REV. Dr. J. B. McFerrin has written a letter to the Christian Advocate in which he expresses the hope that he will be able to be at his office next week. The announcement will be greeted with joy all over the country.

THE town of Brownsville, with no local government at all, has rather retrograded. It was simply turned out on the commons and matters went "sorter loose," as a good old gentleman once said when he had been carrying the county court affairs in his hat. The town at least came to a standstill, which was more than the enterprising citizens of the place could stand. Upon a petition of a majority of voters the county court has declared Brownsville a Taxing District of the second class in accordance with the forms of law. The old debt will be compromised at a reasonable rate and the town will go ahead again.

THE LEDGER is indebted to Hon. Samual J. Randall for a copy of Vol I of the census of 1880. It is a magnificent volume, of nearly a thousand pages, and is devoted entirely to population. It far surpasses anything of the kind ever before issued in this country. It embraces extended tables of the population of States, counties and minor civil divisions with distinction of race, sex, age, nationality and occupations; together with summary tables derived from other census reports relating to newspapers and periodicals; public schools and illiteracy; the dependent, defective and delinquent classes, etc A new and striking feature, however, is a series of colored topographical maps showing at a glance the density of population, foreign, colored and native, male and female, etc, in different localities. These maps are numerous and beautiful, and exceedingly interesting and instructive. It is a book to prize and to keep as an invaluable reference. We can overlook and forgive the long delay in bringing out the work in consideration of its remarkable clearness, accuracy and perspicuity.

AS the LEDGER predicted some weeks ago, the influence of John Logan united the west and Chicago, as a result, was chosen as the place for holding the next Republican convention. This will be very unsatisfactory to the east. Even the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette growls about it and says:

That the Republican National Committee made a mistake in Washington yesterday in selecting Chicago instead of Cincinnati for the convention next year, we are of the opinion, a pretty plain case. The prematurely given pledges of some of the committeemen and the personal influence of Senator Logan prevailed. It does not appear that there was any political significance in the selection of Chicago. Our information is that the Democracy will be likely to hold their convention in this city. We would have preferred May to June for the convention month, but the difference is not material. Chicago is a disappointment as against Cincinnati, but an improvement upon Indianapolis, Philadelphia, Saratoga and Chautauqua. There are hotels, newspapers and telegraph facilities in Chicago as well as Cincinnati, and it is a pity they have not our Music Hall and the twenty-five small halls under the same roof for committees.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

LONDON, December 14.—The cotton mill of Jones & Co., at Leigh, burned last night. Loss, £30,000.

The hangman has arrived and will make preparations for the execution of O'Donnell. The American Minister says he is not free to discuss the steps taken to obtain a respite, as he is hampered by the result of the Lawson case. Reports say that the jurymen who have been seen refuse to join in a memorial for respite.

ST. PETERSBURG, December 14.—The Nihilist Rutchkoff, who escaped from prison at Charkow and returned to free his companions, was seized by the guards. He then shot a gendarme and himself fatally.

VIENNA, December 14.—The Socialists on trial at Losben have been acquitted of high treason.

ROME, December 14.—The German Minister to the Vatican and Cardinal Jacobine had a conference upon the question of the Cardinal's visit on behalf of the Pope to the Crown Prince of Germany in return for the Prince's visit to the Pope. The question is a difficult one, as the prince will stop at Palace Quirenal, residence of the king.

CAIRO, December 14—The Kowawcer tribe reports that Hicks Pasha was at Birket on November 15th, but that communication was now cut off by the Gawama tribes. The news is not credited here.

Burned to Death.

ROCKVILLE, IND., December 14.—A drunken man named John Barnes who lived in this vicinity locked his wife out of doors because she refused to let him have any money, and she had to take her children to the woods and while she was building a fire her clothing caught fire and she was burned to death.

Hard on Saloon Keepers.

CAMBRIDGE, O., December 14.—At the session of the Common Pleas Court yesterday, Judge Frazier sentenced twelve saloon keepers to fines aggregating $4400, and imprisonment in the county jail aggregating four hundred days, for violating the Scott law. There are seventy cases yet to be tried.

The Oregon Transcontinental.

NEW YORK, December 14.—The executive committee of the Oregon Transcontinental has appointed Endicott, of Boston, and Fabrie, of New York, to examine the accounts and securities so that a statement of the condition of the company may be made to the stockholders.

Liverpool Markets.

LIVERPOOL, December 14, 2:30 p.m. —Bacon, dull; Cumberland cut, 41s; short rib, 41s 6d. Lard, prime western, dull at 45s. Lard oil, dull at 43s. Corn, new mixed, steady at 5s 6d. Turpentine spirits, at London, dull at 26s.

Ship News.

