins... Miss Jessie Holt... Night Skins on the Wave... H. Smart... Choral Club... O Dry Those Tears... Tosti... Miss McMichael... For All Eternity... Alfred Solman... Mr. Marvin Franks... Absent... John W. Metcalfe... Messrs. C. H. Hicks, M. L. Roper, R. G. Franks, Frank McCravy... Tannhäuser... March... Wagner... Miss Jessie Holt.

Miss Josephine Sullivan was the charming hostess to the young ladies of the Mysterious Twenty-two club on Saturday afternoon. In compliment to Misses Anna Bryan of Greenville and Nan Walker of Barnwell. Misses Bryan and Walker were Easter guests in the city, and attended the dance on Monday evening.

Miss Sullivan was assisted in receiving her guests by Miss Sadie Sullivan, her sister, who was at home for the holidays, from the Columbia college. The decorations for the afternoon were the ever beautiful Easter palms, which together with ferns and pot plants rendered the parlors and reception halls a scene of beauty. The score cards for the games played, Nations, were artistically arranged with Easter colors, and on each was the dainty Easter chicken. At the conclusion of the games, a delightful salad course, with coffee was served.

Those present were: Misses Anna Bryan of Greenville, Nan Walker of Barnwell, Willie Mae Childress, Julia Giberson, Elizabeth Shell, Zelene Gray, Lucille Martin, Rosalie Franks, Daisy Sullivan, Grace Simmons, Lynt Jones, Mary Todd, Lalla Mae Dial, Annie and Elizabeth Richey, Nell Miller and Josephine Fuller.

Miss Jessie Bolt, after spending Easter with her parents in the city returned Tuesday to Columbia. Miss Bolt will graduate in piano some time in May.

Miss Blinze McMichael, of Orangeburg who was the charming guest of Miss Jessie Bolt during her short visit to the city left Tuesday at noon for Lancaster to spend a few days before returning to school at Columbia. Miss McMichael made many friends during her short stay in the city.

The marriage Wednesday evening, April 7th, of Miss Madge Louise Medlock and Mr. John Arthur Taylor, occasioned quite a pleasant surprise among the numerous friends and acquaintances of these well and popularly known young people. The ceremony, which was witnessed by a small group of intimate friends and relatives residing in the city, was performed by the Rev. John D. Crout, pastor of the First Methodist church, in the parlors of the parsonage. Mr. Taylor is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Taylor of Princeton, this county, and has lived in Laurens about four years, being now and for the past three years employed as a salesman at the

MARRIAGE AT MOUNTVILLE:

Miss Maggie Cleland Becomes Wife of N. J. L. Boyd.

Mountville, April 12.—On Tuesday afternoon, 8th inst., at 2 o'clock, Mr. J. Lawrence Boyd was married to Miss Maggie Cleland, at the bride's home near Belfast, Rev. D. P. Mitchell officiating. A lecture was given at the school building last Friday night by Dr. John C. Cook of Newberry. His subject was the Poet J. S. Whitcomb Riley. A very good audience greeted the lecturer who for sometime pleasantly and profitably entertained those present. A small entrance fee was charged the proceeds of which will be applied to the better equipment of the school rooms.

Mr. B. B. Culp, operator at Abbeville, is spending a while with his home folks.

Mr. A. B. Crisp of Heardmont, Ga., came over on 1st Sunday to attend preaching service at his church.

Miss Lillie Culbertson of Temple, Ga., who has been quite sick recently, is at home for a week's rest and convalescence.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Whatley of Cokesburg visited a number of their relatives here last week.

It's a Top Notch Doer. Great deeds compel regard. The world crowns its doers. That's why the American people have crowned Dr. King's New Discovery the King of Throat and Lung Remedies.

Every atom is a health force. It kills germs, and colds and influenza vanish. It breaks cough-racked membranes and cures croup. Sore, inflamed bronchial tubes and lungs are cured and hemorrhages cease. Dr. Geo. Moore, Black Jack, N. C., writes: "I cured me of lung trouble, pronounced hopeless by all doctors." See King's New Discovery, distributed by Laurens Drug Co. and Hargett Drug Co.

Mix griddle-cakes with sweet elder, diluted about one half with water. The flavor of the elder is not perceptible but it makes the cakes light and feathery.
