We call the attention of our readers to the change of ad by V. R. Lancaster & Co. in this issue.

Mrs. John McBride has been quite sick during the past week but is now reported much improved.

Frank Drees is in Minneapolis this week purchasing his fall and winter goods which will be along in a few days.

State's Attorney Brisbine of Isabel, was in attendance upon the meeting of the county commissioners held Monday.

S. O. Webb, of Eagle Butte, was here the fore part of the week in connection with the land case of Geo. Bagola. He was at one time allotting agent for this reservation.

Jerald M. Drew, an attorney who recently located at Isabel, was in town last Saturday. Mr. Drew comes from Omaha. In addition to maintaining a law office in town, he has a claim out about two miles.

The county commissioners had a meeting here Monday. In addition to other business they appointed D. T. Bauman justice of the peace, to succeed C. C. Lever, who sold his land and left here several weeks ago.

Attorney P. M. Burns has rented the offices lately occupied by Dr. Driesbach in the telephone building. Mr. Burns is a graduate of the University of Minnesota law school and has had several years practice in Minneapolis. Like many others he also has a claim.

Undertaker S. M. Smith was called to Lantry last Saturday on professional business, in connection with the death of Mrs. Mary Speker, who died the day previous of typhoid fever. She leaves a husband and eight children. The body was shipped to Caledonia, Minn.

The following notice has been received from Geo. W. Hibbard, general passenger agent of the C. M. & P. S. Ry. "Give at once publication to the fact that this company does not require official survey of oat fields that are entered in prize contests at New York Land Show, Nov. 3 to 12, nor is it required of homesteaders competing for prizes." We are informed that Bud Milliken, who lives east of town, will enter a sample of oats raised on his claim this year. Someone should enter a sample of our mammoth potatoes.

The evidence in quite an important land case was taken at the local land office Tuesday and Wednesday. The final decision will determine the ownership of a very fine half section of land located four or five miles southwest of here. These two quarters were filed upon by K. T. Coffey and J. E. Burns, the records at the land office at that time showing them to be open but unappraised. The half section has since been claimed by George Bagola, an Indian, as his allotment. B. L. Crowder, a special agent in the Indian service, appeared for Bagola, and Attorney P. M. Burns for his brother, J. E. Burns, and Geo. H. Puder for Mr. Coffey. The evidence as taken will be certified to the commissioner of the general land office for decision, the local land officials simply recommending in the matter.

GOOD RULES FOR THE GIRLS

Issued by the Women's Imperial Health Association of Great Britain and Ireland.

Of more than passing interest to the women of this country are the following rules of conduct issued to "the girls of Great Britain" by the Women's Imperial Health Association of Great Britain and Ireland.

The future of our country is in your hands.

Look your best by all means, but be your best also; the first attracts to begin with, but the second produces the most lasting effect.

You must obey the laws of hygiene, respecting fresh air, exercise, good food, cleanliness and suitable clothing. A healthy girlhood is the best foundation for a happy life.

You must know about cooking, housekeeping and domestic economy.

You must learn about the feeding and care of children; this knowledge does not come by instinct, as many suppose.

Remember that home making is the most dignified and important profession in the world.

Attend, if you can, "continuation classes" in personal and domestic hygiene in your own house, remembering that a good daughter makes the best wife.

Choose the best companions and read the best books you can find. Accept only the best men as your husbands, paying as much attention to their character as to their personal appearance. — Woman's National Weekly.

NOW THEY DON'T SPEAK

Miss Antique—I dreamed of an elopement last night.

Miss Caustique—You shouldn't let your imagination run away with you like that.

FIRST VETERINARY SCHOOL

The third fiftieth anniversary, celebrating the erection in Lyon of a veterinary school will be held in that city about the middle of May, 1912. Preparations are now forming to commemorate the event in a fitting manner, and invitations are being issued to all veterinary schools in the United States and elsewhere for the purpose of having delegates in as large a number as possible.

It is authentically recorded in the annals of veterinary science that the world's first veterinary school was founded in Lyon in 1761, since which time similar institutions have been inaugurated in many countries, the last being reported from Abyssinia.

THE MOVEMENT IN EGYPT.

Now it is the Moslem women of Egypt who are taking part in the women movement, having asked of the Moslem congress the right to attend prayers and sermons in the mosques, a privilege already granted to the women of Constantinople. They also ask that the primary education of young women be made obligatory; that young girls be admitted to schools of medicine; to use means to prevent polygamy and the abuse of divorce and to teach Mohammedan girls sewing, housekeeping and hygiene.

ONCE NURSED THE KING.

The one desire of Mrs. Ann Roberts, who was for a year the foster-mother of George V., is said to be to go back from America to England to spend her last days in her old home. She is living with her brother, Mr. Richard Edmunds of Poultny, Vt., but it is hoped that something will be done in her behalf by the British government.

HIS CALCULATIONS.

She—I'll be ready in a minute, dear.

He—All right. I'll just fix up this paper while I'm waiting. I won't take more than an hour."
