Harold Bauer, Master Pianist, to Appear Under Auspices of Music Club

Harold Bauer, conceded to be the master pianist of the present day, will appear here in concert recital March 22 under the auspices of the Chattanooga Music club. The event will mark one of the most distinctive of the recitals in the artists' course of the Chattanooga organization fostered by Prof. Joseph Cadek. A critic, writing of the pianist, says: "A pupil of Paderewski, Harold Bauer owes to that master a debt of gratitude for bringing to its highest development the musical genius he early displayed. At the same time, it may be said that Bauer is in a large measure self-taught. Even as a boy he showed rare musical instinct, and his rapid advance showed that he was of no mediocre caliber. "Seven times previous to his present tour Bauer has visited the United States, and each appearance has strengthened his hold on American favor. In Europe his reputation was made long before he undertook to win recognition in this country. He has given concerts in so many continental cities that an admirer has suggested that the pianist's fame rests as much upon his record as a traveler as his skill as a musician. From Europe to South America he has journeyed, returning to England, Norway and Sweden and his home in Paris, only to hasten back to Spain, where he has held engagements at many fashionable watering places. Meanwhile he has prepared himself for his American tour, arranging his programs and extending his repertoire. Bauer is indubitably a great pianist, the most noticeable characteristic in his manipulation of the keys. Bauer is a true pianist—a veritable poet of the keyboard."

The home was aglow with spring flowers and ferns. Preceding the ceremony Mrs. W. R. Lester sang "O Promise Me," Mrs. Howard Rennie rendered the nuptial music. The attendants were Miss Pearl Friar and L. Jackson. The bride was attired in a coat suit of tan cloth, worn with small hat and accessories to match. Her flowers were valley lilies and Bride's roses. Following the ceremony an informal reception was held. About forty guests were present. Mrs. Rennie is a graduate of Central High school, and is considered one of the most popular young ladies of the suburb. Mr. and Mrs. Rennie have gone to Birmingham to reside, where the groom is connected with the G. & C. railway office.

MISS SPRING HAS A FLOWER HAT

WHY HAIR FALLS OUT Dandruff causes a feverish irritation of the scalp, the hair roots shrink, loosen and then the hair comes out fast. To stop falling hair at once and rid the scalp of every particle of dandruff, get a small bottle of Danderine as any drug store for a few cents. Pour a little in your hand and rub well into the scalp. After several applications all dandruff disappears and the hair stops coming out.—(Adv.)

A Dose of Lung-Vita in Time May Prevent Serious Trouble. No matter what the disease, it is better to prevent it than cure it. Take a cold, for instance. When you catch it immediately lowers your vitality, and you cannot resist the germs of pneumonia or tuberculosis as readily as when entirely well. Prevent them altogether. Keep a bottle of Lung-Vita on hand, and every time you expose yourself, take a dose or two. It will prevent the cold and keep your system up to par. It is perfectly harmless. Get a bottle today for your protection.
