

PHILADELPHIA'S FINANCES.
The annual statement of the debt of Philadelphia city, made public a few days since, shows a total indebtedness of $71,835,101. The funded debt being $61,092,641. The funded part of the debt decreased during last year, $628,900. The assets, mainly in the sinking fund, is $17,259,089, making the net debt $53,531,092. The economy practiced in the city's expenditures enabled the debt to be reduced during the year fully $1,000,000, and this on a tax rate of 2.15. The exposition is pronounced the best that has been shown for a score of years as well as the first that the people have had during that period that has not exceeded the year's income. The cash receipts, derived almost entirely from taxation, last year, amounted to $14,555,620.38, and the disbursements were $14,536,127.33, of which $3,749,483.05 was interest on the city's debt. Of the tax levy 20 per cent. was the average amount uncollected. The amount levied last year was $12,139,496.51, and the amount collected, $9,294,264.95. The amount of outstanding taxes is $2,837,239.34, of which one-half is set down as uncollectable. The disbursements during the year included $11,228,066.86 upon judgments, warrants of previous years, sinking funds and the actual cost of conducting the municipal departments, the latter expense being $7,161,704.81. The disbursements were $807,697.87 less than in 1877. The same wisdom to guide future councils would soon pay off the floating debt entirely. The pay as you go system is recommended; also the funding of the present floating debt into 4 1/2 per cent. 10-30 bonds. The funded debt has increased from $16,000,000 in 1854 to $61,721,541.70 in 1879.

The National Militia Convention which closed its two days session in New York on Friday was significant. In the first place there were representatives present from fifteen States, five of them Southern States. Louisiana was represented by General Beauregard, Virginia by Congressman Ordway, who is also a general; North and South Carolina by their adjutant generals, and Missouri by three prominent officers in her militia. These men took part in the discussion of plans to increase the efficiency of the militia and make it national, and displayed a knowledge and interest in the subject that were not surpassed by any other delegates. There were over 80,000 men represented in the convention, and the result of the deliberations was the framing of a bill which the men most interested in making the national militia efficient think will result in the desired end if passed by congress.

The serious side of the political feud in Breathitt county, Ky., is emphasized by a correspondent of the Frankfort (Ky.) Yeoman, who says that during the war nineteen citizens were killed by the home guards, and that since the war twenty-six have been killed and thirty wounded, making total of seventy-five murders or attempts to kill. Notwithstanding all this crime and bloodshed not one person has been hanged or sent to the penitentiary, and but three men have been put in jail for other crimes—one for arson and two for grand larceny.

The oldest inhabitants in Texas and Louisiana, do not recollect a winter in which such an amount of snow has fallen as during the present. There were several weeks of skating around Dallas, Texas, and sleighs were run for the accommodation of the public at Shreveport, La., while the telegraph wires were down for a week near Galveston, under loads of sleet that coated them.

COUNTERFEIT $5 notes on the following banks are in circulation: First National Bank of Hancock, Penn.; First National Bank of Aurora, Ill.; First National Bank of Canton, Ill.; First National Bank of Chicago, Ill.; Merchants National Bank of Chicago, Ill.; First National Bank of Peru, Ill.; First National Bank of Paxton, Ill.

SOMEBODY asked the chief of the Chinese legation at Washington what would become of his countrymen who wished to live and work away from China, if the United States should close its doors against them. "They will go to Ireland," said the official Celestial, "that is the only country the Irish do not rule."

DURING 1878 the port of Philadelphia exported $10,538,700 worth of goods more than the year before, the total being $48,362,116. The imports last year were $21,048,297, and duties collected footed up $7,803,337, an increase of $1,291,939 over the year before.

PRESIDENT HAYES has approved a bill authorizing the United States treasurer to pay Tennessee for keeping and feeding United States prisoners.

GOVERNOR HAMPTON, of South Carolina, is expected to attend the celebration in Charleston of the anniversary of Washington's birth.

The late Representative Schleicher weighed three hundred and fifty pounds a little while before he died.

A BILL to tax church property is before the Illinois legislature, and it is likely to be passed.

CALVIN CRESHING left property estimated as worth $1,000,000.

Rough Conduct.

