

Church. During his stay at Straight University between forty and fifty took the divinity course, many finishing with high honors. It was from Straight University that Dr. Henderson came to take charge of the Theological Department at Fisk, to bring such glorious results as were evidenced at the exercises last Sunday. It appears that his personality and high scholarship have attracted men from the medical profession, the city schools and other walks of life into the gospel ministry. Every one in the vast audience was pleased with the exercises and heartily congratulated the graduates, Dean Wright, of the University, and Dean Henderson, of the Theological Department.

DECORATION ADDRESS.

the degradation of the black man, the black veteran has thus grown in indifference so that he does not come to honor the memory of his comrades who have answered the last roll call and he fails to impress this duty of reverence upon his children, the rising generation. This occasion ought to be impressed upon our young as a hallowed day. The old comrades are fast passing to the soldiers' home above, and what will become of this and emancipation day if we do not impress their sacredness upon the present and future generations of our young people? We should teach our children at our knee the lesson of the sacrifice these sleeping dead made that they might enjoy this glorious day of liberty and enlightenment.

There are many of our people who would have you forget the past with all its horrors and oppression and debasement, but like the Jews we should never forget, for only those who have suffered and wept can appreciate the blessings of peace and comfort.

I have recently published a book "Out of the Darkness" for the purpose of instructing our young people in some of the things the race has had done to them; what they have endured and must endure ere they shall be free indeed and be men, and citizens. From it they will learn of the travail, pain and long-suffering through which they were born to freedom. Many things told therein are known to the older people, both colored and white, but the young of either race know nothing of the price paid for what liberty we enjoy. We must teach, write and speak of these things that they may be instilled into the hearts and minds of the generations coming after.

I know there are those who would have you believe that all is sunshine and that our path is lined with flowers, that there are no dark and lowering clouds and that there are no thorns amid the flowers, that every day is Sunday and that the obstacles we meet are only myths of the imagination. But in spite of these dreams we must know the dark as well as the bright side of our life.

"We know in what a forge and what a heat was shaped the anchor of our hope."

We should not be deceived by false lights in our dark night, to believe that all is well and that we have reached a quiet haven, a sure retreat; for there are hidden rocks and quicksands along the shore.

May no tom, toms, drum beat or bugle blast be able to drown the still voice of warning that comes to us from out the storm, for all is not well. Lord be with us yet lest we forget, lest we forget.

A GRAND SUCCESS.

The first social of the Undenominational Bible Readers' Association was quite a success, which came off recently at the residence of Rev. S. Frister, 1903 Heffernan street. The President, Rev. S. Frister, opened the exercises by an introduction of the society and Scripture reading. Rev. M. B. Ridley offered prayer. We had present with us Rev. M. B. Ridley, Mrs. Cotton, Miss Alberta DeMoss, Mr. Ed Whitaker, Miss Eva DeMoss, Mrs. Della Green, Mrs. Anna Dismuke, Mrs. Mary Broom, Mrs. Rev. E. C. Jones, Mrs. Rev. M. B. Ridley, Miss Pearly M. Jones, Mrs. Rev. S. Frister, Misses Josephine and Elizabeth Frister, Theodore and Benjamin Frister. The President took pains to show the purpose of the institution. That it is not property of any denomination, but offers its service to all. That it is not a church and would not assume authority over any one. We are associated to read the Bible and to help others to read it in that connected way by which alone its harmony, beauty and worth may be learned and enjoyed. Rev. E. C. Jones, who holds the office of "principal reader," introduced his chart work. All vacant time was filled by select music by Mr. Ed Whitaker and Miss Alberta DeMoss. Refreshment and Mrs. Broome.

MRS. EMMA MUIRHEAD.

Monday morning, May 24, at 3:30 o'clock Mrs. Emma Muirhead died at her home, 29 North Hill street, after a brief illness of a few days. Her death was quite a shock to the entire community, even though she had no hope of recovering, and expressed herself willing and ready to go.

As a wife she was kind, loving and faithful to the end, a mother who loved her children and was kind and affectionate to her children and all around her. Mrs. Muirhead was loved by all who knew her. As a neighbor she was an exception, quiet and agreeable. She will be missed and her place hard to fill. She was 41 years and 10 months old, was mother of 15 children, seven of whom survive her, besides a mother, two sisters and one brother. Her remains were carried to her old home at Lebanon, Tenn. Funeral attended by Rev. T. W. Johnson, pastor of Clark Memorial, assisted by Revs. Manson and Phillips. Undertaker Johnson accompanied the remains to the last resting place.

