Rye majority, 310. Roberts, 1438.

No returns were received from the 10th district and therefore no figures are inserted from that district.

Edward Albright and H. B. McGinnis had no opposition for member of the state committee and received all the votes cast. They were duly elected for two years.

OLD FOLKS NON EST

Or in other words, in the way. Well, sir, how often do we see and know of such? You will hear the younger ones say, "When pa or ma drape off." Yes, they remind me of a flock of turkey buzzards (can't you see them) on a dead tree waiting for the old horse to die, and in some cases will peck out the eyes before he has closed them for the last time. That old family horse that is next best friend to man, how all the little ones will cry and say, "Old Sorrel is dead and we can never ride him to water again nor hold him in the front yard to pick off the grass—boo, hoo."

Well, sir, that is not all; some are waiting for that little property, if it is not already divided, an, my stars and little pumpkins, the old people that are persuaded to divide and live with the children (you have seen it near you.) There was a case near by where grandmother kept her home, and after the grandchildren got to be some smart size there did not seem to be enough room in the old family house, so the daughter-in-law says: "We will build Grandma a nice little house." (One room out in the yard.)

And, sir, that grandma, although she was about 80, simply struck, and said "No; this house was built by my husband, who has gone on before me for us to have in our old days. If any of you are not satisfied, you can pull your freight," or words to that effect. Now, there was an estuff of the right metal. That old mother in Israel knows some things and know the limit had come.

On the other hand, you will see all respect the old folks and the little ones can't do enough. It's Grandma, let me get your slippers, or fetch a drink of cool water, or light your pipe, here is a match, and if it was way back "yander" she would say "No; get a live coal, dip it and leave some ashes on the top of that old clay pipe, that's the system." And let me tell you there is "p-p" in such children, and for each kindness they show there will be a jewel in their crown, bless their little hearts. Save, preserve and keep them from all harm, till in later years they can look back on those days with pride, and be happy to think how kind they were to the ones who, if ever they want peace and quietude it is in their old days.

No, sir, it is not the case every time and you all know how a mother-in-law is spoken of and looked upon. I had the best one of all, for she by some hook or crook heard we were going to run off and get hitched or spliced, call it what you may, but she came to the escue and said, "Now, children don't be silly and make bad matters worse, but if you must marry call in the minister." That minister I noticed was there all the same, and you know the rest.

MONTEREY R. 1

Aunt Katie Welch is very sick. Miss Fannie Henry and little brother visited at J. H. Whittaker's Sunday night.

The protracted meeting at Mt. Union began the first Sunday.

Miss Lee Nado Robinson visited the writer Saturday.

I am going to ask for a shower of birthday cards, letters and presents Aug. 11. I wonder how many cousins of mine will send me one. My birthday is next Sunday but I will be glad to get them just the same. The one sending me the nicest card will receive a present.

MISS AMY W. HITAKER.

MAKING SOME GUNS NOW

One day in June last approximately 27,000,000 cartridges of various kinds were produced in the United States. The daily average production of United States army rifles was broken during the week ending June 29, an average of 10,142 being maintained. In addition spare parts equivalent to several thousand rifles were made.

The ordnance department has produced 2,014,815,584 cartridges, 1,886,769 rifles and 82,540 machine guns since the United States entered the war. The daily output of cartridges is now 1,500,000.

FEEDING THEM UP

Some idea of the vast amount of other than substantial food consumed by our soldiers may be had from the fact that the Y. M. C. A. has ordered 750 carloads of cookies, 93,750,000 sticks of chewing gum, 112,500,000 bars of chocolate, 7,500,000 jars of jam and marmalade and 1,350,000,000 cigarettes. This is in addition to all the foldered the government furnishes the men, and will last only until about Christmas.

CAMP RARITAN, N. J.

Dear Herald friends, I will drop you a few lines to let you all know where we are now. We left Camp Pike the 28th of July, arrived in New Jersey safely and it is a beautiful place. We are right on the coast, and you bet it is getting some cold. I will tell you what we have to entertain us soldiers. We have a dance every night, a fine Y. M. C. A. and some fine shows. So you see we can have a good time. But I guess the most of us had rather be at home.

We came through Missouri, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Pennsylvania and New York and landed in New Jersey, and will stay here for a while. The next move we make will be to cross over, I guess, and you bet we will get the Kaiser.

I wonder if all the Tennessee girls have got married. I guess they have for I don't hear from any of them any more.

Wonder what has become of G. C. Wright since he left Camp Pike. It is getting late and we are going to town tonight, so I guess I had better ring off. My address is 4th Casual Co., Camp Raritan, Metchusen, New Jersey. S. B. JONES.

COOKEVILLE R. 2

We are having some very hot and dry days in this part of the country. School at Holladay is progressing nicely to be crowded as it is. The primary teacher has 90 enrolled in her room.

Miss Mary Taylor spent Sunday with Mrs. Martha Carr.

Miss Vaille Carr spent Thursday night with Miss Alma Ellis.

Mrs. Celia Ray of Cookeville is visiting relatives in this part.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Lige Wilhite, who has been in the navy for some time, is at home now on a furlough.