CINCINNATI, January 22.—The Young People's Literary Society, at Deerfield, near Lebanon, Ohio, has been troubled by a lot of roughs congregating in the vicinity for some weeks past. Last Saturday the society stationed a guard at the door and the roughs attempted to force an entrance. The guard promptly drew their knives and commenced work in earnest. One Fairchild was out seven times in the head and shoulders and carried away on a stretcher. He is thought to be mortally wounded. The rest of the gang fled. No arrests.

Grand Lodge, I. O. O. B.

DAYTON, O., January 22.—The Grand Lodge, I. O. O. B., completed its business and adjourned yesterday, after the election of Simon Wolfstein, of Cincinnati, president, and A. A. Abrams, of Cincinnati, secretary, for the ensuing year. The next meeting of the lodge will be held at St. Louis in January, 1880.

Broker Suspended.

New York, January 22.—The suspension has been announced in the stock exchange of Weston New, a street broker and dealer in privileges. A sharp advance in prices made it impossible for him to meet his contracts.

Foreign.

PARIS, January 22.—The republic of Francoise warns the cabinet that the majority still exists which will keep strict watch over the use it makes of the respite given. The life or death of the cabinet depends upon the prompt fulfillment of its promises. It is said the plan for replacing Dufaure in the ministry by the cabinet, which would pave the way for the elevation of Gambetta to the presidency in 1880, was formed immediately after his speech at Ravens. Louis Jules Denamie, life senator, has been appointed governor of the Bank of France.

LONDON, January 22.—The shipbuilders, masters and men, have compromised their differences as to wages. Blackburn is placarded with injunctions to a general strike of the weavers.

BERLIN, January 22.—It is again reported that Bismarck is willing to withdraw his bill to discipline Richstag, this time in consequence of the vehement opposition it meets from the diets in the various German States.

CONSTANTINOPLE, January 22.

The Russian ambassador to Constantinople and the Turkish minister of foreign affairs had an interview to-day. Definitive treaty not yet signed.

St. Petersburg, January 22.—The Chinese embassy was received by the czar with great ceremony.

CALCUTTA, January 22.

Intelligence was received here that a Russian steamer has made its way up the River Oxus, and is beyond Afghan frontier.

Convention of Coal Miners.

PITTSBURG, January 22.—A convention of coal miners from the Monongahela river mines, held at Elizabeth yesterday, resulted in a unanimous vote for three cents per bushel, and declaring a strike unless an advance was agreed to by the operators. The miners have been getting two and three-quarters cents per bushel. It is thought the mine owners will not agree to the advance, and a strike will follow.

General Sherman on a Southern Tour.

WASHINGTON, January 22.—Gen. Sherman will soon start on a two weeks' tour of the South Atlantic States. The special object is to examine abandoned military posts and neglected property of the United States in Florida and at Atlanta with a view to ascertaining measures necessary to secure the interests of the United States.

Indications.

WASHINGTON, January 22.—For Tennessee and the Ohio valley falling barometer and stationary or slight rise in temperature during the rest of Wednesday, increasing cloudiness and southerly to westerly winds, followed by rising barometer, variable winds and a slight fall in temperature by Thursday morning.

The lower Missouri and Ohio rivers will rise slowly.

River Telegrams.

CAIRO, Ill., January 22.—River rising. Ice in the Ohio much heavier and covers two-thirds of the river. The transfer boats are unable to cross. Five coal barges, more or less damaged, passed down this forenoon. Weather cloudy and warm.

Two other distilleries are yet to be raided.

Another Chance for Mrs. Cobb.

NEW LONDON, January 22.—A woman makes sworn statement that Charles H. Cobb told her last spring under a pledge of secrecy that he was in the habit of taking a solution of arsenic medicinally. Application is pending for a new trial for Mrs. Cobb, convicted of poisoning her husband.

Resumed Work.

Washington.

THE SILVER DOLLAR.
WASHINGTON, January 22.—Secretary Sherman is making great efforts to get the silver dollar into circulation, and already the daily orders are increasing. Saturday the order was for $25,000, and to-day $20,000. The department began to-day sending throughout the country 50,000 circulars, explaining how the dollar may be obtained. The plan is that the department will, upon receipt of New York exchange, send to any part of the country the silver dollar, in sums of not less than one thousand dollars. The circulars are being sent to every banker, and all large business men and manufacturers. So far the orders that have been received have been almost wholly from the West.