NEW YORK, December 14.—Arrived: Steamer Ethiopia, from Glasgow, Grecian Monarch, from London.

CARLISLE'S PROBLEM.

The Composition of House Committees from a Republican Standpoint.

Current Speculation and Comment in Washington.

Washington Special to the N. Y. Tribune.

Not only does Speaker Carlisle's haggard face and weary air give plain evidence of the mental strain and anxiety imposed by his attempt to make fifty committee chairmanships "go round" among 190 importunate Democratic patriots in a way to satisfy them all, but the members of his "cabinet" show signs of great fatigue and worry. Colonel Morrison, the Speaker's premier, probably bears the heaviest weight of responsibility. He is more sought after and more ceaselessly importuned by anxious Democrats probably than is the Speaker himself for every anxious applicant seems to believe himself secure if he can obtain the good offices of the Illinois statesman.

The second member of the Speaker's cabinet is Abram S. Hewitt, who appears to be charged with the duty of ascertaining the hopes, desires and expectations of the Eastern men generally, and those of New York especially, including in the latter case Republicans as well as Democrats. Mr. Hewitt is conscientious, and his recommendations to the Speaker no doubt will be guided and controlled by his best judgment as to the abilities, qualifications and deserts of the men from whom the selections are to be made. It is no wonder, therefore, that he feels a deep sense of responsibility.

Mr. Tucker, the affable Virginian, is the third and last of the Speaker's confidential advisers, and he seems to be occupied in looking after the interests of the Southern Representatives. It is contrary to his nature and disposition to be reticent on any subject, and some of his efforts to conceal information are said to be comical in the extreme, although in the main successful.

Into this inner circle of Speaker Carlisle's advisers neither Mr. Randall, Mr. Cox, Mr. Springer, nor any other Democrat, no matter what his prominence or what his opinion of his own capacity is, is allowed to intrude. It is, however, true that men like Mr. Willis and Mr. Blackburn, of Kentucky, and Mr. Ellis, of Louisiana, who were among Mr. Carlisle's most earnest workers, are consulted about certain things, and in a few cases individuals have been permitted to know what good things are in store for them. The article about House Committees published in the Tribune to-day was studied with great interest by Democrats as well as by Republicans. Some of the men, whose names were put down for prominent chairmanships, declared that the guesses were poor ones, but their criticisms were based upon hope, not knowledge. In the main the forecast is regarded as a reasonably fair and probable one.

A correction should be made as to the Chairmanship of Public Lands. There is reason to believe that it will go to Mr. Holman. It is also understood that upon the organization of the Committee on Rivers and Harbors Mr. Ellis will be made Chairman of it, and not Mr. Dunn, who offered the resolution to create it. S. S. Cox is anxious to have his old place as Chairman of Foreign Affairs, and he would regard a refusal of the Speaker to appoint him as not only an affront to the great State of New York, but a personal slight to himself, who was her candidate for the Speakership.

Gossip to-day indicated that Mr. Hiscock is assigned to the Ways and Means Committee and that Mr. Wadsworth, of New York will be given a place on the Appropriation Committee. Among the old Democratic members the hostility to General Keifer is intense, and many of them declare that his appointment as Chairman of the Committee on Public Expenditures, of which Mr. Randall was Chairman in the last Congress, is out of the question.

It is probable that the committee appointments will not be announced until the day before the beginning of the holiday recess.

A Familiar Voice From the Ninth Ward.

EDITOR LEDGER—Well, it has been some time since you have heard from my part of the burg. Well, we have had some work done in the Ninth by the street force and it looks nice, but there are a few things needed to make the Ninth ward happy. That is good crossings, so that a footpad can get in to the Taxing District, to have a policeman or two, and a good member of the Honorable Legislative Council.

Well, in talking about members, I would like to know why Mr. Wm. Carr, of the Ninth ward wouldn't do for a member? because he is a man of fine business qualifications, a man that everybody has confidence in, that knows him, and those who don't know him, have no right to vote, because they don't live in the county. Everybody knows Bill Carr, the tar pauling man on the levee, but if the people don't want Mr. Carr, why not Dr. W. B. Winston, either, or both are our choice. If the people are not satisfied in giving us one, we are willing to take both.

Mr. Editor, I am willing to pay my taxes, and do pay them as prompt as anybody, but it cut me to the hollow to have to pay that railroad tax.

Look at a railroad receipt, if have one at home, you will see that there is 20c on the $100 for railroads. Now, what I am kicking about is, the poor devil that has a little home has to pay this tax to help a corporation to build a road that makes money for Gould and others, and we poor fools made to beg our honorable County Court, by voting, to give them many thousand dollars. And let one of those J. P.'s get on the train and not pay his fare, makes no difference how much taxes he pays, he will be shown the door, and perhaps the boot of the conductor.

