

ORGANS

FOR THE Parlor and Chapel

One of the most beautiful pictures in the home, a church or a Sunday school, is an organ—one that is built to suit the home, the congregation and the financial condition of the people. This is what a National Baptist organ will do.

The parlor organs are in three styles:

Style No. 2 is 5 octaves, action B, oak case only.

Style No. 3 is 5 and 6 octaves, oak case only.

Style No. 5 is 5 and 6 octaves, case is oak or walnut.

Style No. 75 is our new design. It is quarter sawed, golden oak polish and is put up in a six octave case.

SACRED CONCERT AT SPRUCE STREET CHURCH.

The music-loving part of Nashville was favored with a rare treat in the program rendered at Spruce Street Baptist Church Sunday evening. The management displayed an exceptional taste in the selection of the talent, as well as the pieces rendered. Prof. Porter, the prime mover of the concert, demonstrated that he knows something about music. It is known that he has been for many years an ardent lover of music in all of its forms. He has spent much time in the East, where he came in close contact with the real artists.

Dr. A. M. Townsend also contributed much to the success of the entertainment, while Messrs. Myers, Moore, Kelly and others were equally responsible for the parts they played. The violin solo by Mrs. Jefferson Martin was sweetly rendered. A large audience was present. In fact, a larger audience than has been known for a long time. The pastor acted as master of ceremonies, and upon finding that the hour had grown late, postponed his address, much to the regret of many of those present, but being a far-seeing young man, he knew that the patience of the masses would not permit listening to a lengthy address. The following was the programme for the evening:

Organ solo Mr. J. A. Porter
Invocation Rev. W. L. Craft
Selection Spruce Street Choir
Duet Messrs. Moore and Myers
Violin Solo Mrs. J. S. Martin
Selection Choir
Clarinet Solo Mr. Neal Gowdy
Bass Solo Mr. Frank Fowler
Collection
Solo Mrs. A. G. Thompson
Hymn—"In the cross of Christ I
Glory" The Choir

ENTERTAINMENT AT KAYNE AVENUE CHURCH.

Monday night, May 13, an interesting entertainment was given at the Kayne Kayne Baptist Church in the nature of a festival. A large crowd was present. Eatables of all kinds had been prepared for this occasion. A neat little program was rendered, in which Rev. W. S. Ellington, Rev. G. B. Taylor and Rev. J. C. Lott were speakers. The festival was a financial success. The proceeds will go towards repairing and improving the church property. They contemplate installing a set of new church pews in the near future. This is one of the largest churches in the city and is located in a neighborhood where they draw on other churches but cannot be drawn on.

RALLY AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.

There will be a rally at the First Baptist Church all day Sunday, May 19. At the 11 o'clock service Rev. W. S. Ellington, B. A., the pastor, will preach. His subject will be "Elijah, Israel's Greatest Prophet." There will be preaching at the 8 o'clock service, and a full report of the rally.

THE STORY OF A WOMAN'S HAT.

A few evenings ago while a Globe representative was resting in his easy chair from a hard day's work he heard a woman scream. Upon investigation he learned that not even the weight of a feather had been laid upon the woman, but her husband had put her Sunday hat in the fire. The husband claimed that he bought the hat and had a right to do as he pleased with it, while the injured woman declared that her husband put the hat in the fire and that she had a right to scream if she wanted to.

SUCCESSFUL SPRING FESTIVAL.

The financial success of the twentieth annual spring festival, which closed at the Mt. Olive Baptist Church on last Friday night, is summed up to amount to $200.00 net. More than $350.00 was taken in, it is claimed, but there was a deal of expense attached and the net earnings will be something over $200.00. Every worker on the committee and every attendant evidenced the same amount of interest. They have never been pleased more at the results of an entertainment in the church. Dr. Clark declares that he proposes to raise $1,500 with which to remodel the church. Two steeples will be added and the two entrances to the basement will be remodeled, the Sunday school room thoroughly renovated and chairs installed, and the walls of the main auditorium calcimined. This, the pastor declares, will take fully $1,500 and must be done within the next five or six months. Hence the spring festival was only a forerunner of what will take place in the near future.

at 3 p. m. Sunday. Although few in number they came prepared to take in just what was said. Mr. Boyd outlined the purpose for making the call and stated in a few brief remarks the purpose of the contemplated celebration of Children's Day. He said that if the older people of Nashville could not come together as had been demonstrated time and again in worthy and laudable causes, it was time that some plans were put on foot for bringing the children together, thereby bringing them up to work in unity, and develop their strength. It was agreed at this meeting that Mr. Henry A. Boyd would be the general superintendent and manager of the Children's Day exercises. The meeting lasted until 5:30 because of the fact that all of those present wanted to express themselves concerning the new, yet favorable project as it appeared to them. It is learned that Baptist Ministers' Conference, which meets every Monday, endorsed heartily this plan of celebrating Children's Day. They have promised that each superintendent of their respective schools would attend the next meeting, which is to be held at the Publishing House, Sunday, May 19, at 2 p. m., when final arrangements will be completed, officers and committees appointed, putting on the finishing touches for this big occasion and to bring to a climax the most successful religious celebration Nashville has ever witnessed.