THE CURRENCY.
The bill introduced to-day by Senator Cockrell, to regulate the currency, is the subject of much discussion about congress, and as a test of its importance, is being sent broadcast by the special correspondents, who have also interviewed other senators as to its merits. The common remark among Democrats is that it is a bid which, while possibly faulty in some details, is on the whole one on which the Democrats can unite; that it is calculated to unite all opposition to the Republican party on the question except the fat money people and the extreme gold men.

IMPORTANT DECISION.

The treasury department has issued an order which is of importance to steamboating interests. The secretary, in a letter regarding the appointment of a minor as an engineer on a steamboat, says: "It is proper that a man should not be entrusted with the responsibilities, such as for instance pertain to the position of a licensed steamboat officer, until he is legally responsible for his actions, namely, when he is twenty-one years old; and as this consideration should govern the administration of law in the supervising districts, the department decides against the issue of a license to a minor."

The Consequences of a Laugh.

Particulars of the Lobo tragedy are just to hand. While Miss Walker was preparing breakfast the hired boy made her laugh, in the midst of which she dropped dead. Her mother was absent from home, but on returning and being informed of her daughter's death, looked at the corpse and expired within ten minutes. Both mother and daughter were buried to-day. The young lady, who was aged twenty-nine, and was highly respected, had a lover named Robert Cousins. As soon as he heard of the death of his sweetheart he went out, seized a sharp knife and cut his throat, falling as he died. A doctor sewed up the wound, and the patient is now in a fair way to recover.

Nashville Notes.

Nashville American, 21st.
Ex-Governor James D. Porter and family left here yesterday, for their home in Paris. Adjutant General Charles D. Porter will probably leave for home to-day.

There was a little economical episode in the House, yesterday. Mr. Buchanan argued that the House bill requiring every member to purchase his own stationery, ought to be passed. While cutting down the salaries of others they ought to take something out of their own pockets. It had already been said that the present general assembly was a "poppycock legislature," and they must show that they were willing to do for themselves what they had proposed to do for others.

Mr. Wiltze said that they had come to the legislature to bear whatever of odium might attach to their offices, just as some men had to bear the odium of passing into another institution in this locality. [Laughter.] Whether the legislature was called "poppycock" or what else [laughter], it would be a penny wise and found foolish act on the part of the house to pass such a bill. If every man had to go down in town after stationery there would be ten times more time lost to the State than the stationery would cost.

The bill didn't pass, and the State will continue to furnish stationery for the use of the solons, as heretofore.

Levy seems to be singularly unfortunate with his cornets. A year or two ago his golden horn was seized in Detroit, and Levy never saw it again. The other night he was playing with Gilmore's band at Troy, when the constable levied on his present cornet. The concert was delayed half an hour, and then Gilmore paid the amount. Levy thinks American constables are given to taking a horn too much.

An effect existing without a cause is an impossibility. Ticking in the throat, husking of voice, violent coughing, etc. are the effects of a severe cold. Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup cures the cold at once, and removes its serious effects.

"WRITE me down an ass." That was the injunction of the ancient Dogberry. His request may well be echoed by any man of the present day, who, when suffering from the intolerable complaint, fever an ague, falls so sick that he can't get on his feet. He will find relief in Ross's Gilt Edge Tonic. It never fails in malarial or bilious disorders and it is pleasant, safe and efficient. It is a gentle and pleasant invigorant for delicate females and all who have been weakened by sickness.

A Dangerous Torpor.
Torpor or inactivity of the kidneys is seriously dangerous to those organs, since it is the precursor of disease which destroys the substance and endangers life. This sluggishness may be overcome by stimulating them, not excessively, but moderately, an effect produced by Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a general invigorant and alterative, possessing direct purifying properties of no common order. The impetus which this admirable medicine gives to their excretive function counteracts any tendency to congestion which may exist in their tissues. Both they and their associated organs, the bladder, are invigorated as well as stimulated by the Bitters, which exerts a kind of tonic upon the stomach, liver and bowels, and by strengthening the system enables it to withstand malarial epidemics, to which when exposed it might otherwise succumb.