Mississippi Gets the Cold Shoulder.

Special to Vicksburg Herald.

WASHINGTON, December 12.—W. T. Holland, of Hinds county, formerly Sergeant-at-Arms of the Mississippi Legislature, was appointed a messenger to-day in the House of Representatives at a salary of $1000. Willie Leonard, of Port Gibson, was appointed a page. This is all the patronage Mississippi will get in the House, except a position on the Capital police at $1000 a year, which will be filled from Muldrow's District. Mississippi would have been better provided for had not the delegation voted wrong. Clarke, the clerk, only got one vote from Mississippi, and Wintersmith, the doorkeeper, one. Clark will give Mississippi nothing.

A Kentuckian Declines.

Special to the Commercial Gazette.

WASHINGTON, December 12—Another estimable gentleman of Kentucky birth, Mr. L. F. Warder, now of Jeffersonville, Indiana, was appointed on the House force to-day. One Kentuckian has declined a very good place. This was the first and will doubtless be the only one of his race who will do this thing. Mr. O. O. Stanley, the able and excellent correspondent of the Louisville Courier-Journal, was offered the important position of paying teller to the Sergeant-at-Arms, without application on his part, and surprised the whole Kentucky colony here by promptly declining.

A Southern "Maud."

Captain Jas. B. Lake, jr., of Grenada, is the owner and is justly proud of one of the most beautiful pieces of horse flesh in the South, if not anywhere in the world. It is a seven-year-old mare from Blue Grass Kentucky, bought two years ago for seven hundred dollars in gold. Her name is Maud, and she is pure white and beautifully formed, a very perfection of physical symmetry and form. At the Jackson Fair she took the blue ribbon as the most beautiful animal in Mississippi. On the road she steps like a very queen of the equine species, and is as intelligent as graceful, and easily makes a mile in three minutes, although not trained or boasted as a fast trotter. Captain Lake has been offered $2000 here in Memphis for "Maud," but she is not for sale even for "five brick blocks." The Captain is in the city, and the lovely animal is at Forest's stable, where many leading ladies and gentlemen have called to see "the young sixteen-year-old girl ready for the ball."

An Old Nashville Citizen.

World, 13.

"I have lived in Nashville since the year one," remarked a venerable visitor at the World office yesterday morning, "and ought to know something of our commercial and other statistics."

"The year one?" gasped the reporter. "You don't mean that you have resided here for eighteen hundred and—"

"Yes, I do!" put in our venerable friend. "I mean that exactly. I came here in the year eighteen hundred and one and—"

"Oh!" ejaculated the reporter.

"Ah!" retorted our distinguished visitor.

"I was born," continued Colonel A. W. Johnson—for he it was—"in New Hampshire in the year 1797, and came to this city in 1801, where I have resided ever since—that is have resided in Nashville and its immediate vicinity. And your informant, Mr. Weller, is correct; The first steamboat that ever landed at our wharf was the "General Jackson"—this in the year 1818. I had never before seen such a crowd on the bank to witness the landing. It was a big day with us, that coming of our first steamboat.

"I did business for forty years on Broad street," added Colonel J. after a pause. "I have lived along with the nineteenth century in Nashville. I have known all our prominent officials, and I consider Governor Wm. Carroll was one of the greatest men that ever lived—competent to fill the highest office under the government."

Notwithstanding his eighty-seven years, Colonel Johnson is vigorous of mind and body, and is, no doubt, entitled to the claim of being our "oldest living citizen." May he continue to live along on parallel lines with the century.

Sheriff's Sale of Real Estate.

PUBLIC notice is hereby given, that by virtue of two writs of venditioni exponas, to me directed from the Hon. Circuit Court of Shelby county, Tenn., in the cases of Jones and Buckley, and Thomas Wherry vs T C Horne jr. judgment rendered on the 6th day of October, 1881, for the aggregate sum of one hundred and eighty-nine dollars and 75 cents, with interest and costs of suits, to satisfy said judgments, etc., I will, on in legal hours, in front of the courthouse, in the Taxing District of Shelby county, Tenn., proceed to sell, to the highest bidder, for cash, the following described property, to-wit:

A certain tract of land in the Eight Civil District of Shelby county, Tennessee, and bounded as follows: North by a eighty acre tract belonging to the estate of James Horne, dec'd; east by a one hundred and twenty acre tract belonging to same estate; south by the old Brownsville road; west by the land belonging to Horne, or old Baptist church, and by the lands of Charles Reaver, containing fifty acres, more or less.

Judgment in favor of Jones and Buckley has priority by levy and sale will be made accordingly.)

Levied on as the property of defendant, T C Horne, jr., to satisfy said judgment, interest and costs.