Miss Della Genry of Cookeville spent Thursday night with Mrs. Martha Carr.

Mrs. J. M. Hatfield visited Holladay school Thursday afternoon.

Wake up, you Oak Grove people, and write to the Herald. Wade Dunavin of Camp Gordon, be sure and keep your promised letters to the Herald coming, as we all like to hear from you soldier boys. We are very much interested in all our Putnam county boys. ANNE.

CAMP PIKE, ARK.

As I see so many letters in the Herald from soldier boys guess I had better wake up and write a little myself. I have been in the camp over two months and am liking army life just fine. It's a good home if you like it. Peace terms seem very good now and we boys in camp may not get to go to France, but I think I would like very much to go I have one brother in France now and lots of friends, and hope they may all return safely to their homes.

I would be glad to hear from Bill Ray and how he likes army life. The boys must be getting scarce at home now as they are coming to camp by the thousands. Guess there will be lots of old maids left behind. I wish I had one now to wash and cook for me.

Stillman Jones has been transferred to some other camp and I would be glad to have his address.

Hatton Carr says there is no place like Camp Pike to him. I have seen places I liked better myself.

Delivers into the mysteries of the evolution of man now claim that the human race originally began life in the form of trees. There are a few sticks left to bear out this theory.

FOOD ADMINISTRATION NOTES

On account of the scarcity of sugar in the hands of retailers, the federal food administration has permitted wholesalers to sell retailers until Aug. 15 not exceeding two-thirds of their August allotment, with the understanding that retailers surrender certificates when received, to wholesale dealers covering amount purchased.

Retailers must continue to sell sugar for home use in two and five pound lots, but may sell, on proper affidavit, 25 pounds for canning and preserving. When consumer did not purchase any or all his full allotment in July, he may be permitted upon written permission of county or district food administrator, to buy in August an amount bringing allotment up to 50 pounds for the two months. Anyone having received their full allotment in July, is only allowed 25 pounds in August.

In no event must merchants charge more than 10 cents per pound for sugar.

Price of Flour and Mill Feed
Cost dealer at mill not exceeding $12.50 per barrel for flour; bran not exceeding $40.26 per ton; mixed feed $41.51; shorts $42.26.

Cost consumer $1.65 per sack for flour; bran $2.25 per 100; mixed feed $2.30; shorts $2.35.

J. N. COX, Co. Food Admr.

SUGAR RATION FOR PUBLIC EATING PLACES

Owing to the reduction in the sugar ration from three pounds to two pounds per capita, effective at once, our letter No. 278, dated July 9, 1918, fixing the ration for service of sugar at public eating places, is amended to read as follows:

A. No sugar bowls or sugar containers, having more than the ration allowed for each individual served, shall be permitted on any table, counter or other place accessible to the patrons of eating places.

B. No patron or customer shall be served at any meal or service in excess of the following quantities:

1. Where crystal sugar is used not more than one crystal, or where domino sugar is used not more than two half size loafs.

2. Where granulated or powdered sugar is used, not more than one teaspoon for beverages or one teaspoon for cereals or fruits.

3. No person shall be served at any meal sugar in the quantities above enumerated for more than one purpose; that is, the total sugar served shall not exceed one single portion.

CAMP MERRITT, N. J.

Mrs. S. Hayden Young has received the following letter from her brother, Benton Boyd:

Dear Sis: I am still here, may go any day now. We have everything ready. The commanding officer of Camp Merritt and the doctors who examine us every day say we are the cleanest and best outfit that has ever been here, and our battalion commander is so proud he just brags on us. We had a big rain last night and it is real cool and pleasant now.

I find lots of fellows here from Tennessee but none from our part that I ever knew.

I wrote to Jap at Camp Upton a week ago and tried to call him, but could not find him; he surely has gone. They are going out all the time.

I went to New York Sunday and hobbled Broadway and Fifth Avenue all up and down. It's a very nice little city but I'll take Cookeville for mine.

I like the way the Huns are running. Maybe they will quit before we get there.

I will need my sweater if I get over there but you need not send it now. I'll write when I need it. Am hoping I can be home for Christmas. Write often. Love to all.
BENTON.

A card from Jap says he landed in France all right.

COOKEVILLE R. 1

Mrs. Rob Wright visited Mrs. Geo. Robinson Sunday.

Crops are needing rain very bad. Willie C. Whitaker has returned to Charleston, S. C., after a 15 day furlough.

The meeting began at Dodson's Branch last Sunday.

They are still taking many men to the army and this war will never close until people get better.

Does anyone know of Harvey Warren, a little crippled orphan boy 15 years old? He left Cookeville about three months ago. If anybody knows of him please write to me.

ANNIE WARREN,
Cookeville, Tenn., R. 1.

Mt. View Lodge, No. 173, I.O.O.F., met at the usual hour, 8:30 p. m., on Aug. 3rd, 1918, B. C. West, N. G., presiding, with a good attendance. The usual routine business was disposed of.

Bro. Chas. Bradford was reported some worse. (He died early Tuesday morning and was buried in the family cemetery.—Ed.)

The first degree was conferred upon one applicant
