STATE NEWS.

Pendleton, of Ohio, says the well pronounced.

MISSISSIPPI.

Will she Reconstruct on the Conditions of Negro Suffrage.

What Judge Dent and the Radicals A Review of the Situation by One who Knows.

CORPUSCULE, MISS., AUGUST 17, 1869.

My Dear General: You ask an expression of my opinion on the policy of reconstruction.

In January 1861, Mississippi abandoned (practically) her position as a State in the Federal Union.

It is conceded, I believe, that the people will accept a "readmission" on the terms proposed.

When the reconstruction plan is devised by Congress, it must be such that Mississippi should be reconstructed by that plan.

Among these "representative men" I recognize certain distinguished leaders who once in a time constituted us of the Union.

We are asked to adopt the policy proposed by Virginia in the election last transpired in this State.

The Democrats look to your interests. If you will grant us, nothing better for us than to have you and your family as the future of the State.