A loving one from us has gone;
A voice we loved is stilled;
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.

cred. Two of the three were graduates of Meharry. The papers have been returned showing that seventeen of the whites passed and eighteen failed, two of the colored passed and one failed. The two successful ones are J. C. Overton, of the class of 1909, and T. B. Coleman, of the class of 1908. No doubt the students of Meharry will rejoice to know that members of the various classes are successfully passing the many state boards. It is said that Dr. Coleman made the second highest mark of the thirty-eight applicants. Some time ago Dr. Coleman passed the Tennessee state board, but did not locate here.

IN MEMORY.

In the death of our beloved mother, and Sister Hannah Lawrence who departed this life last Friday, May 21, Nashville has lost one of her oldest citizens and mothers. She was a good Christian, God spared this beloved sister to raise five daughters to be grown.

What is our loss is heaven's gain. The sudden death of Sister Lawrence brought home her three daughters from Louisville, Ky., Mrs. Irene Earley, Mrs. Jessie Curry, Mrs. Ida Key. Mrs. Josia Brown of Nashville Mrs. Jane Coleman, of Dayton, Tenn.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

From time to time news items intended for publication in the Nashville Globe have been entrusted to various individuals. They have been handed to different people in the streets reaching the office late, and sometimes not getting there at all. All matter intended for publication in the Nashville Globe should be sent to THE NASHVILLE GLOBE, 447 Fourth avenue North. It should be signed by the party sending in the news item, so that it can be verified. The Globe desires to serve this notice that it will not be responsible for publication of news items sent to any other office outside of the Nashville Globe office or handed to some representative of the Globe. From time to time news items intended for publication have been sent to R. H. Boyd, to the National Baptist Publishing Board, to the A. M. ### SIR D. J. MITCHELL IN THE CITY.

Sir D. J. Mitchell, Chief Grand Mentor of State of Tennessee, complimented Star of Nashville Tabernacle No. 19 with his presence, Tuesday night, May 18, 1909. He was on his annual tour. I. C. G. P. Dt. Annie Jackson turned Tabernacle over to him and the Chief Recorder, Dt. Annie C. Young read her report after which C. G. M. complimented Tabernacle in his highest terms for such a grand report and complimented officers for their noble work. Sir Mitchell spoke in the highest terms of the order throughout his jurisdiction. Amongst the guest present was Dr. S. W. Crosthwait, who was called upon to speak and readily responded, complimenting what C. G. Mentor had said and heartily endorsed the order. C. G. M. then installed the officers for next year, after which he paid over to the beneficiaries of our deceased daughter, Frances Howard a check for $150.00 endowment same being made payable to her daughter, Mrs. Lula M. Crosthwait. This being the second claim paid from Star of Nashville Tabernacle this year, each having been paid thirty days after filing claim.

Daughter Crosthwait accepted the check and then thanked C. G. Mentor, officers and members of Star of Nashville Tabernacle for its prompt payment. Refreshments were served and all retired to their homes.

CHRYSANTHEMUM ART CLUB.

The Chrysanthemum Art Club met at the home of Mrs. Ferguson, May 20, 1909, with our most worthy President, Mrs. Amanda Settles, who has not been present on account of illness for quite a while. We are very glad to have her back with us again. Our meeting was very briefly carried out in a business way. Needle work being the most important which is so carefully done by all. Several applications came in for membership last meeting.

TO PARENTS AND FRIENDS.

The principal, teachers and pupils of Hadley School cordially invites the parents and friends to attend the Manual Training Exhibition of that school June 4, 7, 8.

McNAIRY HILL CHURCH.

McNairy Hill United Primitive Baptist Auxiliary Club met in the District Convention that was in session at the Bethlehem United Primitive Church, Porterfield street, for the purpose of organizing a Primitive Baptist convention so as to raise money to build a home for the old elders and disaffected teachers gave $1.60 to the convention for the cause.

GREAT RALLY FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.

The First Baptist Church of West Nashville held a great rally on last Sunday. They entered their new church. A large crowd of people were present. The church is a beautiful frame structure costing one thousand dollars. Services were held all day and several pastors from different churches were present to assist in the noble work. Rev. R. G. Wilson, the pastor of Fifth Avenue Baptist Church, Rev. G. B. Taylor, of the Second Baptist Church and Rev. C. H. Clark were present. Rev. Phillips and Rev. Stratton preached at night at 7:30. The church raised all day for the rally $161.86 which speaks well for the pastor and congregation and friends of that church. The church has an excellent pastor, Rev. W. M. Ferrell.

MR. AND MRS. STEVENSON ENTERTAIN.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Stevenson entertained at dinner last Tuesday in honor of their Chief, Wm. Christian, of Memphis, Tenn. Those to enjoy the occasion were, Rev. Wm. Christian, A. Tompson, S. Stevens, Mesdames A. Luster, L. Blair, H. Stevenson and Mary Noverlton.
