If You Are Content With the Same Old Seven and Six That You'll Find in Every Store—Phil A. Halle Christmas Toggery Won't Appeal to You!

Exclusiveness—smartness—quality—those three words express the Phil A. Halle idea of Christmas Toggery.

Self-bordered Linen Handkerchiefs—Mufflers—Sweaters of Shetland—Silk and Wool—Crocket—Shot Knit—Silk Cravats—all from Welch Margerton of London.

And Silk Dressing Gowns—Smoking Jackets—Wonderful Silk Shirts—Motif Cravats—Fur Caps—Fur Lined Gloves—Detachable Fur Collars—and many other smart toggery ideas, made in the good old U. S. A.

Just remember that the name Phil A. Halle on any article of men's fashionable toggery has the same significance as the word Sterling on Silver!

Nobody has ever been able to find out, figuratively speaking, "Miss Memphis" is supposed to be a beautiful young girl still in her teens, for a splendid bachelor maid in the prime of life.

When asked Mayor Monteverde admitted that Miss Memphis is, by all means, beautiful, but there have been many reports from the Eastern colleges which they attend, that bear high praise for their talent in art and literature, as well as in scholarship.

The Christmas holidays. After the holidays Mrs. Williamson and her daughter, Sue, will go to Washington, D. C., to be the guests of Col. and Mrs. F. P. Jacobs.

Miss Vada Norris returned Saturday from Ward-Belmont, and will spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Norris, at their home.

Mrs. Donna M. Beck and her niece, Miss Edwina Gage, will leave tonight for New Orleans to spend the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Floyd of Como, Miss, will be the guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Joy, 671 South Belle, for the holidays.

Dr. J. L. Andrews, major U. S. A. medical corps, is in Memphis on a 30 days' furlough. He will remain during the Christmas holidays.

Dr. Andrews expects to be mustered out of the service at an early date and resume his duties as superintendent of the city health department.

S. O. Bates, attorney-general, has gone to Newport, Ky., and Cincinnati, O., to spend the holidays with his relatives. The courts have closed for the Christmas week and will not open until Jan. 2.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell K. Lowry, of Chicago, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Tuxton, 43 South Auburndale, for the holidays.

Jas. J. Carrigan & Co. Everything That Swims and Everything That Flies. We have always sold the best of everything that swims, and why not try everything that flies?

LANE & BOWLER ENLIST IN CAUSE. Oh, you Goodfellows with the Lane & Bowler company—the band and the employees. We know that you won't be with us again strong, but we hardly expected so much.

The Dead. Troy Baker. DYERSBURG, Tenn., Dec. 23. (Sp.)—Troy Baker, son of Ross Baker, died at his home east of town, after a short illness. He was 23 years of age. He leaves a wife and two children. Interment was at Fairview.

Eugene Clark. DYERSBURG, Tenn., Dec. 23. (Sp.)—Eugene Clark, who lived across the line in Crockett county, died at the home of his parents at Fairview, near here, after a short illness. He was 30 years of age, and is survived by his wife and child. Interment was at Mount Zion.

Mrs. W. H. Fones. DYERSBURG, Tenn., Dec. 23. (Sp.)—Mrs. W. H. Fones died at the home of her parents at Fairview, near here, after a short illness. She is survived by her husband and son.

BUSINESS AND SOCIAL.

EDMUND WILEY. Teacher of singing, is out of the city until Saturday, Dec. 23. He will resume teaching Monday, Dec. 30. All those wishing to secure desirable hours for study during the coming season should see him on that date or as soon after as convenient.
