PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY EVENING AT TWO DOLLARS PER ANNUM.

WINCHESTER:
THURSDAY MORNING, MARCH 3.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.

A poem from one of our contributors, S. S. T., will appear next week.

An original tale by "Unknown" shall appear before a great while.

Two poems declined because the authors failed to send their names.

A communication from "Hudibras" is respectfully refused.

If anybody wants seeds of any description call on G. A. Shook.

Most of our space inside this week is consumed by the Premium Essay on agriculture, by Wm. L. Seargeant, Esq., of this county. While we have been compelled to defer several articles which we would have been glad to publish, yet in their stead we think this essay will be more gladly hailed. Read it, for it is by an experienced farmer.

THE WEATHER.—Beautiful but strange weather this for March. Tuesday, the 1st, came in with a clear sky, balmy, spring atmosphere, and a genial, happy sun. Surely, winter is not over! and we tremble for the sake of the fruit, for we do love it dearly. Many peaches and other trees are in full bloom. Still, we have heard it said that "fruit is never killed in March." That the saying may prove true this season is our earnest wish. Even to see large, plump peaches in Summer time is enough to make one feel happy, especially, an admirer of "the beautiful." Their crimson skin so delicately covered with softest down, reminds us ever of fair maiden's cheeks at the age of "sweet sixteen," before the frosts of time have blighted and withered their sweetness and beauty into bitterness and wrinkles.—Oh! the fruit! we do hope it may fail us not.

NOTICE.—In answer to an advertisement, in this paper, proposing to sell a newspaper and Job office, we have received some ten or twelve applications, but most of them desire only a portion.—Now, we will not sell any unless we can sell all. And our only object in disposing of one of our presses is to get us a Ruggle's Card Press. The amount we propose, in the advertisement, to sell, can be had for $600, and out of it can be fitted up a splendid job office. A better bargain cannot be had in Tennessee, or anywhere else, for the same amount would cost $1000 new, but being unused, only to a slight extent by us, we propose to sell it low. With us, at present, it is dead capital.

A MONUMENT TO THE MEMORY OF REV JOHN G BIDDLE, DECEASED.

It is with feelings of the deepest gratification and anxiety that we see efforts being made by his many friends to secure a substantial and fitting monument to be placed over the remains of Rev. John G. Biddle, which lie now at their last resting place in our cemetery. It is a praise-worthy object to thus grace and designate the place where lies the dust of one who stood so high, and who done so much good while living, and whose loss would have been felt in the best community in the wide, wide world. Place a monument to his memory, and do so forthwith.

But we understand that as yet little has been done. It is the object of the young ladies of the Winchester Female Seminary to do this laudible tribute to one who founded, we believ at least, who had for a long time charge of the school they attend. They expect to raise some three or four hundred dollars, and then procure a Monument. But, as yet, they have only raised some $30 or $40. Is it possible that they shall fail! No! No! Where are the old scholars of Mr. Biddle's—where his quondom patrons?—Where his many personal friends? where the Church of which he was a noble representative and for which he done so much good?—And last, but not least, where the citizens of our town, among whom he spent the bloom of his manhood? A call, an earnest, worthy call, is made upon them all, and will any fail? Surely not—surely not! Why, $1500 was raised in Murfreesboro in one day, we understand, in order to purchase a monument for Prof. Eaton. Can we not raise $400 for Mr. Biddle's.

We wish the young ladies, who have this matter in charge, the speediest success, and the result will resound in praise to them for their noble efforts. Any one wishing to contribute can address "Miss Matt Frizzell," the treasurer, at this place.

RUNAWAYS seem to be on the increase in our town. Last Saturday two horses run away with a wagon, and but for the sturdy resistence of a post against which the wagon caught, might have resulted seriously. On Monday two horses run away with another wagon and traveled up and down several streets at a fierce rate, while crowds gathered at almost every spot, and inmates of houses rushed to the doors and windows to see what the excitement was. Finally another sturdy post bid them defiance, and said. "Thus far shalt thou go and no farther." The affrighted steeds survived the shock, with the infliction only of a few scars, &c.

