I hereby announce myself as a candidate for Sheriff of Hancock County, subject to the will of the Republican party as expressed in either a Primary Election or convention, and promise if elected to fill the office to the best of my skill and ability.

Yours truly,
Wm. Goins.

The evil that men do lives with them.

A baby ought to be happy. It has a rattling good time.

When you have work to do you may be sure of more advice than help in doing it.

A good housewife never opens the condensed milk can with her husband's razor.

The kind of man that nearly everybody tries to deceive is the one they know deceives himself.

Anybody can make a fool of himself, but it takes a talented man to make a fool of others.

Who things go wrong and you're 'all at sea' don't rock the boat if you wouldn't be drowned.

Just because we don't expect much out of others doesn't seem to keep them from expecting plenty out of us.

Why is it so soon as a man stains himself he seeks to rub it off against church pews and pure Sunday school children.

It won't do you much good to take a "memory course" if you haven't any mind, and if you have you don't need a "memory course."

Prohibition may not prohibit, but it prohibits a lot of men from being millionaires for a night and paupers the rest of the week.

Yes, its the little things that hurt. A common every-day measly little fly will make an orthodox Christian swear forty strokes to the minute while if the same man had his head taken off by a tornado he wouldn't say a word about it.

Nothing pays better than good roads. It costs something to secure them, but they are the arteries which connect city and country, along which the currents of comfort perpetually flow. Bad roads full of chuck holes, kill time, team and temper. Be sure then that money thus intelligently expended is wisely invested and sure to realize the future results.

To make reputation, take a ton of galk, half a pound of brains, sixteen grains of truth, and fill up with abilitum lying. To make a friend, take half a pound of sympathy, a pound of flattery, two pounds of beneficial services; mix well and serve hot. To make an enemy take an ounce of truth, put it on ice for a minute, and let them have it cold. To make love, take a pound of taffy, a hundred weight of sentiment, and 200 pound of deception, artfully applied.

Punctuality can be cultivated. Slow coaches can be cured. Some one has said that the only way to catch a train is to start in time; and in this pithy sentence lies the gist of the only cure of the habit of punctuality. Two rules grow out of it. One is, "Always begin in time to get ready;" and the other is "When there are several things to be done, decide which is the most important and do that first."

Punctuality is a comfortable virtue in the family and in business and entirely independent upon your will.

KING'S INSURANCE COMPANY.

Has the Largest Cash Capital: "The unsearchable riches of Christ." Eph. 3: 8.

Assets.
Real Estate. "An inheritance incorruptible, undefiled, and that fadeth not away." 1 Pet. 1: 4.

Cash in the Bank: "Gold tried in the fire." Rev. 3: 18.

Surplus over All Liabilities: "Able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think." Eph. 3: 20.

Condition of Insurance: "Repentance toward God and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ." Acts 20: 21.

President: The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. 1 Pet. 1: 3.

Vice-President: Jesus, the "King of kings." Rev. 19: 16.

There are five important reasons for insuring in this company.

1. It is the oldest insurance company the world knows.
2. It is the only company insuring against loss by fire in the great judgement-day.

3. It is the only company insuring against shipwreck in the River of Death.

4. Its policies are never-ending, giving the holder Eternal Life.

5. It insures a man for far more than he is worth.

A few important notes for policy-seekers.

1. All applicants come directly to the President, in the name of his only Son.

2. When to come: "Now is the accepted time." 2 Cor 6: 2. "After death the judgement." Heb. 9: 27. Then it will be eternally too late. Insure without delay.

Rev. W. L. Norwood, will preach at the Baptist Church here next Sunday night. Everybody is invited.

How to Make Mischief.

Keep your eyes on your neighbor. Take care of them. Do not let them stir without watching. They may do something wrong if you do. To be sure you never knew them to do anything bad, but it may be on your account they have not. Perhaps if it had not been for your kind care they might have disgraced themselves a long time ago. Therefore do not relax any effort to keep them where they ought to be. Never mind your own business that will take care of itself. There is a man passing along he is looking over the fence he is suspicious of him; perhaps he contemplates stealing, some of these dark nights; there is no knowing what queer fancies he may have got into his head.

If you find any symptoms of any one passing out of the path of duty, tell every one else what you see, and be particular and see a great many. It is a good way to circulate such things, it may not benefit yourself or any one else particularly. Do keep something going silence is a dreadful thing; though it is said there silence in heaven for space of half an hour, do not let such a thing occur on earth; it would be to much for this mundane sphere.

If, after all your watchful care you cannot see that they have done anything bad, throw out hints that they are no better than they should be that you should not wonder if the people found out what they were after a while then they may not carry their heads so high. Keep it up and some one may take the hint and begin and help it along after a while then there will be music, and everthing will work like a charm.

Follow the above directions and you will be pretty sure to make plenty of mischief.

If there is any business among men worthy of being described a work of the devil, it is the business of making and selling liquor. The devil has no greater business on earth that brings him greater returns than this. With all his wonderful shrewdness and long experience, the devil could not invent and supply any means to so effectually injure the peace of mankind and make them forever his victims as this liquor business.

HARDING'S FIRST PARDON GOES TO CHICAGO WET.

A Chicago violator of the Prohibition act was the beneficiary today of the first pardon known to have been issued by President Harding, according to records in the Prohibition office here, says the Chicago Daily News of March 25. The recipient of the pardon was Benjamin Matuzas, convicted January 17 of having sold liquor to a government agent and was sentenced by Judge Landis to five months in jail.

Editor Sneedville News:

Dear Sir:
Inclosed find $1.00 for your paper one year. In your issue of April 8th, your exposier of the Liquor and the liquor gang is worth double the the money. For that one piece I hereby subscribe. Just now we are being embarrassed with a liquor gang who expect us to be quiet about it, but I want to say in behalf of Gods cause and our country's cause, that I am publicly opposed to any such violations, and expect to publicly proclaim it if I have to suffer, I think it is high time that every good citizen as a christian to show their faith by their works in turning up all such violations.

Success to the News.