In both of these instances thoughtlessness, (perhaps carelessness) was the cause, and should teach all persons to never leave their teams unattended, especially on any of our streets.—Such lucky escapes as these may not again occur.

LAND FOR SALE.

I wish to sell my tract of land, on which I am now living, containing about one hundred and ninty six acres, lying about four miles north of Winchester, Tenn. on Elk River, and about four miles from the Nashville and Chattanooga Rail Road, and bounded by the lands of W. H. Phillips and B. Crisman. Said land is very rich and attractive. About eighty acres are in a high state of cultivation with good fences, a good Dwelling house stables, out houses, &c. Also three excellent springs are on the place within a short distance of the house. There is on the place a most excellent orchard of fine fruit, and a still house and still close by, which can be bought. This is a desirable tract of land and affords an excellent opportunity for any one to get a bargain.

I can be seen almost any time at home.

SIR JAMSE CLARK'S FEMALE PILLS.—This well-known medicine is no imposition, but a sure and safe remedy for Female difficulties, and obstructions from any cause whatever; and although a powerful remedy, they contain nothing hurtful to the constitution.

For full particulars, obtain, free, of the agent a pamphlet, or refer to advertisement.

N. B.—$1 and 6 postage stamps enclosed to any authorized agent, will insure a bottle containing over 50 pills by return mail.

The most terrible foe we have to encounter in this country is Consumption. First manifesting itself in the form of a slight cold, it gains strength while its victim is unsuspicious of danger, and sooner or later, in nine cases out of ten, terminates fatally. Among the various remedies before the public for the cure of terrible Consumption, none is equal to HOOFLAND'S BALSAMIC COMPOUND. Even this may not cure you but, if the disease is not too far advanced, you may confidently rely upon it. Try it.

Prepared only by Dr. C. M. Jackson, No. 418 Arch Street, and for sale by druggists and storekeepers throughout the United States and Canada. Price 75 cents per bottle.

Notice.

We have a rule that when a subscriber does not pay for his paper for twelve months, we will charge him three dollars, yet many take the paper almost that long, then expect two dollars to satisfy us. Now our dear friends, you ought not to think hard of us should we dissent from such a course of procedure. What is the use of us having a rule, if we do not comply with it? We never stand faithfully by the rule we have adopted if we would do justice to all our subscribers. It is economical and wrong for us to publish that $2 will be charged in advance, $2.50 at the end of six months and $3 at the end of 12 months, and then violate this rule. Therefore please remember that two dollars is the advance price, $2.50 payment be made in six months and $3.00 at the end of the year, and we WILL NOT violate this rule any more.

THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY

Splendid Town Lots FOR SALE,
Nearly on the Public Square,
WINCHESTER, TENN.

Being anxious to remove to another portion of the country I propose to sell the town lot on which I am now living, and on which there is a new, good and convenient two story dwelling, 20 x 36 with a ten foot passage in the middle. Also one brick house, 20 x 30, with two good rooms. Also a large kitchen, smoke house, out houses, &c. This lot contains one and three quarters of an acre, of fair ground as there is in Franklin county, and fronts about 275 feet on the street running from the square to the Methodist church, and fronting on the whole of the street running from the church at right angle South, and 250 feet on the street running from thence at right angle west, affording ample room to make THREE beautiful town lots with good-sized gardens attached. In the centre of this lot of ground is one of the best wells of water to be found anywhere, and it NEVER FAILS. The whole of this plat is level and rich and is decidedly the most desirable property for sale in Winchester. On the lot is a blacksmith-shop, woodshop and stable. I will sell the whole cheap for cash and respectfully ask anyone desirous of a good bargain to come and examine the premises. Should any one wish to erect a business house, no better place could be found, as part of it lies but a few steps from the square, while the other part affords a beautiful place for private residences. Here is a chance for some one, who will not be! Apply to
